

Society News and Club Activities

ANNOUNCEMENT OF WEDDING OF INTEREST.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Erwin announce the marriage of their daughter, Helen Elizabeth, to Mr. Lewis Albert Payne, on Sunday afternoon, December 16, at 4 o'clock at the Wesleyan Methodist parsonage in Hendersonville. The pastor, the Rev. Lorenzo A. Harvey, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Payne are making their home in Hendersonville, where Mr. Payne has employment.

SARAH TAYLOR CIRCLE MEETS WITH MRS. OSBORNE

The Sarah Taylor circle of the Methodist church met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Osborne for the regular meeting. Fifteen members were present.

The Bible lesson on the book of Job was given by Mrs. Harry Sellers. During the routine business, presided over by the president, Mrs. Leon English Jr., it was decided to sell Christmas gifts at the Sugar Bowl in the King building on Friday of this week.

A social feature and refreshments were enjoyed following the meeting.

COLLEGE FACULTY PARTY DELIGHTFUL FUNCTION

A delightful social event of the week was the faculty party given by Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Pangle and Rev. and Mrs. R. D. McNeer, of the Brevard College faculty, entertaining the other members of the faculty at their home on Maple avenue Monday evening.

A program of reading and music was an enjoyable feature of the occasion. Miss Ruth Rich, head of the college expression department, and Miss Eleanor Trowbridge, head of the college prep department, gave readings. Several piano selections were rendered by D. S. Trammel, director of the music department, and vocal selections by Homer K. Compton, head of the voice department.

The Christmas idea was emphasized in the attractive decorations and in the salad course served during the evening. Tiny lighted candles in red holders placed on each plate added to the effectiveness of the scene, as did also the soft glow of the candle lighted rooms.

Other faculty members enjoying the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Pangle and Mr. and Mrs. McNeer included: President and Mrs. E. J. Coltrane, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Trowbridge, Miss Eleanor Trowbridge, Coach and Mrs. Ralph E. James, Mr. and Mrs. Homer K. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Cathey, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Trammel, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Franklin, Mrs. Fannie H. E. Ross, Miss Ruth Rich, Miss Lucile Smith, Miss Dulcie Hayes, Miss Merlie Sizemore, Miss Della Shore, Miss Myrtle Ballard, Miss Earlene Poindexter, Miss Gladys Fewell, J. S. Dendy, J. Wesley Williams and J. A. Carlisle.

FOOD AND GIFT SALE TO BE HELD SATURDAY

A food and gift sale will be held Saturday at McFee's Jewelry shop in the King building on Main street. The sale will begin at 10 o'clock and continue throughout the afternoon. Fancy articles suitable for Christmas presents will be on sale, and a variety of foods for Christmas dinner.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ENJOYS CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Wesley Workers class of the Methodist Sunday school entertained in the basement of the church Saturday evening with a Christmas party. About 60 young people from the town and the college were present to enjoy the occasion. Refreshments of hot chocolate, cookies and candy were served. Games were played throughout the evening.

Chaperones were Mr. Dendy, Miss Shore, from the college, and Mrs. J. B. Pickelsimer, the class teacher.

JUNIOR C. E. SOCIETY FORMED AT CHURCH

Organization of the Junior Christian Endeavor society has been effected at the Presbyterian church, with the following officers in charge:

President, Isabell Ann Cuff; vice president, Emily Feaster; secretary-treasurer, Larry Wilson; advisor, Mrs. John Simmons; pianist, Mrs. Thomas Hampton.

Meeting of the society will be held each Sunday afternoon at 2:15 at the church.

CIRCLES ENJOY CHRISTMAS PARTY AT THE CHURCH

Circle No. 2 of the Methodist Women's Missionary society entertained with a Christmas tree and party in the occasion rooms of the church Friday evening, with members of the other circles as invited guests.

The evening was delightfully spent in playing games, contests and singing Christmas carols. The large, prettily decorated Christmas tree in one corner of the room added much to the enjoyment of the occasion. Mrs. L. B. Haynes, as Santa Claus, and Mrs. Ethel Harris, as Mrs. Santa Claus, distributed the gifts from the tree to each member and guest present.

Refreshments of cake, coffee and hot chocolate were served by members of the circle at conclusion of the evening's gaiety. About 50 ladies of the church were present to enjoy the party.

PARTY HONORS BIRTHDAY EVENT

A happy surprise party was that given by Mrs. J. F. Zachary Thursday evening, honoring the twelfth birthday anniversary of her daughter Lillian.

Lillian had been invited to the home of Mildred Maxwell after school on the day of the party, and the two girls returning to Lillian's home about 7 o'clock were greatly surprised on finding there twenty or more friends and schoolmates, who had been invited by Mrs. Zachary to celebrate the birthday event with Lillian.

