COLLEGE FOOTBALL TO START THURSDAY

Four Letter Men Report Here Today For Practice—Field In Shape

Brevard College eleven, or rather the college thirty or forty, is expected to start training the last of this week, with light workouts for small squads, under Coach Ralph James and J. S. Williams.

First work will be done Thursday afternoon, with a heavier squad being run out each day. Full force is expected on the field by the middle of next week.

Coach Williams is here now, getting equipment in shape and assisting in getting the gridiron laid out. Mr. Williams, who worked with James at Weaver last year and is a former Duke player, will be in charge of the "B" team and will have charge of line work for the first stringers. Coach James will be here Thursday morning to take over active duties as head of the athletic department of the college.

Four Weaver letter men are to be here this week to start workout, along with several high school stars from various sections of the country. The four Weaver men to report here are Proffitt and Griffin, ends; Prentiss, quarterback, and Sitton, tackle. Coach James said Sunday while in Brevard that he had several more boys of fine ability on his string, including some recruits from Brevard high school.

Work is being done on the field by a crew of workmen under supervision of Harry Patton, chief work being covering of the long drain ditch that crosses the field from Broad street. When completed the college grid will be one of the best in this section of the state.

New uniforms have been purchased for the team. The jerseys are colored royal blue trimmed in white. Plain khaki pants will be used and helmets will be blue.

Brevard will open the season with Western Carolina Teachers College Junior varsity furnishing the opposition on September 29. The season ends Thanksgiving day against Mars Hill.

Out-of-Door School In Session At Rockbrook Camp For Two Months

The Out-of-Door School of Sarasota, Florida, directed by Miss Faneal Harrison opened its 1934-35 school year Monday at Rockbrook camp where it will be in session for two months. Thirty resident students are in attendance for the school's first fall session at the Brevard camp.

The institution is a progressive school for boys and girls, three to 18 years of age, and its program is adjusted to the health of the individual child. The child lives in the open air—sleeps, eats, works and plays out-of-doors or in houses with wire screening for sides.

At Rockbrook Camp, four miles from Brevard, the children will have two months of hard studying, have regular lessons in riding, tennis and canoeing, and also they will have thrilling adventures in climbing mountains on foot and horseback riding or shooting the rapids of the French Broad in canoes, according to the program outlined by Miss Harrison. Miss Harrison will be assisted in this work by a staff of experienced men and women.

The school year this season at Rockbrook is divided into three periods—the camp period at Brevard,

ASKS FOR IMAGINES FOR STATE PRISONERS

L. P. Wilson, in charge of prisoners at the state camp near Calvert, requests that people of the community who have good books that they have read or current magazines which they can give to the camp for benefit of the prisoners.

Mr. Wilson states that the prisoners do not have any reading material other than such as he has been able to furnish.

ROSMAN BUSES HAUL TOO MANY CHILDREN

ROSMAN, Sept. 12.—Patrons and other interested citizens think the bus drivers and pupils of Rosman school should be commended that an accident of some kind has not occurred due to crowded conditions. The casual observer would say there could not be another child crowded in anywhere but when mentioned to the driver, "Yes, we have three more that come on this bus who are absent today." There are three buses, carrying children to Rosman. The East Fork bus brings 47 children, Gloucester 48 and Lake Toxaway 67.

WILL BUY SURPLUS FEED FROM FARMS

All surplus feed in the county will be bought by the ERE, according to statement by W. A. Wilson, director of the county Emergency Relief agency.

Mr. Wilson requests that farmers who have feed for sale communicate with him as early as possible, preferably a call at his office, giving him estimate of amounts of feed for sale and date of delivery. In all cases, Mr. Wilson requests that he be contacted before any delivery of feed is planned by sellers.

Prices that are expected to be paid at present are, for:

Corn stover (shredded corn minus the grain), $14 per ton when baled and delivered; peavine or soybean hay, $18 per ton, baled and delivered; shucks, $14 per ton, baled and delivered; tops and fodder, $14 per ton delivered; short corn at one-half the market price for regular corn.

