Local Boxers Win And Lose In Meet Held At Asheville

Four Transylvania county boys entered the boxing tournament for amateurs sponsored by the Asheville Y. M. C. A. last week and two lost in the first round and two won the championships of their weight class by the knockout route.

Bud Neill of Brevard lost a decision to Ed Sweet, veteran of 78 matches. Sweet won the bout on decision after Neill had taken the first round. It was the first time Neill had ever boxed.

James Simpson lost to Billy Reese of Asheville, decision.

David Barton, in winning the championship of his class, took a decision over Bill Justice, Asheville, and over Richard Young, Asheville. Barton was awarded a technical knockout over Billy Reese in the second round of their bout.

A clean knockout was registered by Sidney Siniard of Brevard in the 145-pound final. Siniard knocked his opponent out in the first round. It was the only bout which Siniard fought in the tournament and is his third match. He has won every fight, two by the knockout route and one by decision.

Meeting to be Held Friday Night For Purpose of Organizing C of C

Organization of a Chamber of Commerce for Brevard will be perfected at a good-fellowship booster meeting to be held in the county agent's office in the Breeze building on Main street Friday night of this week at 8 o'clock, according to plans announced by the Women's Civic club, sponsor of the event.

The meeting is open to every man and woman in the town, and will be attended, it is confidently expected, by around 100 of Brevard's public spirited citizens who are looking toward present and future community welfare and progress.

The main purpose of the meeting, as stated by the sponsors, is for the election of officers and a board of directors for the Chamber of Commerce, with the intention of perfecting the organization at once. A president, vice president, secretary and treasurer will be included in the official staff to be elected.

Leading men of the town are cooperating with the women's club in an effort to make of this gathering Friday night one of the most outstanding ever held here, insofar as its beneficial results in the life of the community are concerned.

In view of the successful booster supper meeting held several weeks ago at the Waltermire hotel, which was so largely attended by representative men and women of the town, it was thought advisable by the women's club and business men to have a follow-up meeting at this time, for the sole purpose of organization of a Chamber of Commerce. Decision was made, however, not to have this gathering in the nature of a supper meeting.

No set program is being planned, it is understood, the time to be given over entirely to the main object of the meeting—that of organizing a Chamber of Commerce and working out plans for its immediate operation.

The bill provides that such powers of arrest and patrol duties as are now effective under the present law inside the corporate limits of Brevard, extend one mile beyond the incorporate limits. The bill follows:

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That section seven, chapter 113, private laws of 1903, be amended by striking out all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 7. That the mayor of said town is hereby constituted an inferior court, and as such shall, within the corporate limits of the town and one mile beyond said corporate limits, have all the power, jurisdiction and authority of a justice of the peace in all criminal matters to preserve and keep the peace, to issue process, to hear and determine all cases of action which may arise upon the ordinances or regulations of the town or under the laws of the state, to enforce penalties by issuing execution upon any adjudged violation thereof, and to execute the by-laws, rules and regulations made by the Board of Aldermen."

Section 2. That section 34, chapter 113, private laws of 1903, be amended by striking out all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 34. That it shall be the policeman or policemen elected by the board of aldermen to see that all state laws, town ordinances and orders of the mayor and board are enforced, and to report all breaches thereof to the mayor, and to preserve the peace of the town by suppressing disturbances and apprehending offenders, and for such purposes such policeman or policemen shall have, within the corporate limits of said town and one mile beyond said corporate limits, all the power and authority vested in sheriffs and county constables. Such policeman or policemen shall execute all precepts and criminal process directed to him or them by the mayor or other judicial officer, and in the execution thereof shall have the same powers which the sheriff or constables of the county have."

Section 3. That chapter 113, private laws of 1903, be amended by inserting between section 34 and section 35 a new section as follows:

"Section 34 1-2. That the chief of police of the town of Brevard shall also be the town constable, and as such constable shall have all of the duties and powers now conferred by law and such as may be conferred by the board of aldermen of said town."

Section 4. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

JUDGE APPROVES BANK LIQUIDATION

The 1934 annual report of Gurney P. Hood, Commissioner of Banks of North Carolina, concerning the liquidation of Brevard Banking company was approved this week by Judge John M. Oglesby, who is presiding over the current term of Superior court in Transylvania county.

The report discloses that approximately $60,000.00 was collected in cash by Pat Kimzey, in charge of the liquidation, and his assistant, Mrs. A. B. Owen. It also shows that secured claims in the approximate amount of $750,000 were settled in full by conveying to the holders of said claims certain assets of the Brevard Banking company and that common claims against the Brevard Banking company in the approximate amount of $80,000 were settled in full by conveying certain assets of the Brevard Banking company. The above mentioned settlements reduced the liabilities of the closed Brevard Banking company from approximately $1,500,000 to approximately $225,000.

Preferred claims in the approximate amount of $25,000 were paid, and a 10 per cent dividend in the total amount of approximately $25,000 was paid to the remaining creditors of the Brevard Banking company.

