JR. MUSIC CLUB MEETS WITH WARD SISTERS

The Junior Music club met at the home of Virginia and Juanita Ward Monday evening, November 12.

An interesting and instructive report of the district meeting of music clubs held recently in Asheville was given by the club director, Alvin Moore.

The following musical program was enjoyed: "Meditation," by Marjorie Hamilton; "May Pole Dance" by Juanita Ward; "As I Walk Around The Garden," by Virginia Ward; "Cradle Song," Lillian Zachary; and "Hungary," Alvin Moore.

Members present were: Marjorie Hamilton, Virginia and Juanita Ward, Martha Kate Moore, Lillian Zachary and Alvin Moore.

DINNER HONORS WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. R. H. Orr entertained at her home Friday evening with a dinner, honoring the forty-first wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Garren.

Those present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Garren, Misses Clara, Mae, Beulah and Marjorie Garren, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hogsed, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Fisher and children and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Orr and children.

WEDDING OF INTEREST OCCURS IN ASHEVILLE

Of interest to many friends in Brevard is announcement of the marriage of Miss Mildred Thompson and Mr. John Marchant, both of Greer, S. C. The ceremony occurred Monday evening, November 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Case in Forest Hills, Asheville.

Mrs. Marchant is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Thompson, and Mr. Marchant is the son of the late Dr. Marchant and Mrs. Marchant of Greer.

Mr. and Mrs. Marchant have both visited in Brevard on numerous occasions and have many friends here who will be interested in their marriage.

ENJOYABLE DANCE AT JOHN'S ROCK CCC CAMP

A social event affording much pleasure to a large number of people was the dance at John's Rock CCC camp in the Pisgah National Forest Friday night, given by the officers and camp boys.

Music was furnished by an orchestra from Asheville. Fifty or more couples from Brevard enjoyed the hospitality of the camp on this occasion.

YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY PARTY

Miss Grace Teague was hostess at a party at her home on the Country Club road Friday evening, entertaining a number of her friends among the college students and other friends.

The evening was pleasantly spent in games and dancing. A salad course was served during the evening.

Guests present to enjoy the occasion were: Betty Loftis, Jane Hamlin, Katherine English, Eugenia Contrane, Mary Alma Coltrane, Nell Sturkey, E. J. Shaffer, Henry Dupre, Jack Brooks, Mack Allison, Mack Feaster, Buddy Hunt Carl Hendrix, Dan Williams and Edgar Loftis.

THANKSGIVING SALE TO BE HELD ON WEDNESDAY

A Thanksgiving food sale will be held Wednesday of next week in the King building, location of McFee jewelry shop on Main street. The sale will begin at 9 o'clock, sponsored by the Daughters of Wesley class of the Methodist church. Cakes, pies, candy, chickens and other foods suitable for Thanksgiving dinner will be on sale.

WEDNESDAY CLUB IN INTERESTING MEETING

An interesting meeting of the Wednesday club was held Wednesday afternoon, November 14, at the home of Mrs. Ethel McMinn. In the absence of the hostess, Mrs. J. S. Silversteen, Mrs. McMinn was assisted by Mrs. T. A. Berg in entertaining the club. Mrs. Roy Long, vice president, presided over the business transactions. Mrs. S. P. Verner read a petition regarding the matter of the new auditorium of the grammar school being placed on the first floor. Mrs. O. L. Erwin, president, was instructed to sign the petition in the name of the club.

Mrs. Robert Kimzey gave a five minute talk on county organization, discussing the duties of the county officers.

Mrs. Roy Long was program leader, discussing the Puritan and John Milton, the great poet of the age. She said that the Bible had the most influence of any book in moulding the thought of the time religiously, socially and politically. She told the story of "Paradise Lost," an epic of war between good and evil.

After refreshments the club adjourned to meet November 28 with Mrs. David G. Ward.

METHODIST CIRCLES IN JOINT MEETING

The three circles of the Methodist Missionary society met in joint session at the church Thursday afternoon.

The circles met separately in different rooms for their regular business meetings, presided over by the respective chairmen, after which all assembled in the ladies' parlor to complete the business of the society, followed by a social feature.

Plans were made for the mission study class to begin Friday afternoon of this week, meeting at the church in order to accommodate the large number of ladies expected to attend the class. Mrs. L. B. Haynes will be general leader of the study book, "Christianity and Industry in America," assisted by members of the three circles. Circle No. 2 will have charge of the lesson study this week, Circle No. 3 next week and Circle No. 1 will conduct the final lessons the week following.

Tea and wafers were served following the business transactions, by representatives from the three circles, Miss Florence Kern, Mrs. Cordia King, Mrs. J. E. Loftis and Mrs. Paul Smathers. Thirty-five members were present at the meeting.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Dr. and Mrs. E. S. English entertained at their home, Willow Springs, Sunday with a lovely 1 o'clock dinner.

A treat of the meal highly enjoyed by the guests was venison roast, the deer being killed a few days previously by Edwin English son of Dr. and Mrs. English.

Guests present included: Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Brendall, Miss Lucille Smith, Miss Dulcie Hayes and Miss Earlene Poindexter, of the college faculty, and Miss Alma Trowbridge.

HOMEMAKERS CLASS MET WITH MRS. DUCLOS

The Homemakers class of the Baptist church met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. O. Duclos as hostess.

Mrs. S. W. Radford, president, presided over the meeting. After the reading of the Scripture plans were discussed and made for the coming year. It was planned to send a quilt to Thomasville orphanage for Thanksgiving.

A social hour was enjoyed following the meeting, during which the hostess served refreshments.

INTERESTING PROGRAM AT AUXILIARY MEETING

The program on a review of the home missions book was presented in an interesting manner at the meeting of the Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church held Thursday afternoon at the church. The program was given in the form of a play, with Mrs. E. W. Blythe as leader, assisted by other members.

Devotionals were led by Mrs. Blythe, giving Scripture passages based on missions. A free will offering was taken for home missions. The meeting was presided over by the president, Miss Annie Jean Gash. Refreshments of tea and cakes were served by Circle No. 2.

T. E. L. CLASS TO HAVE THANKSGIVING SALE

The T. E. L. class of the Baptist church will hold a Thanksgiving sale Wednesday afternoon of next week, beginning at 1 o'clock at Austin's studio. Cakes, pies, chickens, salads and candies will be on sale.

CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS AND HAS BIRTHDAY EVENT

Election of officers and a Thanksgiving celebration featured the regular meeting of the T. E. L. class of the Baptist church held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. F. Gallamore, who was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Tell Brown.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. M. H. Holliday; first vice president, Mrs. H. E. Erwin; second vice president, Mrs. John Cantrell; third vice president, Mrs. M. G. Cunningham; secretary, Mrs. Kate DeLong; treasurer, Miss Thurza Bowen; teacher, Mrs. G. F. Gallamore; assistant teacher, Mrs. A. E. Hampton; program chairman, Mrs. Lottie Duckworth.

A delightful social feature followed the business meeting, combining a celebration of the Thanksgiving occasion and also the 90th birthday anniversary of the mother of Mr. Gallamore, who has been confined to her bed for several years. Pumpkin pie, gingerbread, coffee and other refreshments in keeping with Thanksgiving were served to the sixteen members and guests present.
