

Society News and Club Activities

D. A. R. HAS REGULAR MEETING

Regular meeting of the Waightstill Avery chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Allison, with Mrs. T. E. Patton Jr. as hostess.

An interesting feature of the meeting was presentation by Miss Annie Jean Gash of a copy of the inscription of Colonel Waightstill Avery, the original of which is at the state university at Chapel Hill. The inscription reads as follows: Col. Waightstill Avery, born 1745, died 1821; author of the clause in the constitution 1776 ordaining the University; a trustee 1795-1804; member of the state congress 1775-1776; first attorney general of North Carolina; signed the Mecklenberg Declaration, May 20, 1775.

Report of the history medal committee was given by Mrs. T. A. Berg, and it was voted to leave the decision concerning the medals to the committee.

Several letters were read and the president general's message was read by Mrs. Laura Miller.

The meeting was presided over by the regent, Mrs. Ralph Ramsey. Refreshments and a social half-hour concluded the meeting.

CHRISTMAS PARTY TO BE GIVEN FRIDAY EVENING

A Christmas tree and party will be held at the Methodist church Friday night, the event being given by Circle No. 2 to the members of the other circles and any ladies of the church.

Each one is expected to bring a small gift to be placed on the tree for some one else, and to bring a dime for admission.

EASTERN STAR TO MEET NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

Regular meeting of the Eastern Star will be held in the Masonic hall Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

This will be the last meeting of the year and all members are urged by the worthy matron to be present.

HOMEMAKERS CLASS TO MEET TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The Homemakers class of the Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. T. P. Ward, Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

This will be the last meeting of the year and all members are urged to be present.

CIRCLE NO. 11 MEETS WITH MRS. F. MILLER

Circle No. 2 of the Presbyterian church met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Fred Miller. The chairman, Mrs. W. M. Cloud, was in charge of the meeting.

Mrs. T. H. Shipman was program leader, discussing the Christmas features in ministerial relief, or the "forgotten family of our church." The Bible lesson was given by Mrs. Hinton McLeod, comparing the stories of the birth of Christ as told in the different gospels.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at conclusion of the meeting.

ALVIN MOORE GIVES DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM

Alvin Moore honored the junior girls home room of the Brevard high school with a delightful musical program at their home room period Friday.

Mr. Moore's selections included Hunting Song, Tarantelle, Romance, Arabesque, Dance of the Gnomes, Scherzino, Hungarian Melodie, all by Edward McDowell. Mr. Moore's piano rendition on this occasion was said by those present to be unusually beautiful in interpretation and exquisite in tone.

In addition to the junior girls present to enjoy the musical were Superintendent J. B. Jones, Miss Lucile Varner and the senior girls and Mrs. Knx DeLong, junior home room teacher.

BAZAAR AND FOOD SALE TO BE HELD SATURDAY

A bazaar, food and book sale will be held at Joiner Motor company building Saturday of this week, sponsored by the Guild of St. Phillips Episcopal church. A varied assortment of fancy articles suitable for Christmas presents will be on sale.

B. Y. P. U.'S HAVE ANNUAL PARTY

The annual joint party of the three B. Y. P. U.'s, the senior, intermediate and junior of the Baptist church, held Friday night in the recreation rooms of the church, proved a highly enjoyable social event.

Many games were played and contests engaged in, directed by Miss Elizabeth Duckworth. Candle salad, coffee and cocoa were served during the evening to the 88 young people and leaders present. Rev. and Mrs. Paul Harrell and R. H. Ramsey, general director of the B. Y. P. U. work, were among the large number present.

Miss Elizabeth Duckworth was chairman of the entertainment committee; Miss Marjorie Garren of the refreshment committee; Miss Marie Galloway, of the clean up committee; and H. S. Stroud of the finance committee.

ELECTS OFFICERS FOR THE NEW YEAR

Annual election of officers featured the regular meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Methodist church held Thursday afternoon in the ladies' parlor.

