The other three occupants of the car were injured slightly, and young Tipton died soon after being carried to Lyday Memorial hospital, where it was shown his skull had been fractured in several places.

Already a large number of people living on and in the vicinity of the Rosman highway, have signified their intention of hooking on to the line as soon as it is ready, and it is expected that others will follow suit.

Liquidation Under Pat Kimzey Given Approval of Court; Checks Are Mailed

On Friday afternoon Judge J. Will Pless, Jr., approved in every respect the report of the commissioner of banks and liquidating agent in connection with the closed Brevard Banking Company.

Judge Pless highly commended the liquidating agent for his work in behalf of the depositors of this bank.

The report showed that approximately $30,000.00 was released in dividend checks of 20 percent to about twelve hundred depositors of the Brevard Banking Company who have not previously settled or sold their claims against said bank.

The Brevard Banking Company closed December 15th, 1935. W. W. Woodley, was first placed in charge of the liquidation of said bank, with Pat Kimzey as attorney. In 1933 Mr. Kimzey was placed in full charge of the liquidation under Gurney P. Hood, commissioner of banks of North Carolina. The preferred claims against the bank have been paid in full and 20 percent in dividends have been paid to the common creditors prior to this date, the additional 20 percent dividend paid at this time making a total of 40 percent paid to the depositors of the Brevard Banking Company.

Mr. Kimzey, well known attorney of Transylvania county, states that he expects to devote his full time in the future to the practice of law, but has not at this time decided definitely upon the location of his law offices.

Tornadoes and Floods Strike South; Red Cross Call For Immediate Aid

To the People of Transylvania County. We have all been horrified to learn of the terrible disaster that occurred in Gainesville, Georgia and Tupelo, Miss., and we have just received the following telegram from Washington, National Headquarters of the American Red Cross:

"Reports which have come to us today indicate great need tornado sufferers in Tupelo, Miss., Gainesville, Georgia, and several counties Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee, South Carolina stop. Reports still incomplete stop. These in addition to devastating tornadoes Greensboro, N. C., Cordele, Georgia, and other Georgia counties last week create a serious need for relief funds over and above those previously requested of you stop. It is essential that carefully planned and vigorous campaign for funds be started in your chapter without delay. Your chapter quota is four hundred dollars this year and above previous flood relief quotas advise action you are taking promptly." Signed Richard E. Allen.

We have had a most generous response in the drive for funds for the flood sufferers in the North, and this coming so soon after we hesitate to ask again for donations. However, these sufferers are our own people of the South, and while we will not make any drive we ask everyone who feels that he can contribute to please leave their donation either with the chairman, Jerry Jerome at the Building and Loan office, Charles Douglas at the Transylvania Times office, or either of the Drug stores, and we will immediately forward whatever is donated.

Those who did not contribute in the Red Cross drive for the flood sufferers recently, are urgently requested to give to their utmost now.

While we hesitate to make a special drive, the need of the suffering people is so great that we are compelled to again implore for help to the best of your ability.

Joe S. Silverstein, Chairman, Transylvania Chapter, American National Red Cross.

No personal statement was made to The Times by Mr. Paxton, but it is understood that his candidacy is authentic, and that his hat is "in the ring."

GAINESVILLE, Ga., April 7.—The storm-lashed South compiled a list of more than 400 known dead today from sporadic spring tornadoes as flooded rivers threatened new disaster over a widespread area.

Torrential rains sent major streams on the rise even before the task of finding and identifying the dead left by tornadoic thrusts had been completed.

The known fatalities for the latest storms which ripped through six states yesterday include, Mississippi, 219; Georgia, 183; Tennessee, 12; Alabama, 11; Arkansas, 1; and South Carolina, 1.

Contributing the heaviest toll were this textile manufacturing center in the foothills of the Blue Ridge mountains where 183 bodies have been found and Tupelo, Miss., another cotton manufacturing center, where 203 died.

A composite estimate of property losses was placed at $25,000,000 with uncounted thousands homeless and thousands injured. Relief officials expressed belief many more bodies of the dead would be uncovered before all the wreckage is removed.

Alabama's larger rivers were flooded, but little damage was indicated thus far. At Florence the Tennessee was falling in the vicinity of the Tennessee Valley Authority's operations, but upstream it was rising.

Weather officials said no concern was felt for Mississippi valley levees. Thousands of lowlanders on the Tennessee side, however, were routed from their homes and thousands more were ready to evacuate.

A crest of 26 feet, highest since 1929, was predicted for West Point, Ga., on the Chattahoochee river.

More than 1,000 relief workers labored in Gainesville, and a like number was busy at Tupelo against the threat of pestilence in the wake of death-dealing twisters.

At Gainesville 2,500 were homeless, upwards of 1,000 homes were in ruins and more than 1,200 were injured. Four trainloads of the injured were hospitalized in Atlanta, 70 miles away.

Golf Course Will Be Deciding Factor In Successful Season

With every indication that Brevard and the surrounding sections have the greatest tourist season in years "just around the corner," the matter of golf course facilities looms as one of the big factors in providing entertainment that will keep the visitors here once they have been induced to come.

The course is in exceptionally good shape, considering the severe winter that has been gone through, and in fact, the course is now in far better condition than it has been in several springs, due in large part to the fact that considerable work was done on the course early last summer, and very little use was made of it on account of the unwarranted newspaper publicity that was (mis) given this section of the state.

