The report card should be filled out and mailed immediately to the postoffice, no postage being necessary.

The census of all unemployed and partly employed workers was authorized by congress to determine the number of people in the nation without work or with part-time work.

It is requested by the postoffice department that all cards be filled out immediately and mailed, in order that they may be in by November 20. However, the drive lasts until the 24th, and the cards may be mailed as late as that date.

The cards are self-explanatory, and may be filled by anyone who can write. However, a committee has been set up for the immediate Brevard community to assist people in filling out their cards, and this committee will also be glad to aid any person in the county.

Mayor A. H. Harris has appointed the following committee to aid in the work at Brevard-Postmaster T. C. Galloway, chairman ex offico; Alex H. Kizer, chairman; Mrs. Ralph Fisher, Mrs. Eck Sims, H. H. ### Brevard Group Planning To Show Wide Collection Here Next Week

Brevard's first stamp exhibit will be on Thursday afternoon and evening, November 18, in the Little Theatre building on Jordan street.

Only local exhibitors will enter, and In further observance of the day and of the World Day of Prayer for the general public is invited to attend as guests of the club. A silver peace, ladies of St. Philip's Auxiliary offering will be taken at the door to heip defray expenses. Brevard's Stamp Club of 15 mem bers has a very wide collection, with some of the frames being rated as among the top-notchers at the National Philatelic convention which was held in Asheville last summer.

Among the collections to be shown will be Confederate issues, U. S. general, commemoratives, German issues, Hitler collection, South Americans, Central Americans, Mexican air mail, all United States air mail issues, the Japanese New Year series, and other foreign collections.

Depiction of the development of locomotives will be one of the interesting displays, as will a complete list of all U. S. Battleship issues.

Altogether, between forty and fifty franes will be on display, with albums and individual collections of special series adding to the interest.
