

BREVARD COLLEGE IN FINE SHAPE FOR TILT WITH APPALACHIANS

Football Game Here Saturday Promises To Be Hard Fought Mixup

With two backfield combinations that have great promise and an extra bevy of linemen that are showing up good, Coach Ralph James promises to give Brevard football fans a first class showing here Saturday afternoon when the college eleven meets the freshman squad from the Appalachian State Teachers College.

Backfield that will probably start in Saturday afternoon's game which begins at three o'clock, will be W. Clayton and Shuford at half, Griffin at fullback, and Prentice at quarter. Gaston and Garren, former Christ school men, will probably start at ends on Saturday with E. Clayton and Pruett ready to take their places on short notice.

Brooks or Pickelsimer will make the start at center, with Albert Kilpatrick and Proffitt holding down the tackle positions when the first whistle blows. Gray, Campbell and Smoak will probably see action at guard with Harold Kilpatrick, a new addition to the team from Brevard, showing up nicely at this position.

A new backfield combination that is showing up nicely is composed of Richard, light ball of fire at quarter, Wisenhunt, English and Lowe.

Altogether, the Brevard College is taking on a more formidable appearance, with new plays being perfected and old ones pat. Light, the squad is making up in teamwork.

Tickets for Saturday's game are now on sale, with prospects of a record gate Saturday.

Last Saturday's game with Lees-McRae was postponed on account of the wet field, this game to be played on November 24, here.

Fair Shows Decided Improvements In Transylvania Livestock, Crops

With attendance cut short by reason of the rain which fell both Friday and Saturday, the Transylvania County Fair at Rosman was regarded by those who attended as one of the best from point of exhibits to be staged in this county.

Decided improvements were noted in the farm crop and vegetable exhibits; the same being true of the livestock shown, with pure bred cattle and hogs in evidence; vast improvement in the pantry and dairy supplies department and the vocational education exhibits.

Buildings used for the fair were donated by J. W. Glazener and O. L. Erwin, while livestock was shown in pens constructed on the outside. A football game Friday afternoon between Brevard high school and Pickens high school and an athletic program Saturday afternoon fur-

ENGLISH CHAPEL EVENT WILL BE HELD SUNDAY

Annual Home Coming day will be observed at English Chapel on Sunday, with a program lasting throughout the day.

Located just inside the Pisgah National Forest, this Methodist Episcopal church has served the people of the community as a meeting house for a number of years.

INTEREST GROWING IN OLD AGE PENSION

The petitions to our member of congress and our United States senator which were left with the Transylvania Trust company have been filled and others have been left in their places so those who so desire can still sign them there.

Two of the petitions have also been left in the office of the register of deeds, with Mr. Galloway's assistant and may be signed there.

Two are now being circulated in Little River township, and two at Talley's store at Penrose, so that those who are interested will be able to find them in easy reach.

The sentiment favoring this legislation is growing rapidly.

In California alone, more than one million voters have signed these petitions.

PRAISES TEACHERS FOR WORK AT FAIR

Praise for the Transylvania county fair in general as an institution for betterment and education in the county, and for the vocational agricultural classes in particular is aptly set forth in a letter to The Times from Jos. S. Silversteen, as follows:

Mr. C. M. Douglas, Transylvania Times, Brevard, N. C.

My dear Douglas: After visiting the Transylvania County Fair at Rosman yesterday, I feel it my duty to say a word of praise for those who had the making of the fair what it was.

The writer has seen a great many fairs both North and South and feel that for quality it was the best fair we have seen, and for size it was very creditable in every department.

Each and every department deserves praise, but want to especially mention the separate exhibit of the farm boys of Transylvania county, to us, and to a great many people whom we heard express themselves, it was a wonderful revelation of the future of the young men, and particularly for the rehabilitation of our county and credit must be given to Messrs. Glazener and Lyday for the good work they did in instructing and encouraging the boys. They deserve encouragement and help from every one in the county for the good work they are doing.

May the success of the Fair continue!

Very truly yours,
JOS. S. SILVERSTEEN.

OAK GROVE CHURCH EVENT NEXT SUNDAY

Music will be furnished by F. A. Raines and family, of Middle Fork, together with singing by various choirs.

It is expected that a large number of members, former members, pastors and friends will be present at the all-day reunion next Sunday. Dinner will be spread at noon from baskets brought by those attending.

Commissioners To Meet

Adjourned meeting of the board of county commissioners will be held at the county court house on Tuesday of next week, Oct. 16th, at which time several matters of business will be taken up.

Pisgah National Forest Will Again Be Opened For Hunting This Winter

Transylvania county is again to become a sportsmen's center for three weeks in December when four hundred deer will be taken from the Pisgah National Forest by hunters from all sections of the county.

