OAKLAND NEWS

(Mrs. Lee F. Norton)

Through the influence of Mr. Parson and Mrs. J. T. Harrison of the Sapphire section, one of Mr. and Mrs. Dave White's daughters entered the D. A. R. school in South Carolina last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sanders of Walhalla, S. C. were dinner guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Sanders.

W. F. McCall was in Greenville Thursday on business.

Miss Alberta Burgess spent a few days in Glenville last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Galloway.

Mrs. E. A. Reid and son Leo made a business trip to Hendersonville Saturday morning, returning to Brevard to visit friends in the afternoon. They divided their time with Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Reid and their families.

Robert Wilson visited his sister, who is a patient in Six Mile hospital, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns Alexander of Cashiers visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Lillie Alexander, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCall visited the latter's uncle, Lon Revis, in the Boheny section Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nalton spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cash.

Louis Rigdon, Clarence Chappell and Cris Rogers were recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McCall.

Mrs. Dewey Bryson, who has been employed at Fairfield Inn, returned home last week.

Clifford Reid, who has spent the past several months in Wyoming, is expected to arrive home this week.

Lensy Sanders of Lake Toxaway and Leroy McCall of Camp Edisto were calling on friends here Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Clyde McCall filled his regular appointment Sunday morning at Lake Toxaway Baptist church and preached an excellent sermon from the text "Where art Thou," found in Genesis, third chapter and latter part of the ninth verse. He surely did give us food for serious thought. We are glad to report that the Sunday school is well attended, yet there are numbers of intelligent young folks who should be in Sunday school who do not attend at all. We fear some parents will live to regret their carelessness. We remarked to one parent Sunday afternoon that he missed a real treat by not going to church Sunday morning, and his reply was that he had not been to church in so long that he guessed if he went now he would knock on the door. That man has three bright children, two of them old enough to understand a real gospel sermon, and the other one old enough to join the card class in Sunday school. What can one expect of children raised by parents who are that unconcerned about their soul's salvation? We hope the folks of our community will apply the text of our pastor's sermon to themselves and ask in connection with their own soul, "Where art thou?"
