How many new year resolutions are still unbroken?

Ralph Lyday was first subscriber to wish us "Happy New Year" with a year's renewal.

American girl calls Hitler a Jew and gets in jail.....wonder what he'd do if somebody called him Huey Long?

Advertisement in The Times speaks of prosperity of the stable kind for this section of the country—"Carload of horses and mules for sale."

Maybe 1934 was not all that it should have been, but that is no reason for our being sour on the world during 1935.....which will be better if we ALL try to make it so.

With the United States congress convening on Thursday of this week and the North Carolina legislature on Wednesday of next, anybody's guess is as good as ours as to what to expect.

Walter B (TVA Dam) Smith is still at the throttle of the big water engine.....claims petition with four thousand names ready for submission to "high government official" asking immediate building of dam.

One person killed by an auto every 15 minutes during the past year..... suggest a rigid driver's examination and strict stipulation (and enforcement) of regulation disallowing any man who is caught driving with whiskey on his breath to sit under a steering wheel for five years.

Maybe the world is getting more sensible after all.....lady in Massachusetts is accorded honor for the making of fine doughnuts. Our girls would be far better.....

WORTHWHILE RESOLVE AT THIS LATE DAY
 Although New Year with its many resolutions is three days past, we cannot refrain from calling attention to a suggested new start as pointed to in the Connestee News carried in this week's Times:
 ".....do more of the good."
 Every day is a new day, every hour a new period in life, and each minute offers gifts of opportunity to do something better than we have in the past.

CONNESTEE NEWS

Christmas is over and the new year has come and we hope that with it we will "start life all over again and resolve to do more of that which is good and less of that which is evil."

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baker and baby of Highlands spent Christmas with relatives in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brown of Lyman, S. C., spent the holidays in this community.

Rev. W. S. Price Jr. was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. Henderson last Sunday.

Tilden Holden spent the week-end with relatives and friends at Pisgah Forest.

F. P. Tinsley is on the sick list at this writing, also Mrs. Louie Raines, Miss Gerlie Lance and Christine Raines.

Mrs. Harrison Cison and son Jay of Carson's Creek passed through our section Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter Tinsley and son Fred, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Tinsley, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baker, and baby, and Marvin Whitmore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Baker Saturday night.

Miss Edith Gravely visited Miss Vera Whitmore Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. H. B. Glazener called on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hogsed, Friday evening.

Herman Hogsed visited Willie Tinsley one day last week.

Miss Bertha Holden spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Warrior Mull.

Mrs. F. P. Tinsley was the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. C. Landreth, last Thursday.

Lee Masters and family expect to move to Brevard this week. Mr. Masters is employed with the tannery there.

William Hogsed and Gertha Galloway were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hogsed Thursday.

Elmer and Lambert Baker visited Arthur and Virgil Gillespie Friday evening.

Next Sunday is Orphanage day at our church. We hope a large number will come out and let's make a worthy offering to send to our little children down at Thomasville. May God add his blessings to all our efforts that we expect to put forth during the coming year, that much and lasting good may be accomplished by our little church.

Miss Gladys Mull visited her grandfather, Lee Holden, one day last week.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
 (By REV. F. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, © Western Newlander Union.)

Lesson for January 6

PETER'S CONVERSION AND CALL

LESSON TEXT—John 1:35-43; Mark 1:14-18.

GOLDEN TEXT—And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.—Mark 1:17.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Why Peter Went With Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Peter Enrolls in Jesus' School.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Accepting a Great Leader.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Ways of Winning Men to Christ.

For the next three months the lessons center around the apostle Peter. The aim of the lesson committee was to acquaint the members of the Sunday school with the life and writings of Peter.

1. The Conversion of Peter (John 1:35-42)

1. John pointing his disciples to Jesus (vv. 29-34). Through the testimony of John the Baptist his disciples were brought to Jesus.

2. Two of John's disciples follow Jesus (vv. 35-37). As a result of the Baptist's testimony, two of his disciples left him and followed Jesus. One of these disciples was Andrew (v. 40), and presumably the other was John. When the Baptist pointed out Jesus as the Lamb of God, the long-expected Messiah, these disciples sought further acquaintance with Jesus. When they looked upon Jesus, they were induced to follow him.

3. The two disciples abiding with Jesus (vv. 38, 39)

a. Jesus' question (v. 38). When Jesus saw the disciples following, he kindly inquired as to their business.

b. The disciples' reply (v. 39). They answered his question by inquiring as to his dwelling place. Their reply showed their desire to go apart privately where they could open their hearts unto him. He invited them to his place of abode, where they enjoyed sweet fellowship with their Master.

4. Andrew bringing Peter to Jesus (vv. 40-42). The very genius of Christianity is self-propagation. The usual method is to begin with those nearest us, home folks and relatives, and pass out to ever-widening circles. The disciples who enjoyed fellowship with Jesus went at once to tell others of the priceless treasure they had found. This is always true of the real disciple. Andrew bringing his brother Peter is a beautiful example of brotherly affection, expressing itself in bringing him to Christ. When Andrew had witnessed to Peter about Christ he brought him to Jesus where he could enjoy personal intercourse. This was a great piece of work for Andrew, for Peter became one of the pillars of the church.

11. The Calling of Peter (Mark 1:14-18)