The preserve will be opened to 400 selected hunters Monday, December 3 and hunting will continue through Saturday, December 22. The hunters will be selected in a drawing to be conducted by the Chamber of Commerce, Asheville.

Two years ago the Pisgah Forest area in this county was thrown open to sportsmen and brought many people here.

This hunt, officials announced, is for the purpose of removing the surplus deer from the preserve. The area to be hunted is located in the portion of the preserve where the deer population exceeds the food supply. If the deer population is not reduced, it was explained, the surplus will die of starvation and a lack of sufficient food will weaken the physical condition of the survivors to an extent where they will be susceptible to epidemics and disease.

Large Area Opened

The area to be opened to the public shooting contains approximately 10,000 acres located on the watershed of lower Looking Glass creek, Avery creek and lower Davidson river, all in Transylvania county. This area is well within the preserve but it is readily accessible to hunters.

It is anticipated by forestry officials that applications to hunt will be far in excess of the number to be permitted, since the hunt will be open to citizens of all states. The drawing by the Chamber of Commerce will be conducted in a fair and impartial manner.

Applications are available at the office of Sam R. Broadbent, forest supervisor in the federal building in Asheville, and at Forest Ranger Duncan's office in Pisgah Forest. Applications must be submitted to the forest supervisor's office before November 1.

Drawing November Second
The public drawing will be held November 2. In addition to the 400

OUTSTANDING AT THE COUNTY FAIR

Numerous things of interest were noted by a Times representative at the county fair last week, and proper mention could have been made of these had it not been for a queer notion of a fine brood mare belonging to Van Waldrop.

Standing notebook in hand before the pen occupied by the Waldrop mare and as fine horse colt as has been seen in this county in many a day, the writer was chagrined and dumbfounded to see the mare reach out in the style that only billy-goats are supposed to use, and eat the up-turned leaves of a notebook being used by The Times representative.

However, another hurried trip was made through the buildings and some few things jotted down before the officials yelled "all out except those who have articles on display!"

About the happiest man was W. L. Aiken, chairman of the county board of commissioners, and in charge of the county home and farm for the board. Eight head of cattle entered by Mr. Aiken and Mr. Whitmire, caretaker of the county farm, drew down five ribbons, three blue and two red. Needless to say the cattle were of the Hereford strain.

A five pound, three ounce Porto Rico potato stood out in the farm exhibits, this entry made by A. C. Lyday.

"Simply darling," to many of the ladies, and plenty good looking to

E. R. A. WANTS BILLS SENT IN PROMPTLY

W. A. Wilson, local relief officer, makes the request that all storekeepers call at the relief office and present their tickets for payment. It has been repeatedly called to the attention of the store owners, Mr. Wilson states, that all tickets must be in the relief office for payment by the 10th of each month. Since a statement on each ticket is to the effect that it must be presented for payment within 30 days, Mr. Wilson is making this request for all back tickets to be presented at his office for collection.

Predicts Better Relations

San Francisco—A prediction that agreements "with or without mediation and arbitration" will gradually replace strikes was made Friday by Secretary of Labor Perkins in an address to the American Federation of Labor.

WHITESIDES NEGRO HELD FOR KILLING

Roy Whitesides, colored restaurant operator in the negro section of Brevard, was bound to December term Superior court here Monday with bond set at two thousand dollars, charged with the death of Conrad Killian, also colored.

Killian was shot in the leg on Monday night of last week by Whitesides, and died Thursday night.

applicants, 200 alternates will be drawn. The 400 will be notified immediately and will be given until November 17 to accept the dates assigned them and to pay the fee of five dollars, to be placed in a cooperative fund to cover the cost of conducting the hunt. On November 19 a sufficient number of alternates will be notified and these must make payment on or before December 1.

Hunters will be privileged to hunt for a total of three days, unless a kill is made, in which event the hunter will withdraw from the hunting area, taking his deer with him. One deer of either sex and any age may be killed and removed from the area by each hunter. All other game animals and birds will be under protection and the hunting or killing of them will be prohibited.

Only rifles of non-automatic type of not less than 25-20 calibre and non-automatic shotguns not less than 16 gauge, shooting single ball or pumpkin cartridges will be allowed. Use of buck shot will be prohibited. All ammunition used in hunting must be of soft nosed type. Carrying of side arms by hunters will be prohibited.

No License Required
No license is required from the state or county for hunting or killing a deer in the preserve during the period. All citizens of the United States, 21 years of age or more, may apply for the privilege. Applications will not be accepted from regular employes of the United States Forest service, the forest supervisory personnel or CCC enrollees.

Campers will be permitted to occupy the White Pine camp ground maintained by the forest service near the checking station on Davidson river.

