

Society News and Club Activities

MISS LOIS FISHER WEDS DR. CARY J. GOODWIN

ELIZABETHTOWN, May 3—Miss Lois Christine Fisher, daughter of Mrs. Ansell Fisher and the late Mr. Fisher, became the bride of Dr. Cary Jackson Goodwin, of Brevard, Sunday morning at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother. The Rev. W. O. Biggs, a former pastor of the bride officiated.

The lower floor of the house was thrown en suite and arranged with evergreens and ferns. An improvised altar formed near the fireplace and tall baskets of madonna lilies and eleven branched candelabra with many tall cathedral tapers were used in decorating.

D. S. Trammel, of Hendersonville, played a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. Miss Sarah Clark was vocal soloist, singing "I Love You Truly."

Mr. Trammel's selections included: "Romance," "I Love You Truly," "Traumerel," Lohengrin's bridal chorus as the processional, and Mendelssohn's wedding march as the recessional.

The bride-to-be was given in marriage by her brother, M. L. Fisher, of Elizabethtown. O. O. Goodwin, of Durham, attended Mr. Goodwin as best man.

The bride-elect was attired in a triple sheer navy blue crepe dress with a corsage of white orchids. She wore with this a Gibson girl hat of navy blue with a navy blue veil.

Mrs. Goodwin was educated at the Appalachian State Teachers college Boone, and for the past few years has taught in the public schools of North Carolina. She has a wide circle of friends in the Cape Fear section.

Dr. Goodwin, the son of A. T. Goodwin and the late Mrs. Goodwin of Apex, attended the University of North Carolina School of Pharmacy and Dentistry, later graduating from the Atlanta Southern Dental college, Atlanta, Ga. He was associated with the N. C. State Board of Health for three years after his graduation. He is a member of the Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical fraternity and the Delta Sigma Dental fraternity.

He opened his dental offices in Brevard during the past year.

After the ceremony, Mrs. Fisher, mother of the bride, entertained the wedding party at an informal wedding breakfast, immediately after which the couple left for a wedding trip. After May 10, they will be at home at the Pierce-Moore hotel, Brevard.

SARAH TAYLOR CIRCLE TO MEET THURSDAY EVENING

The May meeting of the Sarah Taylor circle of the Methodist church will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ada Teague and Mrs. Carroll Kilpatrick on Whitmire street.

Plumbing — Electric and
Sheet Metal Works
Reasonable Prices
We are agents for
Maytag Washing Machines
Complete line of
MAZDA LIGHT BULBS
D. GUY DEAN
Phone 257

Warning!
Why take chances on ruining a perfectly good motor by continuing to drive with the wrong grade of oil?
OIL IS CHEAPER THAN A NEW MOTOR—BETTER CHANGE NOW!
We Know What Grade is Best For Your Motor—We Have It!
TINSLEY
Esso Service Station
JOE J. TINSLEY, Manager.
Phone 109
Broad St. — Brevard

Protect Your Crops With
BARI-CIDE
EFFECTIVE AND ECONOMICAL
A Non-Arsenical Insecticide For The Control of Such Leaf-eating Insects as
MEXICAN BEAN BEETLE—CUCUMBER BEETLE—POTATO BEETLE, ETC.
Does not injure the foliage of crops on which we recommend its use.
Sold by Reliable Dealers
A Product of BARIUM REDUCTION CORP'N.
SOUTH CHARLESTON, W. VA.

FIDELIS CLASS MET WITH MRS. MARTIN

The Fidelis class of the Baptist Sunday school met at the home of Mrs. Lester D. Martin Friday afternoon for the regular meeting. Mrs. Martin was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Tommie Hampton.

The routine business was in charge of the president, Mrs. Winston Ashworth, who also read an interesting article. Devotionals were led by the class teacher, Mrs. J. B. Jones.

A social feature and refreshments followed the meeting. Two visitors, Mrs. Russell Massagee and Mrs. Randal Lyday, were present in addition to the twelve or more members.

METHODIST CIRCLES WILL MEET THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Three circles of the Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at the different homes for the regular May meetings.

Circle No. 1 will meet at the home of Mrs. G. C. Brinkman; the meeting of Circle No. 2 will be held at the home of Mrs. E. S. English; Mrs. J. E. Loftis will be hostess to the members of Circle No. 3.

LOCAL GIRL MARRIES SOUTH CAROLINA MAN

Mrs. R. H. McCall, of Brevard, has announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Willie Roberta McCall, to Earl Livingston Merritt, son of Mrs. Minnie Merritt, of Greenville, S. C. The ceremony was performed Sunday, April 17, at the Methodist parsonage in Greenville, with the pastor, the Rev. C. I. Doggett, officiating.

Mrs. Merritt is a graduate of the Brevard high school in the class of 1932. Mr. Merritt received his education at Welcome high school and the Greenville Barber school.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt are making their home in Greenville.

REGENT BRIDE HONORED WITH SURPRISE SHOWER

Miss Ruby Carland, Miss Beatrice Greene, Mrs. Allison Orr and Mrs. Ethel Summey entertained with a surprise miscellaneous shower Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Summey, honoring Mrs. Joe Nicholson, the former Miss Sadie Hood.

