

ART SHOW TO GIVE REVIEW OF STYLES DATING 1856-1936

Artists From Several States
Will Have Entries—Baby
Pictures Wanted

A fashion review of styles from 1856 to 1936 will be a special feature of the art show, which the Mathatason club is sponsoring Friday, Saturday and Sunday afternoon, July 24, 25, and 26, in the Harris building on West Main street. These costumes will be modeled by young ladies of Brevard Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The response from the many well known artists who have been invited to exhibit is very gratifying. Mrs. Elizabeth O'Neill Vermer, of Charleston, S. C., will again show some of her etchings. Mrs. Lillie Haynes McMullen and her daughter, Miss Catherine McMullen, will exhibit pastel portraits and landscapes. A group of coats of arms will be displayed by Lewis Hoffman Kemper, Miss Loraine Payne, of Brevard, who has been studying art in New York for the past four years, will exhibit several of her paintings. Etchings will be shown of the North Carolina long leaf pine by Miss Doris Sweet, who has had two of her etchings purchased by the Library of Congress.

S. T. Lipsey, of Savannah, Ga., will exhibit English colonial brass andirons, fire sets, fenders, etc. Another interesting feature of the exhibit will be a special section showing baby pictures taken years ago of grown persons now living in the community and elsewhere. All adults who have baby pictures of themselves are requested to contact the committee named below regarding exhibiting them.

All of the summer camps of Transylvania county have been asked to display the work of their handicraft and art classes. The camps which have responded are Keystone, Transylvania and Deerwoode.

The original Tom Thumb chair will again be shown. Among the other interesting articles to be exhibited are a rare old Spode tea set, a 17-year-old bed spread and a medical book published in 1834.

Miss Helen Morrow, who has been studying photography in New York, will display some of her work, which includes local mountain scenes. Among the local cabinet makers who will exhibit furniture are Henry Carrier, W. T. Brown and Jules Reynolds. The Brevard Gift Shop is planning a display of pottery, Japanese prints and hand-hammered pewter. The Maryemma Gift Shop will exhibit all types of handwork, embroidery, crocheting, quilting and knitting.

Members of the art committee will be at the Harris building all day Thursday, July 23, to receive objects. Those who desire to exhibit may get in touch with Mrs. J. B. Jones or Mrs. C. L. Newland. The club will be glad to arrange sales.

Travel Sign Placed At Travelers Rest By Business Men

A large sign has been erected at Travelers Rest this week, and will be used in directing through traffic from the South over United States highway number 25 by way of Caesar's Head and Brevard to Asheville and other points North and West.

Construction of the sign has been under the supervision of V. Earl Twigg, with several business people and individuals cooperating in taking care of the expense of building and erecting the huge sign which cost a little over $150, and is one of the most elaborate jobs to be seen in this section of the state.

There is a matter of $40 still unpaid on the job, Mr. Twigg said Wednesday, and any people in Brevard who have not contributed or who care to make further contributions, are asked to contact Mr. Twigg.

Singing Convention At Little River, 19th

A singing convention will be held at Little River church Sunday, July 19, from 2 to 4 o'clock, conducted by W. L. Davis, of Saluda.

Quartets and special singers from Greenville, Tryon and other cities will be present. All singers are invited to attend.

Red Cross Training Responsible for Saving Life of Lightning Struck Girl

The inestimable value of the Red Cross national aquatic school which is held each summer at Camp Carolina near Brevard was clearly shown last Sunday afternoon when a graduate of the 1935 class saved a young girl's life at Camp Deerwoode.

Fifteen minutes of resuscitation saved the life of a young girl at Camp Deerwoode Sunday afternoon when the child was struck by lightning during a heavy electrical storm.

Barbara Willis, 9-year-old daughter of Mrs. Edward Willis, of Lexington, was knocked to the floor of her cabin, unconscious and severely burned about the head, shoulders and abdomen by a lightning bolt that also shocked three other campers.

Miss Dorothy Swain, of Asheville, who is a counselor at Deerwoode, immediately administered artificial respiration as taught at the Red Cross school here this summer, and after fifteen minutes the young girl was

Ag. Boys Making Trip to White Lake Monday

Around 40 farm boys will leave here Monday morning for White Lake for the annual encampment which will be held in the Eastern Carolina center for one week.

The boys, 20 from Brevard high school and 20 from Rosman school, are members of the Young Tar Heel Farmers clubs of the two school units, and will be accompanied by their teachers, Professors Randall Lyday and B. L. Lunsford.

The trip will be made in a large truck fitted up for the event, and after arrival at White Lake the boys will be housed in the camp lodges provided for the purpose there. Fishing, swimming, boating, and other forms of recreation will be enjoyed by the boys, and one day will be spent at the beach. This feature will be of especial interest to several of the boys who have yet to view the ocean.

The party expects to return home Saturday.

Jazzy Moore Arrested; Tells His Subscribers

To Newspaperman James L. (Jazzy) Moore of Kannapolis, goes the banner for giving his readers ALL the news.

