Refreshments concluded the meeting and social half hour.

ENGAGEMENT OF SUMMER RESIDENT IS ANNOUNCED

The following announcement from Macon, Ga., of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Nida McGehee, will be of interest to many friends in Brevard, where she has spent many summers at the family home here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas McGehee, Jr., of Brevard, and Macon, Ga., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Nida McGehee, to Dr. Robert Groban Ferrell, Jr., of Milledgeville, Ga. The wedding is scheduled to take place Saturday, November 3, at the Vineville Baptist church in Macon.

The bride-elect is descended from some of the most prominent of the early Georgia families. With her family, she has spent much time at their summer home at Brevard. She was educated at Miller high school and at Wesleyan college.

Dr. Ferrell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Ferrell, of Macon, is a descendant of pioneer Virginia and South Carolina families. He is a graduate of Lanie high school, Mercer university, and the University of Georgia. He is a member of Sigma Nu and Phi Rho Sigma fraternities.

CIRCLE NO. THREE MEETS WITH MRS. SMITH

Circle No. 3 of the Presbyterian church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Smith, who also presided over the meeting, as chairman of the circle.

The program on home missions was discussed by Mrs. Smith, showing the Biblical authority for home missions. The prayer band and Bible lesson were led by Mrs. S. P. Verner.

Refreshments were served at conclusion of the meeting.

FORMER RESIDENT IS MARRIED IN OHIO

An article appearing in a recent issue of "The Athens (Ohio) Messenger" will be of interest to many friends in Transylvania and adjoining counties.

Mr. Eugene Galloway, who was married in the Ohio city, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Galloway, of Lake Toxaway, and has many relatives and friends throughout this section.

Following is the account of the wedding: Simplicity marked the marriage Sunday, September 30, at noon when Miss Elsie Jauchius became the bride of Eugene Galloway. The ceremony was read by the Rev. David F. Morris, pastor of the Church of Christ, in the living room at the home of the bride's parents which was beautifully decorated with fall flowers. Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding dinner was served.

The bride chose for her wedding gown an ankle length dress of white crepe and carried an arm bouquet of roses. For her going away costume she wore an attractive brown swag suit with accessories to match.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Jauchius and was graduated from Gloucester high school, with the class of 1932. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Galloway, Palos, and was graduated from Hollister high school with the class of 1929. Mr. and Mrs. Galloway left Sunday afternoon for a trip through West Virginia and the District of Columbia.