Little James Gordon Primm and little Jo Anne Green entered the living room pulling a decorated wagon with the lovely shower of gifts. The opening of the gifts provided the entertainment of the evening, after which the hostesses served refreshments.

The guest list included: Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. John Collins, Mrs. Shirley Primm, Miss Viola Mull, Miss Estelle Goode, Miss Heane Richardson, Miss Evelyn Burrs and Miss Helen Summey. Those sending gifts and unable to attend were: Miss Marjorie Tinsley, Miss Ella Mae Collins, Miss Ruby Penland, Miss Willie Mae Teague and Miss Malva Tharp.

BETSY BRITAIN HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Betsy Britain celebrated her fifth birthday anniversary Saturday afternoon with a party given by her mother, Mrs. Willis Britain, at their home on East Main street.

A pretty color arrangement in pink and white was carried out in the decorations and refreshments of ice cream and cake. A large white birthday cake with pink candles and pink decorations centered the dining room table. Games were played and the opening of the lovely birthday gifts afforded much pleasure for the little folks. A number of little friends were present to assist Betsy in celebrating the happy event from 4 to 5:30 o'clock.

PRESBYTERIAN CIRCLES TO MEET THURSDAY THIS WEEK

The three circles of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon and evening of this week.

Circle No. 1 will meet with Mrs. E. P. McCoy at Pisgah Forest; the meeting of Circle No. 2 will be at the home of Mrs. Fred Miller, with Mrs. T. K. Chamberlain in charge of the program; Circle No. 3 will meet with Mrs. Rowena Summey Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

EXPRESS REGRETS OVER MISS McCRARY'S LEAVING

Many friends have expressed regrets over the resignation of Miss Leota McCrary, R. N., head nurse at Dr. Peek's hospital, Six Mile, S. C. Miss McCrary, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. McCrary, of Brevard, resigned her position to do post graduate work before accepting work in another institution.

Numerous showers and parties have been given in Miss McCrary's honor at Six Mile, Pickens, Selma and other South Carolina places. She is to be initiated into the Eastern Star chapter at Six Mile on Friday evening.

D. A. R. TO MEET MONDAY AFTERNOON

The May meeting of the Waightstill Avery chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Annie May Patton.

DEVELOPMENT OF OPERA STUDY TOPIC BY WEDNESDAY CLUB

The Brevard Wednesday club met at the home of the hostess, Mrs. O. L. Erwin, Wednesday afternoon, April 27th. There were seventeen members present and a number of guests.

Opening exercises and a business session was under the direction of the president Mrs. David Ward. Mrs. Alex Kizer, chairman of the program committee, gave her report and the club by unanimous vote accepted the report as submitted. The course of study for next year will be "International Viewpoints of the United States" and will be worked out to cover our relations with the principal foreign nations.

After the exchange of books a delightful program was given by some of Brevard's most talented musicians. Mrs. Frank Jenkins was in charge and presented Miss Lucile Smith, of Brevard college faculty, who read a most interesting paper on "Development of Opera," after which the following numbers from famous operas were given:

Torreador Song, from Carmen, by Jack Baber, of Brevard College; Barcarolle, Tales of Hoffman, Mrs. H. R. Bobst; Within This Sacred Dwelling, Magic Flute, Mozart, Vision Fair, Herodias, Professor Alvin Moore; Home to Our Mountains, Il Trovatore, Duet, Mrs. Knox DeLong, Mr. Moore; Lullaby, Mrs. Knox DeLong.

At the close of the program the club gave a rising vote of thanks to those who made this excellent program possible.

During the social hour which followed the hostess served a lovely salad course. The next meeting on May 11 will be at the Little Theatre, with Miss Lucile Smith as program leader, giving a play.

JR. B.Y.P.U. PICNIC AND HIKE ENJOYED

Members of the Junior B.Y.P.U. of the Baptist church enjoyed a hike and picnic Tuesday evening near Camp Carolina.

The young people met at the church and were driven in cars out to the picnic grounds. After a hike up the nearby mountain, the jolly group of young folks gathered for a picnic supper and weller toast.

About twenty young folks enjoyed the occasion, chaperoned by the leader, Miss Marjorie Garren.

MRS. ARTHUR McCRARY HEADS DISTRICT WOODMEN CIRCLE

Mrs. Arthur McCrary, of Brevard, was elected president of the district Woodmen Circle, at the meeting held Wednesday of last week in Asheville, in connection with the annual Woodmen of the World meeting.

Miss Marjorie Garren, another member of the local circle, was the retiring vice president. Mrs. A. B. Galloway was elected district auditor.

Those from Brevard attending the Asheville meeting last week were Mrs. Arthur McCrary, Miss Marjorie Garren, Mrs. A. B. Galloway and Mrs. Marvin Garren.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB IN REGULAR MEETING

The regular meeting of the Fortnightly club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Loftis.

The president, Mrs. Goode Loftis, was in charge of the business transactions. Mrs. Loftis read extracts concerning the triennial convention of the general federation to be held in Kansas City next week.