Jazzy, formerly a Brevard resident where he did fine work for The Times while he was taking a special course at Brevard College, was caught speeding along the state highway at about 75 mph last Sunday, and while there were no Kannapolis folk in the neighborhood, the Kannapolis editor "came through" with the story on page one of the Tuesday afternoon issue like this—

"JAZZY MOORE IS ARRESTED FOR SPEEDING, CITED"

James L. Moore, publisher of The Independent, and Vance Barton, local baseball player, were given tickets by state patrolmen during the week-end, charged with speeding.

Moore was nabbed on the Charlotte-Gastonia highway, making what Patrolman Smart said was 68 miles an hour. He was cited to appear before Magistrate C. S. Denny in Charlotte.

Soco Gap Highway—In The Smokies

Soco Gap Highway—leading to eastern entrance to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park—15 miles from Waynesville, 55 miles from Brevard. At the Gap going into the Park the elevation is 4,500 feet above sea level. This scene is halfway down the mountain from the Gap. This was one of the many beauty spots in Western North Carolina that was visited by the several hundred newspaper people who held a three-day convention in Waynesville last week.

WM. D. PELLEY OUT FOR U. S. PRESIDENT

One Time Interested in Plan To Establish School In Transylvania

William Dudley Pelley who was at one time interested in organization of a "new College of Thought" or some similar institution, is reported to be on the west coast of the United States where he is pushing his candidacy for the post of president of the United States on the Christian Party platform.

The Asheville man has as his running mate, one Willard Kemp, of San Diego, Cal., and reports which the two men have sent back to North Carolina in regard to their campaign is that "things are waking up," and that the battle cry of "Christ or Chaos" is being heralded by thousands of recruits.

Pelley is the organizer and commander of the Silver Shirt Legion, and was prominently connected with Gallahad College in Asheville a couple of years ago. Following a mixup with the blue-sky laws of North Carolina the militant leader was heard of but little until he opened his campaign in the far west recently.

An interesting group of writers and theorists were connected with the organization which had a branch at the Engadine Farms near Pisgah Forest a couple of years ago, but very little of the work the party did while in Transylvania was made public.

Fiddler Convention at Rosman Saturday Night of This Week

ROSMAN, July 15.—Musicians of note from many sections are expected to take part in the Old Fiddlers Convention which will be held at the Rosman high school auditorium Saturday evening of this week.

The event is being sponsored by the agriculture class of the high school and Pascom Lamar Lunsford, of Asheville, known over the entire United States as the "Minstrel of the Appalachians," will have charge of the program, and together with Professor and Mrs. B. L. Lunsford, also musicians of the first order, will play several tunes.

Cash prizes are being offered for the best single, double, and band presentations, as well as for clog and jig dancing, and yodeling.

Bishop Gribbin Will Speak at St. Philips

Home Bakery Opened For Business Here

Announcement is being made of the opening in Brevard of the Home Bakery, which is located in the Phillips building on Jordan street, near the post office.

The new Brevard enterprise is being operated by Louis Vasekou, who comes to Brevard from Kentucky, where he has been engaged in the bakery business for nearly forty years. A complete list being produced daily in the home-line of bread and other bakery products owned and operated bakery, and it is entirely possible that the new concern will soon build up a going business. New equipment has been placed in the bakery.

Bible School Closes Work Sunday Night

One of the largest Vacation Bible schools ever held in Brevard is that now in a 10-day session at the Baptist church, with 178 children enrolled. The majority of the children in attendance are of the Baptist denomination, but many boys and girls from the other churches are also enrolled.

The school will come to a close Sunday night at which time commencement exercises will be held at regular Sunday evening church hour. The parents and friends of the children are requested to be in their places not later than 7:55 o'clock Sunday night, in order not to interfere with the program to begin at 8 o'clock.

There will be a young folks' procession and demonstration classes by the children. This will be followed by "open house" in the Sunday school rooms, where handwork done by the boys and girls will be shown.

The faculty and assistants in the Bible school include: Mrs. Knox DeLong, principal; Lewis Hamlin, secretary; the Rev. Paul Hartsell, Mrs. E. R. Pendleton, the Rev. Richard Moore, Mrs. A. J. NEW PAINT JOB FOR COUNTY BUILDINGS

Court House and Jail are Being Retouched by Works Progress Workmen

Transylvania county court house is to have a new coat of paint inside and out, with workmen already engaged on the project.

The work is being done through the Works Progress Administration, which unit of the federal government is taking care of major part of the expenses incident to the job.

All labor and most of the materials for painting the jail and court house is being furnished by the WPA, with biggest items of expense to be incurred by the county on the job being that of new glass to replace broken window panes, putty, hardware, and scaffolding—the entire cost to the county to be less than one hundred dollars, County Accountant Ralph Lyday said.

Avery Case is in charge of the job. Roof on the court house and jail has each been painted, and workmen were ready to start on the exterior of the court house the first of this week. Inside of the court house will also be gone over by the painters.

