

OAKLAND NEWS

(Mrs. Lee F. Norton)

We were indeed sorry when we learned that H. D. Lee was moving his business establishment back to the old stand at Lake Toxaway. We feel sure that we are expressing the sentiment of all our neighbors when we say we were sorry to have him move his business from our community.

Mrs. Emma Posey, of Mills River, spent several days last week visiting her brother, W. F. McCall, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Waite Reid, Alford Miller and Dr. Parson, of Sapphire, were Brevard visitors Friday.

W. F. McCall visited Walter McNeely one day last week.

Mrs. Mary Burgess and daughter Miss Alberta were in Brevard Friday on business.

Leo Reid attended the county fair at Rosman Friday and Saturday and reported some nice exhibits in all departments. Not many attended from this community on account of the rainy weather.

E. A. Reid made a business trip to Brevard Friday and was accompanied by Mrs. Reid, who spent a few hours with her sister, Mrs. Scruggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Nicholson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nicholson, of Rosman, visited their mother, Mrs.

AT THE CLEMSON THEATRE

Showing last times today is "The Outcast Lady," starring Constance Bennett and Gerbert Marshall, a Metro-Goldwyn-Meyer picture... a woman torn between two relentless emotions... the magnetism of the man she loved... and the loyalty of the man she married.

On Friday and Saturday of this week are stellar players in "Happy Landing" an action picture, of dope runners, smuggling gangs, and a romance interwoven.

The week's spectacular showing will be on Monday and Tuesday of next week—"Caravan"—said to be spectacular in its lavish splendor, happy in its reckless gaiety, and stirring in its musical rhythm. Charles Boyer, Loretta Young, Jean Parker and a bevy of stars in their own rights appear in the production.

On Wednesday and Thursday of next week, James Dunn and Alice Faye will be co-stars in "365 Nights in Hollywood," a story of the life, love, and trials of the movie city.

Maggie Nicholson, Sunday.

W. F. McCall will leave the first of next week for Miami, Fla., where he expects to spend a few weeks.

Clarence Norton visited Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Reid of Brevard visited the former's father T. B. Reid, Sunday afternoon.

Miss Flora Reid, of Brevard, made a short call on friends here Sunday en route to Boheny, where she is teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Chappell had as guest the former's mother the past week.

A near-serious accident occurred Saturday night in our community, when two cars that were running without lights collided. Another example of what violation of the law leads to. No one was killed but they barely escaped, it was reported.

The unveiling services at Reid's cemetery Sunday of W. H. Nicholson's monument by the Woodmen was interesting. While the occasion aroused sad memories, it brought old neighbors and friends together again and created sympathetic feelings which otherwise would have been a forgotten past. We think a get-together is good for us even if it does bring us sad memories.

Next Sunday is our regular preaching service. Let's give our pastor a big congregation at Lake Toxaway Baptist church.

COLLEGE STUDENTS GUESTS AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Tuesday night of this week will be remembered for some time by the Presbyterian enrollment at Brevard College, as well as those enrolled there with no church representation in Brevard, and the local young people of the church.

A delightful social was enjoyed by all in attendance; this social being made possible by the heads of the young people's division of the Presbyterian church, namely: Rev. J. P. Simmons, J. W. Smith, R. L. Gash and Mrs. S. P. Verner.

During the course of the evening many interesting games were played in which the students of the college made their acquaintance with the young people of the church. At the close of the evening's entertainment a delightful refreshment course was served and enjoyed by everyone.

Approximately sixty persons were in attendance at this delightful social, including Prof. Jack Dendy, connected with the Biology department at Brevard College.

The pastor of the church extended a cordial invitation to all students and members of the faculty at Brevard College to attend the Presbyterian church.

JR. B. Y. P. U. HAS ENJOYABLE PARTY

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS

Annual election of officers featured the regular meeting of the Daughters of Wesley class of the Methodist Sunday school, held Tuesday evening in the ladies' parlor.

All officers were re-elected for the ensuing year, as follows: President, Mrs. E. S. English; vice president, Mrs. J. E. Loftis; secretary, Mrs. D. L. English; treasurer, Mrs. Roscoe Nicholson; class teacher, Mrs. L. B. Hayes; Sunday class secretary, Miss Alice Hayes; assistant, Mrs. A. R. Gillespie.

After transaction of routine and other class business, a social hour was enjoyed, during which refreshments were served by the three hostesses of the evening, Mrs. Cordia King, Miss Sadie North and Mrs. D. P. Kilpatrick.

GIRL SCOUTS HAVE MEETING

(By Arbutis Aiken, Scout Scribe)

The Girl Scouts held the weekly meeting Tuesday afternoon in the Scout room. The two troops, Robin Hood and Gypsy, have combined into one troop. A name for this troop has not been decided. Leaders for this year are Misses Mary Sue Jennings, Lena Allison and Elizabeth Duckworth. The Wednesday club is sponsoring the troop.

About 37 girls have joined this year and an active interest in Girl Scouting is being shown by all.

We are sure that we have the hearty approval and cooperation of the citizens of Brevard, and we sincerely hope to have a better troop this year than there has ever been in Brevard.

FOOD SALE TO BE HELD SATURDAY

A food sale will be held Saturday of this week, beginning at 9 o'clock, in the Women's Exchange room on Main street. Cakes, pies, chickens and other good things to eat suitable for Sunday dinner will be on sale, sponsored by the Daughters of Wesley class of the Methodist church.

The New Three-lite Indirect Floor Lamp

Equipped with the Mazda three-lite bulb which permits a variation in illumination from a high level to medium level or to a low level simply by turning one switch.

One turn provides a high level by operating the two filaments in the lamp which utilizes a total of 300 watts. On our new residential schedule of a cent an hour to operate after a total of 30 Kwh have been used.

The second turn of the switch will cause the 200-watt filament to burn. The operating cost in this case will be six-tenths of a cent per hour.

The third turn of the switch will operate the 100-watt filament. The operating cost will then be three-tenths of a cent per hour.