Mrs. Bart Loomis, program leader, gave an interesting discussion on Nicaragua, telling of its geographic location, resources, commerce and other facts concerning this largest republic of Central America.

All members and substitute members, were present.

The hostess, assisted by her daughter, Betty Loftis, served an ice course during the social half-hour.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF ENGAGEMENT IS MADE

The following announcement appearing in Sunday's Greenville News will be of interest to many friends here:

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lafayette Vaughan announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter
Martha Ena
to

Jefferson D. Whiteside, Jr.,
Charlotte, N. C.
The wedding to take place in June.
GIVES PARTY

Miss Ruth Vaughan entertained a number of friends with bridge at her home, 311 Perry avenue, yesterday afternoon. Spring flowers added a colorful note to the rooms in which the players assembled. After several progressions, the following announcement was made in a novel way:

June
This engagement of the sister of the hostess called forth many good wishes from the guests. A salad course was served.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Vaughan of Brevard and Greenville. She was graduated from Limestone college in 1934. Since graduation she has been a popular member of the school faculty at Gastonia, N. C.

Mr. Whiteside, Miss Vaughan's fiancé, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Whiteside of Sharon. He was graduated from Erskine college and is connected with R. E. Proctor & Sons, Inc., a wholesale concern in Charlotte.

Those from Brevard attending the announcement party in Greenville Saturday afternoon were: Mrs. Hugh Hollifield, Miss Josephine Clayton, Mrs. Margaret Cowan and Miss Roberta Bryant.

SHOWER HONORS RECENT BRIDE

A miscellaneous shower given Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Ratchford, honored their daughter, Mrs. Donald Lee Moore, recent bride. Hostesses of the occasion were Mrs. Allen Brittain and Mrs. Mary Clayton.

The spring theme was prettily carried out in the decorations of spring flowers in blending pastel shades and in the refreshments of ice cream, cake and mints. The favors of little crepe paper baskets in variegated colors filled with colored mints added to the attractiveness in the prevailing motif.

Games were played and the presentation of the shower of gifts to the honoree was an enjoyable feature of entertainment.

About forty guests were present for the occasion.

HONOLULU IS DISCUSSED AT MATHATASIAN CLUB MEET

Honolulu was the topic interestingly discussed by Mrs. H. J. Bradley at the Mathatasian club meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Oliver Orr Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Bradley discussed briefly the history and geography of the Hawaiian Islands and gave a description of the city of Honolulu and the Waikiki beach. Adding interest to the program was the reading of extracts from a letter of Mrs. Bradley's sister-in-law, whose husband is stationed at Schofield barracks. The passing around of kodak and magazine pictures illustrative of the topic were further features of interest.

Mrs. J. M. Gaines presided over the routine business preceding the program. Announcement was made of the winning of the citizenship essay cup by one of the members, Mrs. Pat Kinzey, in the state federation contest. The corresponding secretary was instructed to send a card of sympathy to Mrs. Ernest Tison, who is recuperating from an operation in the hospital. It was voted to have the annual club picnic. It was moved that Mrs. Orr write letters to the senator and representative in Washington endorsing the library adult education program in rural communities.

In addition to the members present were also two guests, Mrs. J. S. Dendy and Mrs. Grace Lumley, the latter a sister of Mrs. Orr, who assisted in serving refreshments at conclusion of the meeting.

OLD TOXAWAY NEWS

who is a patient at Lyday Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Ervie Robinson visited her mother, Mrs. Jess Walker, Sunday.

R. P. Alken visited his daughter, Miss Beulah Alken, at Brevard hospital Thursday.

Jess Meece and Gaston Chapman motored to Rosman Friday on business.

Jess Walker, who is employed at Sylva, spent the week-end with his wife, Mrs. Delphia Walker.

Ray Robinson was a visitor of Lewis Morgan Sunday.

H. P. Alken visited H. B. Chappell Sunday.

Vernie Chapel and Jim Alken were in Fosman Friday on business.

Mrs. Wade Robinson and the children spent Monday night with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Robinson.

CANDY
for Mother
MOTHER'S DAY SUNDAY, MAY 8th

We recommend Whitman's Chocolates,
the finest in America—
direct to us from the makers.
THE SAMPLER—best-known box of favorite confections—17-oz., $1.50—Also 2, 3, 5 lbs.
THE FAIRHILL—finest dollar box of candy in America—Also $2, $3 and $5 sizes.

LONG'S
Prescription Druggists
Phone 85 Brevard

"Gee,
how much better you folks look, now that you're making more use of my lower - cost services."
—Reddy Kilowatt
Eliminate Household Drudgery With Cheap Electricity!
IN COLONIAL DAYS a wife lasted one-third as long as husbands lasted. Household drudgery killed them off! In modern homes REDDY KILOWATT eliminates drudgery. More leisure hours, greater comfort, and greater happiness are the rewards for the home maker who lets REDDY KILOWATT do her household tasks for her.
Reddy Kilowatt is the symbol of your electric service! Make him part of your plan for living. You will find you spend less and enjoy life more!

DUKE POWER COMPANY
Day Phone 116 — Night Phone 16

Adding machine paper $1.00
12 rolls for
AT THE TIMES OFFICE