Following were the officers elected for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. Oliver Orr; vice president, Mrs. J. R. Hamlin; recording secretary, Mrs. J. S. Nicholson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. L. Laird; treasurer, Mrs. W. L. Aiken; World Outlook agent, Mrs. Cordia King; mission study superintendent, Mrs. L. B. Haynes.

Superintendent Christian social relations, Miss Florence Kern; superintendent spiritual life, Mrs. J. B. Pickelsimer; superintendent children's department, Mrs. Banks Nicholson. Superintendent baby division, Mrs. A. R. Gillespie; superintendent of supplies, Mrs. L. K. Ratchford; chairman local department Mrs. Roscoe Nicholson vice chairman, Mrs. J. E. Loftis and chairman of the four circles, as members.

The three dollar attendance prize awarded by the president, Mrs. Oliver Orr, to the circle having the best average attendance for the year was presented to Circle No. 1.

The meeting had the largest attendance of any in some time, there being 34 members present.

Following the transaction of business, devotionals were led by Mrs. J. H. Brendall, after which a missionary one-act play entitled, "Gather Us In," was presented by nine members, under the direction of Mrs. C. H. Trowbridge. The following took part in the play: Mrs. J. R. Hamlin, Mrs. L. B. Haynes, Mrs. C. H. Trowbridge, Mrs. J. B. Pickelsimer, Mrs. J. S. Nicholson, Mrs. W. T. Hall, Mrs. J. E. Loftis, Mrs. Goode Loftis and Miss Alma Trowbridge.

CIRCLE NO. THREE MEETS WITH MRS. JEROME

Circle No. 3 of the Presbyterian church met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Jerry Jerome, on East Main street.

Mrs. J. W. Smith, chairman, was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. S. P. Verner led the devotionals. The program on ministerial relief was conducted by Mrs. Jerome.

Following the program refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. L. M. Hart.

BIRTH OF DAUGHTER IS OF INTEREST HERE

Of interest to many friends here is announcement of the birth of a daughter to Dr. and Mrs. Preston R. Taylor. The little girl, born on Sunday, December 9, in Mt. Holly, has been named Margaret Ann.

Mrs. Taylor is known to her many friends here as the former Miss Mildred Trantham.

Mrs. B. W. Trantham is spending several weeks with her daughter and family in Mt. Holly.

SARAH TAYLOR CIRCLE TO MEET FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The Sarah Taylor circle of the Methodist church will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Frank Osborne.

The members are asked to meet at the church at 2:30 o'clock and go in cars out to Mrs. Osborne's home.

INTERESTING MEETING OF U. D. C. CHAPTER

An interesting meeting of the local chapter U. D. C. held Saturday afternoon at the library included the transaction of important business and a report of the general convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held recently in New York City. The report, given by Miss Annie Jean Gash, who attended the national meeting, was interesting and included helpful suggestions relative to the activities of the chapter.

The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Roy Long. The library report for November was read, showing that for the month there were 309 adult visitors to the library and 23 children; and that 243 adult books were taken out and 17 children's during the month.

Decision was made to close the library during the holidays, the last day for it to be open to the public before Christmas being Thursday, December 20.

A dividend check for $8.08 was received from the defunct Brevard Banking company, which amount was applied on current expenses.

CIRCLE NO ONE MET WITH MRS. MILLER

Regular meeting of Circle No 1 of the Presbyterian church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. G. Miller.

Miss Mamie Lyday, chairman, presided over the meeting, Miss Maggie Deaver giving the Bible lesson study. Mrs. C. L. Newland had charge of the program, based on the Christmas theme.

Refreshments were served during the social period.

MISSION STUDY CLASS SERIES IS CONCLUDED

The last in the series of three mission study classes conducted by ladies of the Methodist church was held Friday afternoon at the church, with Circle No. 1 leading the chapter study book, "Christianity and Industry in America."

The class was led by Mrs. L. B. Haynes, assisted by members of the three circles.

At the end of the study class, a written test was given, after which Mrs. Haynes presented Circle No. 1 with a box of candy for answering correctly the largest number of questions.

Circle No. 2 was presented with one dollar by Mrs. Haynes for having the largest average attendance at the three study classes.