Canning Projects To Feed Underprivileged Children Are Started

Three canning projects were started in the county on Wednesday, in Brevard, Rosman, and Pisgah Forest. They are all under the general supervision of Miss Jackie Clayton, who has been appointed by the WPA district setup for this work.

The object of the canneries is to can vegetables, fruits, soup mixtures and other eatables to be used in the school lunch rooms next winter. It is pointed out that the WPA pays only the salaries of the workers but does not provide funds for food or materials to be used in the project.

Miss Clayton states that money donations, vegetables or other foods for canning or empty fruit jars will be greatly appreciated for use in this work. Ten dollars for the purchase of jars has already been donated. Miss Clayton reports, and other cash donations will be gratefully received. The Brevard canneries will be in the school lunch room in the grammar school building.

New Service Place Opened By Standard

C. C. Gibbs makes announcement that he will occupy the new Standard Esso station corner of Broad and Jordan streets on Thursday of this week.

The new station is one of the most complete stations of its kind in the county, and was erected on the Zachary lot according to latest plans of the Standard super-station requirements.

Temperature 92 Wednesday

Old Sol ran the thermometer up to 92 here Wednesday afternoon, according to the official weather station at the city hall. Some there were who vowed "over 100," but 92 was top.

Bicycle Fad Coming Back In Community

"On a bicycle built for two..." And the fad is coming back in Brevard fast—so fast that Loalia Tinsley has installed a rent-a-bike system at his barber shop on West Main street near the bank, and is seemingly having no trouble finding plenty of customers both for the single seater "vehicles" and the tandems.

Square Dance Slated For Thursday Evening

A square dance is being given at the City Gym on Main street Thursday (this) evening, beginning at 9 o'clock, and invitations have been issued to the general public to attend.

The Fisher string band, of Rosman, will furnish the music for the occasion, and people having summer guests in their homes may safely suggest that the music of the Fisher boys will be worthwhile. Mr. and Mrs. Frank McIntosh and Mrs. Ralph Fisher will be chaperones for the occasion.

MISS BREVARD WILL BE SELECTED HERE NEXT THURSDAY EVE

Shirley Temple Doll For Little Girls—Swimming Pool Program

The Brevard swimming pool and business houses of Brevard are sponsoring a beauty show on July 23, to be given at the pool. The show will start at 8:00 o'clock.

The show will be divided into two parts—first, a "Shirley Temple" contest for girls between the ages of four and nine years. The winner of this contest will be given a Shirley Temple doll, donated by the Clonson Theatre. The second part will consist of girls representing business houses, and three prizes will be awarded, first prize winner to be crowned Miss Brevard.

Thirty-five firms have already entered their beautiful representatives, and it is expected that the number of young ladies will reach the 50-mark. Those firms which have not entered a representative are requested to see Coach Ernest Tison immediately. There is no entry charge, and admission at the beauty show on July 23 has been set at a minimum figure of ten cents; this money to be used in paying for prizes.

The following firms have already made entry, and list of their representatives will be announced in next week's Times:

The names of the entrants will appear in next week's paper for this contest.

Symphony Orchestra To Play Here Soon

Arrangements are being made by the Bureau of Information to bring the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra to Brevard during the latter part of July or the first part of August for a concert.

This orchestra is regarded as the outstanding organization of its kind in the South, and the more than one thousand Brevard people who heard the 40-piece unit her several weeks ago are elated over the prospects of hearing the full orchestra of 74 pieces which will come to Brevard.

The orchestra will be sent here through the WPA, which is sponsoring the musical work, and cost of admission for the concert will not be over 25 cents, according to telephone conversation with W. E. Brees, district director, Wednesday. This charge will be made in order to defray expenses of bringing the orchestra from Asheville to Brevard.

Community Sing Will Be Held Tuesday Eve

The weekly community singing, sponsored by the Brevard Music Lovers' club will be held at the band stand on the court house lawn Tuesday evening, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. A. B. Carter and his orchestra will furnish music, also special numbers will be featured.

Donkey Baseball Friday Night

Kiwanis Club vs. Brevard All Stars

"LITTLE NELL" "BIG MIKE"

Something new in Brevard—donkey baseball—will be tried out here Friday night of this week when members of the Brevard Kiwanis club will play an all-star Brevard business men's team on the high school field.

The game will start (or rather will be called) at 8:30 o'clock, and the play will be started as soon as the donkeys get going. The event is being sponsored by the Bureau of Information as a part of the summer's entertainment program, and business men of the town and Kiwanis members are playing for far less than Babe Ruth ever did in order that the event may be worthwhile.

Under rules of donkey baseball—and there are twelve real donkeys to be used in the game (including "Little Nell" and "Big Mike" shown above) fielding, base-running, and all plays in the game with the exception of the pitching, catching and batting, is done from the backs of the temperamental beasts that "go and come when the notion strikes" rather than when the batter strikes a ball.

Floodlights are being erected on the field, and grandstand seats provided, and the hour and one-half entertaining play is expected to draw hundreds of people. The donkeys for use in the game
