

An Advertising Medium of Exceptional Merit

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

A Newspaper Devoted to the Best Interest of the People of Transylvania County

Only Newspaper Published in Transylvania County

VOL. 42; NO. 16.

BREVARD, NORTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY, APRIL 22, 1937.

$1.00 PER YEAR IN TRANSYLVANIA COUNTY

No Opposition Filed Against Old Officers For Rosman Election

ROSMAN, April 21.—Mayor Alfred M. White and his board of aldermen will be unopposed in the primary or general election. Filed for re-election with Mayor White are Austin Hogsd and Claud Strop. Tom Mahoney, who served the past two years as alderman, will not run, and Grover H. Woodard has filed in his place.

The primary election, scheduled for Monday of next week, will not be held, and the general election on May 4, will be a formality.

Piano Recital Will Be Given Friday Eve

Brevard school music pupils of Professor Alvin Moore will give a piano recital Friday evening of this week at 8 o'clock. This is the final in the series of recitals, to which the public is invited.

Those taking part on the program will be: Helen Duncan, Odell Scott, Ruth Duncan, Lois Wilson, Fred Glazener, Sylvia Lyday, Mary Norwood, Marie Waldrop, Mary Jane Walker, Norma Hamilton, Betty Cray, Wilma Pickelsimer, George Simpson, Edward Glazener, Douglas Swatt, Janet Jenkins, Frances Walker, Dorothy Galloway, Jeanette Austin, Alex Kizer, Nina Lou Rustin, Richard Franklin, Bobby Norwood, Paul Jones, Billie Jean Duncan.

Marshals will be: Martha Kate Moore, Emma Lou Loftis, Harleston McIntosh, Mary Alice Feaster, Janet Jenkins, Oliver Orr, John Lyday, Vance Jackson and James Bridges.

Vocational Ag Boys Spend Day at Clemson

Vocational agriculture boys of Brevard and Rosman high schools spent Tuesday at Clemson College. Forty-four boys from Brevard and 28 from Rosman made the trip, accompanied by their teachers, Randal Lyday and B. L. Lunsford.

In addition to the Brevard and Rosman boys, 72 members of the Henderson county agriculture classes also attended. The trip was made in trucks, and the boys returned home Tuesday night about 8 o'clock.

During the day the boys visited the large Clemson farm, saw a military parade at 12 o'clock, and attended the Clemson-Erskine ball game in the afternoon.

Little River School Closing Exercises

Closing exercises of Little River school will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, April 23. The program will consist of exercises by the primary grades, a play by the sixth grade, and the seventh grade graduation exercises.

Ruth Fisher is salutatorian of the graduating class and Walter Veilman, valedictorian.

Soft Ball League Is Probable For Brevard

Plans are being laid for a softball league here again this summer, with the Presbyterian, Baptist, Episcopal, and Methodist Sunday schools each expected to enter teams.

Last year the soft ball games furnished a decided addition to the summer entertainment program and many of the visitors joined in the play regularly.

The league was also responsible for increased Sunday school attendance, one of the requirements for eligibility being attendance at church on Sunday school.

Rosman School Exercises Continue Through April 29

ROSMAN, April 21.—Graduation exercises of Rosman high school will hold center of attention here during the next several days, with programs being held Thursday evening of this week and through Thursday evening of next week, when graduation exercises will close the series.

All events will take place in the high school auditorium with the exception of the junior-senior reception which will be held in the gym.

Piano Recital Thursday
The piano recital of pupils of Miss Elizabeth Whitmore will be given Thursday evening of this week.

Those taking part on the program are: Mrs. H. O. Huss, Mrs. B. L. Lunsford, Ruth Lewis, Eva Israel, Helen Fisher, Barbara Henderson, Tobitha Waldrop, Mildred Price, Addie Owen, Violet McCall, Ray Winchester. There will also be special selections by the glee club.

Marshals are: Margaret White, chief; Margaret Glazener, Tobitha Waldrop, Ray Winchester, D. H. Winchester, Ruth Rice, Ruby Love and Wilda Reece.

Baccalaureate Sermon
The Rev. Jess C. Owen, of Spruce Pine, will deliver the baccalaureate address Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The program for the day includes:

Prelude; doxology, audience; invocation, Rev. M. E. Sumey; song, graduating class; scripture and prayer, Rev. H. O. Huss; sermon, Dr. Owen; benediction, Rev. Clyde S. McCall; postlude.

Brevard 7th Grade School Leaders

FRED GLAZENER and DAVID FRANKLIN are 7th grade leaders at Brevard schools this year. Fred, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Glazener, is valedictorian of the class, and David, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Franklin, is salutatorian.