ENTERTAIN AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. John Ruffy entertained at their home Sunday at one o'clock with a dinner in honor of the joint birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Melvin Gillespie and Mrs. Mitchell Neely.

Others present to enjoy the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Ruffy on this occasion were Melvin Gillespie, Glenn Ried and Mitchell Neely.

AUXILIARY AND GUILD HAVE JOINT MEETING

The Auxiliary and Guild of St. Phillips Episcopal church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. N. Carrier.

Mrs. David G. Ward presided over the Auxiliary meeting and Mrs. J. M. Allison was in charge of the meeting of the Guild.

Mrs. Ward read two interesting letters relative to the foreign and domestic mission work. It was decided that each member give a report of the visits made to the shut-ins and the strangers in town. Mrs. O. L. Erwin and Mrs. G. B. Lynch were appointed on the program committee for January, February and March.

At the meeting of the Guild decision was made to have a Christmas bazaar, book and food sale and white elephant sale at Joiner Motor company building on Saturday of this week.

At the Seal sale booth on Tuesday Mrs. J. M. Allison and Mrs. David Ward were appointed to be in charge, and Mrs. Harry Sellers, Mrs. G. B. Lynch and Mrs. Harry Perry had charge of sales on Wednesday.

DELIGHTFUL MEETING OF SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

A delightful social and business meeting of the Daughters of Wesley Sunday school class of the Methodist church was held Tuesday evening at the Poinsette cafe, with Mrs. J. L. Saltz, Mrs. C. O. Robinson and Mrs. Ada Teague as hostesses.

Following the business meeting presided over by the president, Mrs. E. S. English, an unusually pleasant social period was enjoyed by the twenty-five or more members and guests present. The program was especially enjoyed, given by Miss Ruth Rich, expression teacher at Brevard College, and two of her pupils, Miss Josephine Jones and Miss Thomas, all giving readings.

Refreshments in keeping with the Christmas season were served, including red jello with green tinted whipped cream, fruit cake coffee and hot chocolate.

DINNER PARTY HONORS BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Miss Eugenia Coltrane celebrated her sixteenth birthday anniversary with a dinner party at the home of her parents, President and Mrs. E. J. Coltrane, Friday evening.

Christmas suggestions were effectively carried out in the room decorations. The dining table was especially attractive with the pretty arrangement of holly and red candles. The turkey and accessories in the four course dinner were in keeping with the prevailing color scheme and delighted the eight young ladies present.

Those enjoying the birthday celebration with the young hostess were: Misses Elizabeth McCoy, Jane Hamlin, Katherine English, Celia Shuford, Grace Teague and Mary Alma Coltrane.

Dizzy Dean Signs

St. Louis—Dizzy Dean has signed "team papers." Announcement that the senior member of the pitching firm of Dean and Dean, baseball's most colorful brother act, had agreed to terms for 1935 was made last week by Sam Braddon, president of the world champion Cardinals.

The salary is announced as "between $20,000 and $26,000," compared with $8,500 for last year.

Business Better

Washington—Evidence of improving business conditions is aiding conservative new dealers in their campaign to persuade private capital to help prime the recovery pump.

Spending policies have split the New Deal wide open. The more conservative of President Roosevelt's advisers believe government emergency expenditures can be curtailed by inducing private capital to undertake some of the spending burden.

All the blood in the average human being goes through the lungs about 2,000 times every 24 hours.

HOLIDAY FARES for HOLIDAY TRAVEL Spend Christmas and New Year's at Home

One way and round trip each tickets

1 1-2 Cents Per mile for each mile traveled.

Round Trip Tickets 2 Cents Per mile for each mile traveled, return limit 15 days. Good in Sleeping and Parlor Cars on payment of proper charges for space occupied.

Round Trip Tickets 2 1-2 Cents Per mile for each mile traveled, return limit 6 months. Good in Sleeping and Parlor Cars upon payment of proper charges for space occupied.

One-Way Tickets 3 Cents Per mile, good in Sleeping and Parlor Cars on payment of proper charges for space occupied.