Under the regulation of the Secretary of Agriculture, no dogs will be allowed on the preserve.

The Pisgah preserve has been under federal administration for the past 20 years. Prior to its establishment, it was a private game preserve of the late George W. Vanderbilt.

Intensive protection by the enforcement of federal game laws has resulted in an overstocked area.

most of the men was the fine three months old sorrel colt exhibited by J. Frank McCall. Absolutely flawless, the colt was admired throughout the two days. A six months old colt belonging to Van Waldrop and weighing 500 pounds also attracted much attention.

A sunflower measuring 15 and one-quarter inches was displayed by Adolph Snipes, and looked as if it had enough good feed on the one large head to feed a hen and her brood several days.

The Rev. J. F. Scott of Little River and his son Odell Scott, carried off honors with their large egg plants, one measuring nineteen one-half inches in circumference and the other 21 inches.

Something new was seen in the upland rice displayed by Mr. Green of the Little River section. The grain had all the appearance of real rice and is said to be very edible.

Cultivated huckleberries, entered by A. E. Hampton of Brevard, were swell for looks and prolific as to berries, and incidentally said to be "just the thing" for pies and preserves, but to eat off the stalk are very poor indeed, as the writer found out.

One exhibit that attracted many "ahs" and "ohs" but which kept most folk at a distance, were the two

Thirty-five of the boys were assigned to John's Rock, 37 to Gloucester and 36 to Mills River.

POST CARD SHOWING COLLEGE AT LONG'S

Post cards bearing a picture of the campus and three main buildings of Brevard College are on sale at Long's Drug store, Dr. Long having had ten thousand of the cards made up.

The picture was taken from the left side of the entrance to the college and shows the boys' dormitory, the administration building and part of the remodeled girls' dormitory now known as the Jos. H. West hall.

The photo was taken in June of this year and shows the beautiful row of trees on the left of the driveway to the administration building, the well-cared for lawn and flowers alongside the several buildings.

It is suggested that people here who are interested in advertising the college use these cards.

PAYUP SUNDAY WILL BE OBSERVED HERE

Attention is called to the members of the Methodist church that the next two Sundays, October 14 and 21, will be pay-up Sundays, at which time all those in arrears on their payments on the church budget are expected to pay up in full. It has been pointed out that there are only two more Sunday until annual conference, which convenes October 24, in Greensboro.

The Rev. L. B. Hayes, presiding elder of the Waynesville district, will preach at the local Methodist church Sunday morning, October 21, and a full attendance of members is urged by the pastor, Rev. J. H. West, at that service. An important quarterly conference will convene immediately after the service.

AUTO ACCIDENTS TOPIC AT MEETING OF KIWANIS

"The Great American Gamble," or the uncalled for number of deaths resulting from careless drivers, was interestingly discussed by Mrs. Mary Jane McCrary at the Kiwanis club meeting last Thursday.

Nearly thirty thousand people were killed with the injured list reaching close to one million during 1933, with practically two-thirds of all accidents due to careless or ignorant driving.

Booklets prepared by the Travelers Insurance company, show types of accidents and manner of avoiding them that took such a heavy toll in 1933.

CULTIVATED GINSENG BEING GROWN NEAR ROSMAN BY DUNCAN

High Market Values For Crop That Is Adaptable To Transylvania Soil

One of the striking exhibits seen at the county fair held at Rosman last Friday and Saturday was a bunch of cultivated ginseng shown by M. G. Duncan of Rosman.

Mr. Duncan states that he has been carefully guarding the cultivation and reseeded of his small plot of ginseng for several years, until it is about ready to be turned into a money crop. Buying seed for planting several years ago at one dollar each, Mr. Duncan has carefully reseeded each year until he now feels that he can begin marketing his product.

Cultivated ginseng on the market last fall brought eight dollars and fifty cents per pound, somewhat less than wild ginseng, but much easier to harvest. Asked what returns on an acre of ginseng would amount to, Mr. Duncan said it was entirely too much to estimate, but that it would run into the thousands of dollars.

Some trouble has been experienced by Mr. Duncan in keeping thieves from his ginseng, and he has now decided that buckshot will be the best remedy to keep those away who want to profit by other people's toil. In talking with Mr. Duncan last Saturday at the fair, the idea was suggested that a strong fence would probably suffice to keep rogues out, but he replied that would be a very great expense, and after due consideration by a group of several citizens of the county, he was advised to use his shotgun as best remedy.

Mrs. Malinda J. Neely Lived Long and Useful Life On Same Farm

Mrs. Melinda J. Neely, 89, died at her home here early Sunday morning, following a stroke of paralysis suffered several weeks ago.