Graduation exercises of the Brevard elementary school will be held Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at the Brevard high school auditorium, at which time 61 boys and girls will receive certificates.

The address to the graduation class will be delivered by the Rev. J. H. Brendall, pastor of the Brevard Methodist church. The presentation of certificates will be made by Principal J. E. Ruffy.

The following program will be presented:

Song—"The Son of God Goes Forth to War," class; invocation, Rev. Yancey C. Elliott; salutatory, David Franklin; class history, Mary Alice Hardin; class prophecy, Ethelyn Pickelsimer; class poem, Jack Huggins; class riddles, Roy McCall; last will and testament, Bonnie Mae Galloway; valedictory, Fred Glazener; song—"Friendship," class; address, Rev. J. H. Brendall; presentation of D. A. R. history medals, Mrs. Ralph H. Ramsey, Jr.; presentation of certificates, Mr. J. E. Ruffy; "School Song," class.

The class colors are purple and gold, and the class flower is pansy.

The class officers include: David Franklin, president; Maude Gallamore, vice-president; Hershel Galloway, secretary; Wayne Fulbright, treasurer.

The following are members of the seventh grade class:

Edgar Aikep, Eleanor Ashworth, Harrell Bagwell, Una Bishop, Otho Bowen, Bertie Brown, Lura Brown, Maybell Bryson, Willard Cairnes, Morris Cantrell, Annie Mae Coleman, James Cooper, Joe Cooper, Billy Cray, Lofine Dean, Inez Edmundson, Emily Feaster, Wayne Fulbright, David Franklin, Maude Gallamore, Bonnie Mae Galloway, Hershel Galloway, Carrie Lee Garren, Bonnie Lee Glazener, Fred Glazener, Mary Alice Hardin, Roy Head, Jack Huggins, Helen Jones, Kenneth King, Earl Lance, Linton Lanning, Jimmy Martin, Betty McCall, Christine McCall, Roy McCall, Jimmy McCrea, Grace Mull, Bertie Mae Orr, Zane Orr, Iva Lee Owen, Charlie Patton, Dorothy Poole, Ethelyn Pickelsimer, Katherine Simpson, Charlie Smith, Ralph Smith, Harry Spriggs, Lucille Spelton, Mildred Sprouse, Christine Tinsley, Mary Alice Tinsley, Elizabeth Brown, Mildred Foley, Edna Ward, Earlene Waters, John Lee Whitmore, Larry Wilson, John York, Eugene Morris, Ephraim Nell.

Nine Men Filed For Board; Election Be Held Monday

Brevard's municipal election holds center of attention this week, with the primary scheduled to be held Monday, April 26, to select five men as aldermen from the list of ten filed for office.

Mayor A. H. Harris is unopposed for his second term as chief executive of the town, and his name will not be on the ticket to be voted in Monday's primary. The general election will be held on Tuesday, May 4, and will be a matter of form, as the candidates are selected in the primary Monday.

Those filed for aldermen are:

Ralph J. Duckworth, R. P. Kilpatrick, Fred E. Shuford, Anthony A. Trantham, who are seeking re-election; R. H. Plummer, M. W. Galloway, W. M. Henry, W. L. Mull, and J. E. Waters.

Candidates met at the city hall Saturday morning and agreed that there would be no absentee ballots used.

The polls will open at 7 o'clock in the morning and close at 7 in the afternoon according to ruling of the State Board of Elections. C. C. Kilpatrick is registrar, with C. Y. Patton and C. F. Misenheimer, judges.

College Team To Play Textile Nine Friday

Coach Arthur Ranson's Brevard College baseball team will meet its only opponent of the week here on the high school diamond on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The contest with the Textiles will not be a Junior college conference battle, but will be a hard fought contest for the Ranson men.

When the two teams met in their first contest of the season at Spartanburg, the Brevard team was defeated by a score of 11-6.

In all probability Coach Ranson will select Southpaw Lee to perform on the mound in the contest for the Terrado nine while Ray is scheduled to share the major part of the pitching duties for the South Carolinians.

Lineup for the Brevard contest will be as follows:

Deal 1b; Caulte 2b; DeShaw ss; Frye 3b; Lee p; Clayton rf; Houts cf; Tweed lf.

Selica Exercises To Be Held April 23rd

The Selica school will hold its seventh grade graduation exercises Friday evening of this week at 8 o'clock at the school building.

The address to the class will be made by H. N. Powell, of Asheville, and the awarding of diplomas and certificates will be made by Miss Ruth Waters, principal.