NO SURCHARGE Round trip tickets are sold daily at all stations on the Southern Railway System and to many points on other lines in the South.

Round trip tickets are good on all trains.

Low Holiday Fares are available to destinations in the East, North, West and Southwest. See your agent.

R. H. DEBUTTS, Assistant Gen. Pass. Agent

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM

CONNECTION

Mrs. C. C. Reese and son, Paul, spent Sunday with the former's daughter, Mrs. Ralph Landreth.

Louise and Calvin Raines called on Mrs. Jake Baker Saturday evening.

Lee Masters, who has employment with the Brevard tannery, spent the week-end with his family here.

Marvin Whitmire was the guest of Edwin Tinsley Sunday.

Gertha Galloway and Jesse Gillespie of across the river were horseback riding through our community Sunday afternoon.

Jay and Jeannette Cison of Carson's Creek spent Thursday night with John and Mary Mastara.

Miss Fleeto Freeman was the guest of Mrs. Clifford Raxter one night last week.

Marvin Whitmire and Lambert Baker were dinner guests of Porter Tinsley Saturday.

Tilden Holden spent the week-end at Pisgah Forest.

Miss Blanche Scrogge of Brevard was the guest of Miss Essie Mull Tuesday night.

Rev. W. S. Price, Jr., spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Landreth.

Bonnie Roland and Lola May Glazener called on Mary and Ola Masters Sunday afternoon.

Miss Myrtle Raines is reported to be in bad condition as result of an attack of rheumatism at her home in Brevard. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Edwin Tinsley is ill with cold and flu.

Lambert Baker and Tilden Holden, who have been employed at Highlands for some time, returned to their respective homes Friday morning.

The Lord's Supper was observed at 11 o'clock Sunday at the Baptist church. Rev. Price preached on the church covenant.

Will Mull of Brevard visited his son, Warrior, Sunday evening.

The weather is so cold here now that if we had half a chance we would go to Florida where they say: "It's like summer here."

Rhode Island, with 500 persons to the square mile, is our most densely populated state.

FOR BETTER MEALS

Cook With SUNNYSIDE Milk

Delicious meals are so much easier to prepare when the milk you use is richer in cream and solids. That's why so many cooks prefer our milk.

SUNNYSIDE Dairy

THE GLAZENERS

THE RIGHT WAY TO TRAVEL is by train. The safest. Most comfortable. Most reliable. Costs less. Inquire of Ticket Agents regarding greatly reduced fares for short trips.

Christmas Will Soon Be Here

To make a lasting Gift give Jewelry. Our store is filled with beautiful, lasting gifts. Gifts you will be proud to give and gifts you will be delighted to receive.

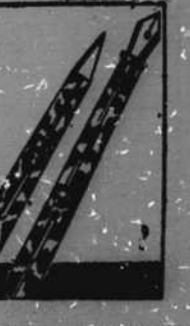

We've Clocks from a very attractive alarm costing $1.00 to the mantle Clock for $20.00.

Wrist Watches for $2.65 (made by Ingraham Clock Co.) to the latest in Elgin DeLux models for $22.50 to $27.50.

Military three to four piece sets for $1.75 to $7.00.

Pen and Pencil Sets $1.65 to $12.00. Pencils 40c and up. Pens 60c and up.

Candle Sticks in mahogany, cut glass, silver plate and sterling $1.50 to $7.50. Candelabra $7.75.

Frank D. Clement

The Hallmark Jeweler
Clemson Theatrs Building

The Choice of Well Dressed Men
FLORSHEIM
Custom Shoes

Men who know what's right are choosing Custom shoes. Men who know fine footwear, naturally wear Florsheims.

Their luxurious leathers, their fine lasts, their careful craftsmanship insure your lasting satisfaction.

$8.75 Most Styles Some Styles $10

The Fashion
Brevard's Largest Dept. Store

Ruth's Beauty Parlor

Phone 69 West Main Street

Beauty Specials
Shampoo, finger wave and manicure 75c
Finger wave 35c
Shampoo for short hair 25c
End permanents $1.50
Combination permanents $3.00
Eugene permanents $5.00