MRS. BERG IS HOSTESS AT WEDNESDAY CLUB MEET

The Brevard Wednesday club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Thorvald A. Berg, with the president Mrs. David Ward, presiding. Seventeen members and one guest—Mrs. Yancey Elliott—were present.

The meeting was opened with the reading of the Clubwomen's Collect, led by Mrs. P. N. Simons.

Various committee reports were made, including a report of more donations of food and money to the public school lunch room. Mrs. Allison asked that certain needed equipment be donated to the room and cooperation was assured by the members. Special gifts were made for the Christmas dinner to be given the children at the lunch room.

After the transaction of routine business the meeting was turned over to the program leader, Mrs. A. H. Harris, who gave a fine account of the Drama of Satire and George Bernard Shaw. She related that Shaw dismissed love as ridiculous, from a mental standpoint, and that he claimed that both men and women pursue each other. She discussed his inability to portray the female mind.

Mrs. J. S. Silversteen assisted in the program by giving an interesting review of Mr. Shaw and mentioned his most prominent plays. Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Silversteen then read a delightful excerpt from the play "Man and Superman," which proved most entertaining. Mrs. Frank Jenkins also assisted by reading several very clever bits of Shaw's work.

During the social hour, characteristic holiday refreshments were served by the hostess. The club then adjourned to meet with Mrs. J. M. Allison on Jan. 5th, with Mrs. Thomas Wylie as program leader.