The following program for the closing exercises will be given: Salutatory, Hazel Miller; Lonely Clock, Vera Hamlin; Our Childhood School, Ross Wilson; last will and testament Dora Garren; class prophecy, Nell Wilson; class song; address, H. N. Powell; presentation of certificates and awards, Miss Waters; valedictory, Dora Garren; song, Goodbye Schoolmates; toast to teachers, Hazel Miller.

Preceding the graduation exercises, a program will be given by members of the school, with the following taking part: Marie Barton, Molly Jane McGaha, Doyle Eubanks, Frances Bentley, Curtis Lance, William Bentley, Margaret Bryson, Junior Summey, and song by the entire school.

Concluding the commencement exercises will be a pie supper held at the Selica school Tuesday night. Features of the entertainment will be a beauty contest and a cake walk. Each girl is asked to bring a pie to be auctioned off.

High School Ends Season With Two Wins Over H'ville

A glorious final to the Brevard high school baseball squad was the double defeat which Coach Tilson's men handed their arch-enemy Hendersonville, taking two games in a row.

The Tilson men made a big slugging rally here last week in the seventh inning to net seven runs and tie up a game that ended 15-9. Carland started for Brevard, and was relieved in the fifth by Lester Brown who handled the visitors excellently, while his teammates slugged out a long-sided victory.

Carland again faced the Hendersonville crew there Tuesday afternoon for the last game of the season, and this time he showed his real pitching ability by holding the team to five scattered hits, and while the score was 4-2 in favor of Brevard, no earned runs were chalked up.

A couple of miscues and a single netted Hendersonville their two tallies in the first inning, while Brevard played along until the fourth frame before scoring. Again in the sixth, and then in the seventh when Shuford hit for the circuit, and in the ninth, the Brevard boys scored to take a well-earned victory.

Shuford was leading batter for Brevard with two for three, while Staton led his team with three for five.

Tanners at Hazelwood

Brevard Tanners will play at Hazelwood, Saturday afternoon, the game to start at 3:30.

Hazelwood lost Saturday to Tryon, 6-5, while Brevard lost to Enka, 12-9.

New Phone Book Will Be Published Soon

Work is going forward on the new telephone directory for Brevard, and will be ready for distribution to subscribers within the next two weeks.

Complete listings of the Citizen's Telephone company will be carried, along with other information pertaining to the telephone service. The book will be printed by The Times print shop.

Rosman 7th Grade School Leaders

EDNA ALLISON and GLENN WINCHESTER are leading students of the seventh grade at Rosman schools this year. Miss Allison, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Carl Allison, of Cherryfield, is valedictorian of the seventh grade class, and young Winchester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo L. Winchester, of Calvert, is salutatorian.

Closing exercises of the Rosman elementary school will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the high school auditorium. Twenty-three boys and girls will receive certificates at this time for completion of work in the seventh grade.

The address of the occasion will be delivered by R. M. Lee, assistant dean of Mars Hill College. Presentation of certificates of promotion and other awards will be made by Principal W. M. Hunt.

The following program will be presented: March; song, "Welcomes Sweet Springtime," class; salutatory, Glenn Winchester; Who's in the Seventh Grade, Helen Whitmore; valedictory, Edna Allison; class song, Days of Youth; presentation of history D. A. R. medal, Mrs. Thorvald Berg; address, R. M. Lee; presentation of certificates and other awards, W. M. Hunt.

The class motto, Climb, Through the Rocks be Rugged; class colors, green and white; class flower, dogwood.

Ushers for the event: Dan Edens, chief, V. B. Waldrop, Edna Nelson, Leslie Nicholson, Josephine Powell.

The class roll includes: Edna Allison, Craik Snipes, Glenn Winchester, George Osteen, Helen Whitmore, Arthur Waldrop, Glenn Summey, Effie Butler, Lillian Bryson, Looney Sisk, Ruth Lewis, Elsie Rahmes, Alfred Owen, Jewel Garren, J. C. Cassell, Ora Owen, Fred Powell, Maurice Owen, Hazel Barrett, Rosie Gillespie, Charles Huggins, Jason Gillespie, Bertram Cassell.

Largest Class In History of Brevard To Graduate Here

Graduation exercises on Wednesday evening, April 23, will bring to a close the activities of the Brevard high school year. Diplomas will be awarded to 58 boys and girls, the largest class to be graduated in the history of the school.

The baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday evening in the high school auditorium with the Rev. C. M. Jones, pastor of Brevard Presbyterian church, delivering the message. Churches of the town will call in their evening services Sunday for the event.