Conservative estimates on reconditioning the course and operating it this year give a very nominal figure, and it is believed that the greens fees from visitors this summer will by far exceed the cash layout, to say nothing of the added prestige the course will give the community.

Sheriff Tom Wood Asking Re-Election

Sheriff T. S. Wood makes announcement this week that he will be candidate to succeed himself for another term in the sheriff's office for Transylvania county.

Sheriff Wood was a farmer and dairyman before becoming chief deputy sheriff under T. E. Patton, Jr. After serving four years under Sheriff Patton, Mr. Wood was elected to the office on the Democratic ticket, and again two years ago was elected by an overwhelming majority.

FISHING PERMITTED IN COUNTY MONDAY

Special Ruling Allows Two-Days Before Season Opens on 16th

Fly and rod artists have the privilege of going out after the "big ones that got away last year" on Easter Monday, according to a ruling by the State Department of Conservation and Development. For that matter, the ruling of the department says, there will be no objection to fishing on Easter Sunday.

The regular fishing season here does not open until Thursday, April 16th, according to ruling of the state department, and the Easter Sunday-Monday is given in order that those who wish to take these two days off may have the privilege of fishing.

The following order has been received by County Game Warden E. R. Galloway:

"Owing to the fact that the Easter holidays come during the closed season for fishing, and since Easter Monday has always been a popular day for fishing, the board has agreed to lift the ban on that day, permitting the taking of game fish on Easter Monday, and of course there will be no objection to those who wish to fish on Easter Sunday. These are the only open days we will have during the closed season; so please be governed accordingly. Also notify all of your deputies."

WOMENS CLUB WILL HEAD CLEAN-UP JOB

All People of Community To Be Asked To Help Make Town Presentable

Movement for a cleaner and more beautiful Brevard was the theme stressed at the meeting of the Women's Civic club, held Monday afternoon in the new club room on Jordan street. The meeting was well attended, honoring the opening of the club in its new quarters.

Decision was made to observe annual clean-up week around the last of May, at which time the work will be carried on through chairmen of the four zones of the town, in cooperation with other organizations and city officials.

Mrs. O. L. Erwin, chairman of the present committee of the club, presented the matter of keeping the streets of the town in a cleaner condition, and pointed out the importance of the business houses cooperating by keeping their own places clean inside and outside.

Mrs. J. R. Hamlin, supervisor of the local WPA recreational project, told of the young people working under her supervision who might be available to help in the clean-up campaign. Plans were discussed for cleaning and beautifying several eyesores in the business district and elsewhere, with the aid of these young people under supervised direction.

Work has already started on cleaning up a vacant lot near the business district, with the assistance of young boys from the recreational project, working under efficient direction. Mrs. Hamlin has offered the services of a number of boys under her supervision to assist any clubs or interested citizens in their clean-up activities this spring.

C. M. Douglas spoke in behalf of the Kiwanis club, pledging the support and cooperation of that organization in the clean-up campaign; and any other efforts of the club toward a cleaner and more beautiful Brevard. He made several suggestions for providing more attractions for the local young people and for the tourists.

A round table discussion followed, many of the members offering suggestions and plans whereby Brevard, with its natural resources and scenic beauty unsurpassed, might be made more attractive to residents and tourists by keeping its streets and vacant lots in a cleaner condition.

The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. Oliver Orr. Light refreshments were served following the program by the committee for the occasion, Miss Rose Shipman, Mrs. C. C. Yongue and Mrs. H. J. Bradley.

Clyde H. Jarrett Is Republican Nominee In Eleventh District

Clyde H. Jarrett, of Andrews, was selected by Republicans of the eleventh district as congressional nominee at the convention held in Asheville last Thursday afternoon.

The nominee is a well known attorney and business man of Andrews, and has been prominent in Republican political circles for years.

Lewis P. Hamlin and Mrs. Ralph R. Fisher were elected as members of the state executive committee from Transylvania county, to serve for the next two years. Charles F. Toms of Hendersonville, was named presidential elector for the eleventh district, with Mitchell F. Lomine of Buncombe, and Walter R. Chambers of McDowell, chosen as delegates to the national convention.

The convention failed to instruct the delegates for presidential candidate, but it was an assumed fact that the two delegates would be favorable to the candidacy of Governor Alf Landon of Kansas. The convention refused to endorse Federal Judge I. M. Meekins of Elizabeth City for president.

School Board Will Sell Old Buildings

Order was made by the county board of education in session here Monday to sell two abandoned school buildings together with the grounds surrounding.

The buildings are located at Oakland, in the upper end of the county, and Boylston, in the lower end. Order and date of sale will be advertised through The Times by Attorney Pat Kimzey.

At Oakland, there is a one-room building and one-quarter acre of land; at Boylston, a one-room building and three acres of land.

The buildings have not been in use for some time due to consolidation of schools in the county, County Superintendent Jones said.

Members attending the session of the board included Chairman C. L. Newland, Mrs. Flora Holliday, and Edgar Reid.

50,000 Trout Placed In Pisgah Streams

Fifty thousand rainbow fingerlings were placed in the Pink Bed rearing pools last week by the forest service, and nearly as many were distributed to residents of the county for piquant in pools and streams.

The large number that were placed in the Pink Bed pools will be cared for by Pisgah Forest attendants until such time as they are several inches in length, and then released in waters of the national forest.

Several of the county residents who were given fingerlings from the car load, put them in pools, but most of them were released directly into small streams.