The report shows that the total expenses of the liquidation of Brevard Banking company for the year 1934, including insurance and taxes on real property, and all other expenses amounted to $4,877.74, and that the income of the Brevard Banking company, this being made up principally of interest paid on notes and rents from real property, amounted to $3,917.71, making the net cost of the liquidation of the Brevard Banking Company for the year 1934 of $960.03.

The report also itemizes the salaries and attorneys' fees paid during the past year, which according to the report are as follows:

Salaries—Mrs. A. B. Owen, January to December, 1934, at $70.00. Total $840.

Attorneys' fees—Pat Kimzey, $563.50; W. L. Lumpkin, Louisville, N. C., $68.03; Ralph H. Ramsey Jr., $10.00, and W. E. Breeze, $50.00, making the total salaries paid during the year of $840, and attorneys' fees of $691.53.

It is noticed that no salary was paid Pat Kimzey as liquidating agent. Mr. Kimzey states that his salary as liquidating agent for this year was paid by other banks which he is liquidating in this judicial district.

Many persons who saw the report were congratulating Mr. Kimzey and his assistant, Mrs. Owen, on the progress made in the liquidation during the year 1934 and the economical way the liquidation is now being handled.

CIVIC CLUB MEET SCENE OF ACTION

Decision to sponsor a good fellowship booster meeting Friday evening for the main purpose of organizing a chamber of commerce, was reached at the regular meeting of the Women's Civic club, held Monday afternoon at the library.

Jerry Jerome and W. L. Gash made a few remarks at the opening of the meeting regarding the proposed get-together meeting, suggesting ways in which the civic club might be of assistance in the organization of a chamber of commerce.

Plans were discussed for a clean-up campaign for the town, and decision was made to observe the first week in May as general clean-up week.

Mr. Beulah Zachary, chairman of the civics committee, reported that $4.60 had been spent from the treasury fund for defraying expenses on the work of renewing the shrubbery on the court house lawn. Several locations were suggested as a permanent meeting place for the club and for the Woman's Exchange, but no definite decision was reached.

It was voted to write a letter to Senator Ramsey commending him for his part in the repeal of the absentee ballot for Brevard, and requesting him to use his influence in getting a similar bill passed for the county.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Oliver Orr.

Crop Loans Now Available Here

Emergency crop loans are now available for farmers who are unable to obtain credit elsewhere, according to an announcement made this week by assistant county agent W. C. Maness.

It is pointed out that emergency crop loans are limited to the actual needs of the farmer for feed for work stock, seed and fertilizer, and borrowers from the loan office are required to have a garden for production of food for home use and to grow sufficient feed for livestock, and other requirements as set forth by the farm credit administration.

Applications may be made for emergency loans by seeing T. W. Whitmore, or for production credit loans see R. J. Gash.

Judge Oglesby "Not A Collection Agency"—But He Gets The Money

Judge J. M. Oglesby, with the assistance of Solicitor C. O. Ridings, instituted a new code of procedure here this week in the collection of court costs long past due.

The judge had the criminal docket called from beginning to the end and when the defendants who owed costs had not paid same the judge ordered defendant into custody and placed in jail until the costs were paid.

Judge Oglesby stated that the present condition of the docket was a farce and that the good citizens of the county could not respect the court unless the court required the defendants to comply with its orders.

a week or ten days, according to announcement of the pastor, the Rev. J. H. Brendall. The preaching will be done by the Reverend W. A. Rollins, presiding elder of the Waynesville district.

The schedule of services as announced by the pastor, is as follows: Morning services at the college at the regular chapel assembly hour; afternoon service at the church from 3:45 to 4 o'clock for children of the grammar grades; afternoon service for young people and adults at 4:00 o'clock; and regular evening services at 7:30 o'clock at the church.

Cottage prayer meetings are being held this week in the different homes of members, preparatory to the special series of meetings next week.

ERE Clinics Will Be Held On Friday

The attention of all county ERE teachers who are expected to sponsor the clinics at Brevard and Rosman on Friday this week, April 5th, is called to the fact that this is a voluntary and philanthropic undertaking in behalf of the children, and therefore it is of greatest importance that each teacher plan to give personal time and service that day to make it successful.

Dr. G. B. Lynch as county physician is by no means required to do this free work but has consented to do so and with the help of other doctors who are asked to help him the examination will be given in keeping with the national plan for the better security of the child.

It is hoped that some day machinery will be set up, may be hospitals, for the treatment of underprivileged children but at present it is dependent upon such public spirited people as see this need.

As those teachers at a distance and especially those who report to Rosman, may find difficulty in getting to Brevard with their teacher's service reports for the two weeks ending April 4, it is requested that you mail them in this week in advance, so as to reach Brevard not later than Friday and so as not to delay the making out of the payroll.

E. R. PENDLETON,
Unit Chairman.