Program for the Sunday evening services which will begin at 8 o'clock is as follows:

Prayer; invocation, the Rev. J. H. Brendall; special music, glee club; announcements, Professor R. T. Kinzey; special music by Professor Alvin Moore and Mrs. Melvin Gillespie; sermon, the Rev. C. M. Jones; benediction, the Rev. Harry Perry; recessional.

Program announced for graduation exercises on Wednesday, April 23, includes:

Prayer; invocation, the Rev. Yancey C. Elliott; salutatory, Charles Allen; valedictory, Nina Lou Rustin; introduction of speaker, Professor J. B. Jones; address, Dr. Willis Parker; awarding of diplomas, Professor R. T. Kinzey; song, graduates; recessional.

Marshals for the two occasions will be—Martha Kate Moore, chief; Mary Alice Feaster, Janet Jenkins, Harleston McIntosh, Emma Lou Loftis, James Bridges, John Lyday, Vance Jackson, Oliver Orr.

Class officers are: Nina Lou Rustin, president; Charles Duckworth, vice-president; Charles Allen, secretary; Clara Allison, treasurer. Mascots of the

Baptist Men Asked To Meet In Brevard For Special Session

Men of the churches in the Transylvania Baptist Association are invited to attend a special meeting which will be held in the Brevard Baptist church next Sunday, April 25.

Professor R. M. Lee, of Mars Hill College will speak at 11 o'clock, and again in the afternoon. Other speakers who will appear on the program are the Rev. Yancey C. Elliott, pastor; D. C. Martin, outstanding layman of Asheville, and the Rev. Broadus Wall, pastor of the First Baptist church at Hendersonville.

It is expected that pastors and a delegation of officers and laymen from each church in the association will attend. Julian A. Glazener is chairman of the meeting which is to be in the nature of a "Fellowship."

Improvements Noted In Uptown Sections

Decided improvements in the uptown section of Brevard have been made during the week in three instances.

While neither of the three projects involved a large outlay of cash, they have added materially to appearances, and will in all likelihood be followed by others.

Lotha Tinsley has graded the Pickelsimer lot, corner of Main and Times Arcade, and surfaced it with gravel. He will use it for a taxi stand. The Brevard Shoe Shop has painted out the glaring red paint on the front of the King building and has it a neat, clean white. Miss Viola Mull has had the Wattermire building front on Main street and the interior redecorated and will use it for a beauty parlor.

Little Theatre Meeting

The regular meeting of the Little Theatre will be held at 8:15 o'clock Thursday evening of this week. A discussion will be held of the play "Romeo and Juliet." All members are requested to bring a copy.

Governor Hoey Asks Vote Against Stores

RALEIGH.—With first liquor election under the 1937 act to be held in Dare county on Saturday of this week, Governor Clyde R. Hoey took his stand with those opposed to operation of ABC stores in a public statement Tuesday.

The governor declared that the "defeat of the liquor stores in the elections soon to be held would be most wholesome and beneficial to the whole state." Elections on the local store plan have been called in Durham, next Tuesday; in Columbus, May 4; Alleghany, May 25; Johnston, May 29; Mecklenburg, June 1; and Wayne, June 1.

The state liquor control board will be named by the governor on Friday of this week according to advice from the office of the chief executive.

Mrs. J. L. Saltz Buys Bryant House Hotel

Mrs. J. L. Saltz has purchased the Bryant House, well known hostelry on King street, and plans to make a number of improvements on the property.

The Bryant House has been a well-patronized place for a number of years, and with the improvements Mrs. Saltz plans to make it will be a decided asset to the town's hotel facilities. The purchase was made from J. Frank Morgan.

Shooting Gallery Is Opened By Bagwell

Wade Bagwell announces the opening of the Brevard Shooting Gallery, which is located in the old Poinsette Cafe building on W. Main street.

There are many excellent marksmen in the community who are patronizing the new amusement place, and galleries heretofore have proven very popular with tourists. The gallery is large and well lighted.

Center District BTU Meet Set For Sunday

The meeting of center district of the B. T. U. will be held at the Brevard Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The following program will be carried out: Congregational singing; devotional, the Rev. Yancey C. Elliott; special song, Cathy's Creek; playlet, Carr's Hill; talk, "What B. T. U. is doing for young people of today," Rev. Yates Frady, Cedar Mountain; special music, Glady Branch; poem, Dunn's Rock; song.

Marshals for the two occasions will be—Martha Kate Moore, chief; Mary Alice Feaster, Janet Jenkins, Harleston McIntosh, Emma Lou Loftis, James Bridges, John Lyday, Vance Jackson, Oliver Orr.

Class officers are: Nina Lou Rustin, president; Charles Duckworth, vice-president; Charles Allen, secretary; Clara Allison, treasurer. Mascots of the