The feed will be used in wintering the drouth area cattle that have been shipped into the county.

"Deer Bug" Found

A freak bug was brought to The Times office Wednesday by Harry Sitton, found by him on a rock above Triple Falls in the Cedar Mountain section.

The bug is hard shelled and has long three-spined horns like a deer protruding from its head. It is an unusual specimen and its identity in the insect family has not been learned.

OLD AGE PENSION TO BE SOUGHT FOR U. S.

Editor, The Times: Petitions are now at the Transylvania Trust company's office asking our representative in congress and Senator Robert R. Reynolds to use their influence to see that the Townsend Old Age Revolving Pension Plan is enacted into law at the coming session of congress.

All parties interested in seeing this plan adopted are urged to sign both petitions.

It is the best thing yet offered. Sign it and take your friends in to sign it.

The Asheville paper today has a large headline telling us what a large delegation is going to see what can be done about the Parkway.

This pension plan put into effect will do more for Transylvania county in a year than the Parkway will in ten years—and I can prove it.

The school was closed last spring a few weeks before the term ended and the children this term are being transported to Pisgah Forest. Forty or more children are eligible to attend the school at Turkey Creek and patrons aver that manner of transportation to Pisgah Forest, especially for the smaller pupils, is an undue hardship.

LARGE SQUAD TRIES OUT AT BREVARD HI

Season Opens Here on 28th of September With Christ School Eleven

Coach Ernest Tilson is confidently looking forward to turning out a snappy football team at Brevard high school this season, thirty men being out regularly for practice.

Undaunted by lack of letters, Coach Tilson says that his three first stringers from 1933, Morris and Price in the backfield, and Huggins in the line, plus some good material that saw action in nearly every game in the past season, and the new additions that he has, gives him better prospects than the previous year.

Pickelsimer, light but fast, who was in several games last year at quarter and extra half, is going great. The same applies to Shiard, who is good in both line and back. One new heavy player, Gray who played center for Rutherfordton high, is adding to the line. Wood, who showed plenty of speed and push last year, is again out for backfield position.

The line will average 150 pounds or better, Tilson says, and with the new material showing up good, the backfield will go better than 1933.

The first game of the season now scheduled is with Christ School here on September 28, with possibility of a game on the 21st.

Democrats Elect In Maine

Portland—Governor L. J. Bryan watched his margin of victory grow to over 23,000 votes Wednesday as final returns made him the first democratic governor to succeed himself. There have been only five democrats elected governor in Maine.

Senator Hale, republican and uncompromising foe of the new deal, is depending on his slender lead of 1,238 votes to take him to the United States senate for the fourth term.

A recount is being demanded by Senator Hale's opponent.

PARK ROAD MEETING WILL BE HELD TODAY

Final Effort Be Made Today To Have Park Route Through W. N. C.

The part that Transylvania county is to play in the final effort to secure routing of the national parkway to the Great Smoky Mountains through Western North Carolina, will be decided upon Thursday morning when Wythe M. Peyton, Asheville postmaster and chairman of a committee authorized to organize a delegation for a trip to Washington Monday, meets a group of leaders here.

The meeting is scheduled to be held in the offices of W. E. Breeze at 9 o'clock and will be open to anyone interested in the movement.

The board of county commissioners in meeting here last week appointed Chairman W. L. Aiken, Jos. S. Silvertsten, Otto Alexander and W. E. Breeze to represent the county at a meeting then scheduled to be held in Asheville. However, the meeting place has been changed to Washington, D. C., at the request of Secretary H. H. Ickes of the interior department and it is expected that several people from Transylvania will attend the meeting there.

A special train bearing North Carolina citizens to Washington to attend a hearing on the parkway routing will leave Asheville next Monday evening. The hearing will be conducted by Secretary Harold H. Ickes of the interior department, who will be the final arbiter in a controversy between North Carolina and Tennessee as to whether the parkway shall traverse Western North Carolina or be diverted at Blowing Rock and continue almost entirely in Tennessee to the Smoky Mountain Park.