The evening was delightfully spent by the girls and boys. The matching of pictures illustrative of events in Lillian's life afforded much pleasure, and coupled the young people for refreshments in the dining room. Large birthday cakes on which were twelve little candles, centered the dining table and added to the attractiveness of the scene. The opening of the lovely birthday gifts was another pleasant feature.

Those enjoying the celebration with Lillian were: Mildred Maxwell, Tom Galloway, Clarise McOrary, Jean Glenn, Rachel Hamlin, Jeanette Austin, Evelyn McMaisters, Louis Sims, Joe Hall, Nancy Love Ranson, Virginia Lane, Elizabeth Allison, Paul Jones, Edward Glasgow.

John Walker, Few Lyda, Richard Hamlin, Frances McNeer, Jack Robinson, Martha Kate Moore, Edna Fulton, Martha McNeer. Assisting Mrs. Zachary in entertaining were Misses Nan Kilpatrick and Mollie McCall.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB IN REGULAR MEETING

Regular meeting of the Fortnightly club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. R. Gillespie, with all members present and one guest, Mrs. George Shuford.

An interesting program was in charge of Mrs. Goode Loftis, discussing three topics, "Strangers Within Our Gates," "Wanted, Good Samaritans," and a humorous feature.

Mrs. J. F. Zachary read extracts from the club publication, North Carolina Clubwoman, giving helpful suggestions and information regarding the state federation activities.

Routine business was conducted by the president, Mrs. Cordia King. The hostess serve refreshments following the meeting.

CHRISTMAS PARTY IS DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

The prep department of Brevard College enjoyed a Christmas party Friday evening at the home of Miss Eleanor Trowbridge, teacher of the department.

Each member of the department was privileged to invite a friend, the jolly group of young people spending a delightful evening with games, music and contests. The rooms were prettily decorated with red and green streamers, holly and other suggestions of the Christmas season. The large Christmas tree with its gay decorations was an added feature of enjoyment.

Candle salad, wafers, hot chocolate and candy were served during the evening.

Young people enjoying the occasion were: Lucy White, Frances Frye, Helen Kelly, Katherine English, Nell Sturkey, Elaine Call, Grace Teague, Buddy Hunt, Bob Dickson, David Gray, Edgar Loftis, Edgar Ramsey, Jesse Oates, Mack Allison.

MRS. SELLERS HOSTESS TO MATHATASIAN CLUB

Mrs. Harry Sellers was hostess to the members of the Mathatasian club Thursday afternoon at her home on Park avenue. Fifteen members were present.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Pat Kinzey. The resignation of Mrs. J. L. Cobb was accepted with regrets. Mrs. Cobb having moved from Brevard to Tryon. Mrs. C. H. Trowbridge was named on the committee in regard to the movement for clean pictures.

The program of the afternoon was led by Mrs. Ethel Harris, discussing the life and works of Wordsworth. Her reading of Wordsworth's "The Thorn," added to the enjoyment of the program.

Following refreshments served by the hostess, the club adjourned to meet on January 10.

INTERESTING PROGRAM AT WEDNESDAY CLUB MEETING

Mrs. Robert Kinzey was in charge of an interesting program at the regular meeting of the Wednesday club, held Wednesday afternoon, December 12, at the home of Mrs. Ethel McMinn, with Mrs. T. E. Patton Jr. as hostess. Sixteen members were present and two substitutes.

Mrs. Kinzey had for her program topic, "The beginning of the novel," discussing the two novelists Samuel Richardson and Henry Fielding. Richardson, author of Pamela, the first 18th century novel, was depicted as the most popular author with the people, except Dickens. He is credited with being the inventor of the modern novel. Fielding was described as the greatest novelist of the 18th century. Interesting excerpts were read from "Tom Jones," his masterpiece.

Mrs. J. O. Erwin, president presided over the meeting. Mrs. S. P. Verner reported that $16.00 had been received as dividend from the liquidation of the old Brevard Banking company. Mrs. Erwin appointed the following committee to sell Christmas seals: Mrs. David Ward, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. T. A. Berg, and herself assisting.

After refreshments the club adjourned to meet on January 2nd at the home of Mrs. Ethel McMinn, with Mrs. Hinton McLeod as hostess.

MISS WOOD IS MARRIED TO MR. WHEELER

A beautiful and impressive wedding ceremony, marked by simplicity and coming as a complete surprise to their friends, was the marriage of Miss Gladys Loftis Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Wood, to Mr. Donald Carnes Wheeler, of Rowlesburg, W. Va., which took place in the parlor of the Methodist parsonage here Friday morning at 10 o'clock with the Rev. J. H. Brandall, pastor of the bride, officiating, using the betrothal and ring ceremony of the Methodist Episcopal church, South.

