

PISGAH FOREST NEWS

A revival service is in progress at the Baptist church with Rev. M. L. Lewis, of Cherryfield, in charge, assisted by the pastor, Rev. W. S. Price, Jr. Interesting and inspiring messages are being delivered each evening beginning at 8 o'clock. A cordial welcome is extended to come and worship.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Simpson, of Greenville, S. C., spent Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. D. W. Hollingsworth and other relatives.

Miss Beatty Roller is spending this week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Whitlock, in Hendersonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gurlee Allison, of Helen, W. Va., Mrs. William Hicks and son, of Raleigh, Mrs. Cecil Michael and daughter, of Salisbury, and Misses Edith, Stella and Agatha Allison, of Horse Shoe, were guests on Sunday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allison and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Allison and family and other relatives in this section.

Miss Julia Deaver, who is attending summer school at Cullowhee, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Robert Patton.

Several people from this section attended the funeral services for Clannie K. Orr, at Carrs Hill on Saturday afternoon. The deceased was an employee of Sid Barnett's Machine Shop and had won the friendship and respect of his fellow-workers and of those he served. In his passing Mr. Barnett has lost a fine mechanic and his family a loved one; and to them we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

Franklin, young son of Henry Orr, of South Carolina, has returned to his home after spending the past eight months with his uncle, Louis Orr, while attending school here.

R. E. Mackey received word last Wednesday of the death of Mr. Allen of Swannanoa, father of Frank and France Allen, who are former residents of this section.

Twenty-five members of the younger set gathered at the home of Miss Ekie Barton on Friday evening where a B. Y. P. U. social was enjoyed. Many games were played after which refreshments were served.

GLANCING BACK AT BREVARD

Taken from the files of The Sylvan Valley News, beginning 1895.

(From the file of April 11, 1902)

Some work is being done on the Henning Inn. A new gable and dormer window in front, among other improvements, adds to the beautifying and conveniences of the Inn.

Tom R. Zachary, of Cashiers, will be in Brevard Monday and Tuesday of court week with a good supply of native grown garden seeds. These seeds are the very best that can be used in Transylvania county, being grown in Cashiers Valley and are better suited to this climate and soil than northern grown seed.

The Jacobs & Shipman real estate agency is a new enterprise for the Sapphire county. Those interested are R. A. Jacobs, of Brevard, and Thos. H. Shipman, of Sapphire. They will deal mostly in mineral and timber lands, game and fish preserves and summer homes. We wish them much success in their new undertaking.

Married at the residence of Lewis Webster at Sandersville, Ga., on Wednesday last, Miss Florence Sheppard and L. J. Zachary. They left for Charleston and other points and upon their return will make Oconee their future home. Mr. Zachary was formerly a Transylvania boy and has many friends and relatives here who wish him success upon his new venture.

The millinery opening of Mrs. E. S. English last Saturday was a success in every respect. The many ladies who were looking for Easter hats found quite a variety in her store and Mrs. English was pleased beyond expectations with her sales.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church held their last meeting with the faithful and beloved president, Mrs. Price. The membership is small but fortunately this little band is composed of a faithful few who are ever on the alert to clothe and feed the hungry and the poor. At the last meeting it was decided to plan something to raise money with which to purchase a new organ for the church. The following committee was appointed to plan an entertainment: Mrs. Eastman, Mrs. Hampton, Mrs. W. H. Duckworth, Mrs. Bosse, Mrs. Carmichael, Mrs. Welt, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Ross, Misses Mary Allison, Della King, Rosa Shipman, Nina and Belle Duckworth. Refreshments will consist of oysters, cake, coffee and cocoa. Music and recitations will be given.

The youngest child of R. K. Ballard, which was being cared for by Mr. and Mrs. George Riddle, died last Monday morning and was buried here in the Glazener burial ground on Tuesday. It will be remembered that Mrs. Ballard died last May, at which time the child was only a few months old.

Miss Lela Brooks, who has been for some time with her sister, Mrs. Joe Zachary, at Toxaway, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents in Brevard.

W. W. Zachary, editor of the Marshall Record, was in Brevard last week.

Married on Friday last Joe McGaha to Miss Ida Hogsed, both of Dunn's Rock section. Much happiness is extended to the young couple.

Mrs. M. B. Riley, a native of Pittsburgh, Pa., died here last Sunday morning of consumption. She came here early in the winter in search of health, accompanied by her husband, but the disease had taken firm hold and could not be shaken off. The remains were carried back to her home for interment, a special train leaving here Sunday afternoon for that purpose. Mr. Riley had accepted a position with the Transylvania Railroad company, and made many friends during his brief stay here, who deeply sympathize with him in his hour of sorrow.

