

"THANKS TO ICE—

I Could Bring Home the Fish I Caught!

I had a great day of fishing out at the lake, and my problem was to get my catch home before the heat spoiled it. I bought a big cake of ice, packed the fish with it and that night we had fresh fish for supper.

BOOK TEA ENJOYED AT RECTORY LAST FRIDAY

The book tea held at the St. Philips rectory, with Mrs. Harry Perry as hostess, Friday afternoon, proved an enjoyable and profitable event, sponsored by the St. Philips Guild.

Many ladies of the town and visiting friends from other places attended during the reception hours of 4 to 6, selected a book of their choice and enjoyed the time spent in social conversation.

PUREBRED SHEEP TO BE OFFERED ON 4TH

Announcement is made by Professor Randall Lyday, agriculture teacher of Rosman high school, that the annual purebred ram sale and exchange will be held in Asheville on August 4 at the stockyards.

County Agent W. D. Smith of Haywood county makes the following statement in a letter to Mr. Lyday: "Of course, this is primarily a ram sale, but exchanges will be made also. We are expecting a number of pure bred ewes to be offered for sale too. You understand this is a pure bred sale only. Tell your breeders to get any animal they have to offer for sale over in time for the auctioneering which starts at ten o'clock."

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC ENJOYED AT TOXAWAY

LAKE TOXAWAY, July 25—The junior class of Lake Toxaway Methodist Sunday school had an enjoyable Sunday afternoon at the head of the lake at the old Foster house.

Accompanying the class were members of the senior class and Mrs. Berlin Owen. The teacher of the junior class, Mrs. Ed Tolley, was unable to attend.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Mrs. Berlin Owen and son A. L., Paul, Hubert, Cecil, Helen and Gloria Fisher, Arlene Lee and Addie Owen, John, Robert and Betty Rogers, Lucy and John Hall, Lucy Owen, Charles Arrowood and Martha Lee McCall.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH INSTALLATION SERVICE

Installation services will be held at the Brevard Presbyterian church Sunday morning at the eleven o'clock hour, with Dr. R. D. Bedinger of Asheville in charge of the service. Dr. R. P. Smith of Asheville will make the charge to the pastor.

J. T. Bailey, of Canton, moderator of the Asheville district, will preside. The Rev. Vernon A. Crawford, former pastor, will assist in the services.

METHODIST STEWARDS TO MEET 5TH MONDAY

T. W. Whitmire, chairman of the board of stewards of the Methodist church, makes announcement that the meeting of the board of stewards will be on the fifth Monday night instead of the fourth, which will be next Monday night at 8 o'clock at the church.

There will be very important business to transact, and the chairman urges the full board to be present, including the three new members recently appointed by the pastor.

NEW BAPTIST CHURCH ORGANIZED AT SELICA

After a revival held at the Selica Methodist church, conducted by Rev. Nathan Chapman and brother John Chapman, a congregation met Friday and perfected organization of a Baptist church. The church will be known as the Rober Baptist church.

Rev. Nathan Chapman was elected pastor, with the following as deacons: Jesse Dickson, Avery McCall, Ward Breedlove, and Mrs. Ralph Stamey as church clerk. Mr. Dickson and Mr. McCall will be ordained next Sunday.

The services will be held in the Methodist building until other arrangements can be made, it is announced.