Only members of the bride's immediate family, with Miss Elizabeth Mills, her schoolmate, as maid of honor, and Mr. Mack Franks, of Franklin, as Mr. Wheeler's best man, were present.

The bride was lovely in a morning dress of blue with gold trimmings and brown accessories, her small hat was a chic creation of gold metal cloth and brown velvet. Her trains were of white tulle and brown fur coat.

For something "old" the bride wore a brooch of old gold and pearls, worn by her paternal grandmothers of three generations.

The bride is the only daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. Thomas Shields Wood, and a granddaughter of the late Thomas S. Wood, who was prominent in civic and political affairs in Western North Carolina for many years. She is a graduate of Brevard high school and attended the School of Nursing at City Hospital in Greenville, S. C.

Mr. Wheeler, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Wheeler, of Rowlesburg, W. Va., was educated in the public schools of that place and the Univer-

After a short honeymoon

to points of interest in the South, they returned here to spend the holidays with the bride's parents.

More than 100,000 copies of the world last year is in

of the world last year is in

Open Evenings

Until

CHRISTMAS

Southern Public Utilities Co.

Now — Our New Low Rates Make Electrical Gifts More Practical Than Ever Before . . .

• They Give Pleasure, Comfort, Economy, and Service!

A gift of comfort—The Reflector Heater gives instant heat at the turn of a switch. Sturdy construction, fast heating. It's an added protection these cold mornings against colds and discomfort. Chromium reflector.

$4.95 $5.95 $6.95

Cost of operation: One and nine-tenths cents per hour

How good waffles would taste these cold mornings made the electric way. Here's a gift that the whole family could enjoy—and good waffles served crisp and hot right at the table make light of "breakfast rushes". Beautiful design, chromium finish, with heat indicator . . . $5.20

Cost of operation: two cents per hour.

A necessity for the sick and a comfort to the well. A heating pad for Christmas means long hours of comfort. Three heats, washable cover, guaranteed. This pad has thermostat control to protect against overheating . . . $4.20

Cost of operation: one seventh of a cent per hour.

The New Toastmaster Hospitality Tray is a new aid to the informal hostess. Complete with the automatic 2-slice toaster, tray, toast trimmer, and 6 glass condiment dishes. Also available with single slice toaster and smaller tray. Give this distinctive gift and make entertaining a . . . $21.63

Cost of operation: 2 cents per hour.

Sure, she has an Iron—but wouldn't she appreciate this scientifically built, easy to use, Universal? It's chromium finished, guaranteed, and balanced to take a minimum amount of . . . $2.95

Cost of operation: one and four-fifths cents per hour.

This corn Popper will afford lots of fun and pleasure. Pops in a jiffy. No bother or muss. Get one for yourself and . . . $1.00

Cost of operation: one and four-fifths cents per hour.

Two slice, Universal toaster. Serves hot, crispy toast right at the table. Saves time and steps. It's economical to use . . . $3.05

Cost of operation: one and nine-tenths cents per hour.

Here's an electric percolator you would be proud to have right on the table, and coffee made the electric way is truly delicious. A fast "perker" and it's easy to clean—Take a look at your present percolator and then include this in your shopping list. Chromium finish, six cup . . . $5.25

Cost of operation: one and one-fifth cents per hour.

Give this Electric Kettle to Mother and then watch the rest of the family use it. Heats three quarts of water in ten minutes. Ideal for dishes, shaving water and baby's bath . . . $7.30

Cost of operation: Three cents per hour

Many Other Ideal Gifts Not Mentioned—Drop In Today!

Tune In WSOC 7:30 P. M. Tues.—WBT 9:45 A. M. Mon.—Wed.—Fri.

Southern Public Utilities Co.

DAY PHONE 116

NIGHT PHONE 18

FEWER COLDS VICKS VAPORUBIN HELPS PREVENT MANY COLDS

4 More Days--Then Xmas

Gifts Bought at a Jewelry Store Are Gifts That Last

Wrist Watches are unusually attractive this year. Gold filled (white or yellow) Elgin $25.00 and up.

Silverware in Plate and Sterling in an endless variety of patterns and prices.

Seal Rings, Stone Rings, Wedding Rings in both white and yellow.

Candle Sticks in Plate, Sterling, Cut Glass and Mahogany.

Pocket Watches from $1.00 to $60.00

Ice Tongs, Sugar Tongs—both in plate and sterling.

Cameras and Kodaks from 39c up with special prices on many of the higher priced ones.

COME IN AND LOOK

Frank D. Clement
The Hallmark Jeweler
Clemson Theatre Building