The young people of Brevard gave an enjoyable Easter ball at the McMinn house on the night of the 2nd. It was decidedly the nicest thing of the kind ever given in Brevard, and was most successfully led by W. E. Breese and Miss Bromfield. Those present were Mrs. Stoylenbaugh, of Pittsburgh, Mrs. Chas. Clark, Mrs. Hewitt, Mrs. O. Bromfield, Mrs. W. E. Breese, Misses Fisher, Brumfield, Breese, Pfister, Nichols, Mitchell and Miss Hays, of Pittsburgh, W. E. Breese, Cicero Nichols, F. L. DeVane, Chas. Orr, J. S. Bromfield, W. P. Gray, of Louisville. The music was furnished by the band of Brevard and was most charmingly rendered. The crowd from Selma was chaperoned by Mrs. O. Bromfield.

W. E. Bishop has bought the interest of Wm. Freeston in the Brevard Plumbing company and will hereafter have full control of the business. The merchandise in the tin and stove store of Mr. Freeston has been bought by W. P. Whitmire, who moved to Cherryfield, where he has opened a store of which Columbus Whitmire has charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Davis had as their guests Sunday, Mrs. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Maxwell, and also Mr. and Mrs. Harvey English and son of Boylston.

We are glad to report that Lewis Nesbit, who has been ill, is much improved.

Mrs. E. H. Jones isn't very well at present.

Charley Orr, of Glade Creek visited his little niece and nephews, Thelma, Harold, Billy and Wade, recently.

Miss Margaret Gash left last week for Cullowhee to attend a six weeks summer school at W. C. T. C.

Miss Sarah Nesbit, who has been spending some time in Hendersonville, has been ill at her home here for a few days, but is better at present.

We are very sorry to report that Mrs. Avery Justus is ill. Mrs. Justus' daughter, Mrs. Harvey Lance, is spending some time with her.

Mrs. D. S. Morgan returned to her home here Saturday after spending some time with her father, Rev. T. C. Holtzclaw, who has been ill at his home in Hendersonville for some time. Mrs. Morgan says her father seems to be improving at present.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Duncan went to Marion last Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. Duncan's sister, Mrs. John Conley, of that place. Mrs. Conley suffered a stroke a short time ago but was thought to be improving when Mr. Duncan visited her about a week before her death, however, she suffered heart failure and passed away last week. We extend to Mr. Duncan our sympathy in the passing away of his sister.

P. A. Rahn and E. H. Jones made a business trip to Hendersonville Monday.

We are sorry to report the death of little Martha Jane Orr, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Orr. Little Martha Jane passed away Sunday. Funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. L. M. Simpson on Monday, after which the little body was laid to rest in Pleasant Grove cemetery. The family has our sincere sympathy.

Little Howard Setzer, Jr., of Canton, is spending a week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Reed, here while his parents are spending a vacation at Washington, D. C., and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Raynel Morgan and son visited relatives here Sunday.

My neighbor finds it costs him much less per bushel to grow 60 bushels of corn to the acre than it does to grow 30 bushels. That's one reason why he's all for the Agricultural Conservation Program with its emphasis on legumes, lime, and phosphate.

Chevrolet Truck Made Half Million Mile Run

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—A truck with well over half a million miles to its credit—more than the equivalent of a round trip to the moon—is quietly attaining modest fame in the southern part of the country.

The truck is a Ford V-8 owned and operated by the John P. Nutt Company, a gasoline transporting company with headquarters in Jacksonville, Fla.

Placed in service by the Nutt company during the early part of 1934, the unit has been operated out of various points of the company's branches and at present is hauling gasoline out of the branch at Charleston, S. C.

Every day that the unit has been operated, it has traveled approximately 500 miles pulling a tank trailer of 3,000 gallons capacity.

Its motor has been exchanged every 65,000 miles on the average, and the rear end assembly has been renewed once. Otherwise the unit has required only normal maintenance.

Two Negroes In N. C. Executed

RALEIGH—The state executed two negroes, Waddell Hadley, 22, and Sylvester Outlaw, 32, Friday for criminal attacking white women.

Hadley, prison officials said, confessed this morning that he raped a girl in Sampson county last year.

Plans were changed at the last minute and Hadley was executed first because he had confessed and Outlaw had not, though two of Outlaw's co-defendants, Apton Outlaw and Lonnie Gardner, signed confessions implicating all before the three were tried.
