

An Advertising Medium of Exceptional Merit

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

Only Newspaper Published In Transylvania County

A Newspaper Devoted to the Best Interest of the People of Transylvania County

VOL. 49: NO. 33

BREVARD, NORTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 17, 1939

$1.00 PER YEAR IN TRANSYLVANIA COUNTY

REVIVAL SERVICE AT BAPTIST CHURCH TO START FRIDAY EVE

The Rev. W. Perry Crouch in Charge—Meetings Set For Twice Daily

Revival services will begin Friday evening at the Brevard Baptist church, with the initial sermon to be preached at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. W. Perry Crouch of Raleigh, executive secretary of the state mission board, will have charge of the preaching, and the Rev. Yancey C. Elliott, pastor, will assist.

Service will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, again Saturday evening at 8, and Sunday morning at 11. Other services will be held each morning at 10 and each evening at 8 during the coming week.

The Rev. Mr. Crouch has preached here before, and is widely known over the county. He is regarded as an eloquent speaker, and a church worker of the first order.

Street Dance Friday Was Decided Success

Between 600 and 700 people attended the street dance given here last Friday evening, and all seemingly enjoyed the open air event thoroughly.

Twenty to 30 couples were dancing each set, with two "big rings" going part of the time. Music was made by Fisher's string band, and "passing the hat" netted the crack musicians something like $8.

Lighting was effective—using the new out-door lamps from Duke Power company, and broadcast of the music was taken care of by Sledge Radio Shop. Frank McIntosh called the figures for the dances, and Mrs. McIntosh acted as hostess, assisted by Elizabeth McCoy and Willie Kate Waters.

Special Class Meeting

Ralph H. Ramsey, Jr., will teach the Sarah Taylor Sunday school class at the Methodist church Sunday morning. It is announced by the class officers. The study will be on temperance.

World War Situation Causes Much Worry

Much concern is being shown in Brevard by business men and other leaders over the possibility of war in Europe in the immediate future.

Press and radio reports Tuesday and Wednesday were cause of wide-spread comment over the probability that the German armies would invade the free city of Danzig, which is expected to set off the powder keg, with Poland, Great Britain, and France joining in the alliance to thwart Hitler's plans to take over Danzig territory.

Italy is expected to join with Germany in the fight for Danzig, observers in Europe stated the first of this week after German and Italian leaders had conferred.

Troops were being massed the first of this week along all frontiers, radio reports state.

Lincolnton Rector To Preach Here Sunday

The Rev. Grainger, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, Lincolnton, will conduct the morning prayer and deliver the sermon at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at St. Philip's Episcopal church, announcement has been made by the rector, the Rev. Harry Perry.

The Rev. Mr. Grainger will also officiate at the celebration of Holy Communion at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Perry will officiate at the early morning service and at the 11 o'clock hour of worship Sunday morning at the Church of the Transfiguration at Saluda.

Amateur Golfers Invited To Play Free Next Wednesday

Two special events are scheduled at Brevard Golf course during the coming week—"Bogey tournament" on Friday, and "Amateur Day" on Wednesday of next week.

In the "Bogey Tourney" most anyone who plays is eligible for prize of dozen golf balls or less, and in the "Amateur Day" it is of course unknown just who will be winner.

Amateur Day Wednesday

Amateurs—those who have never played golf before, are invited to play Wednesday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock at which time members will loan the amateurs clubs, and Bob Reid, pro from Bryson City will be on hand to start the players off at Number One tee, and help them along in the five-hole tourney.

Low score prize will be given for the strictly amateurs, whose only expense will be the balls they use, with the clubs being loaned without charge, services of the professional, and courtesy of the course all being added to make the afternoon one of enjoyment for the "greenies."

A number of people have signified their wish to start playing golf, but have hesitated about "getting in the way" of the regular players. This will be taken care of in the Wednesday afternoon play, as the amateurs will be

Annual Farm Tour Be Held Here Friday of This Week

Farmers, their wives, and business men of the county, are invited to go on the annual farm tour Friday of this week, and visit some of the outstanding farm, pasture, and livestock projects in the community.

The group will leave the Brevard court house at 9 o'clock Friday morning, and visit the several farms on the itinerary which was being made up Wednesday afternoon in the county agent's office.

At noon picnic lunch will be spread, and each group is requested to bring dinner for their party. Lemonade for the luncheon will be provided by the B&B Feed Company.

A string band will accompany the party, and will make music at the noon hour, and following the short addresses.

Horse shoe pitching in the afternoon is expected to be a contest between several teams, and a new feature will be a ladies horse shoe pitching contest.

Pictures of the party, and of the several projects being carried on will be made by a representative of the Tennessee Valley Authority, which department of the federal government is interested in, and assisting in work here of reforestation and erosion work.

Julian A. Glazener, county agent, and E. L. Shore, assistant agent, will be in charge of the trip.

R. W. Shoffner, assistant county agent, and Fred Sloan, district agent, will attend from the extension department, and Professor McDade from the Tennessee Valley Authority.

State N.Y.A. Group Praises Work Here

State officials of the National Youth Administration here last Friday visited projects under the local setup, and stated when they left that they were highly pleased with the type work being done by the youth group in Transylvania.

The lunch room and canning projects were checked, as was the saw mill which the boys have set up on Railroad street, and some of the buildings erected by the boys during the past year.

State Director Lange said that the entire department was proud of the work done in this county, and that it was gaining recognition throughout the South.

To Clean Cemetery

Announcement is made by leaders of the Little River Baptist church, that a cemetery clearing will be held at the cemetery there Friday of this week, Aug. 18, and that all who have friends or relatives buried in the cemetery come to the grounds at 8 o'clock with tools appropriate for doing needed work.

RED CROSS CAMP TO OPEN AGAIN AUG. 24

150 or More Expected To Enroll For Second Aquatic School Session Here

National Aquatic school of the American Red Cross is scheduled to open at Camp Carolina near Brevard on Thursday of next week, with 150 students expected to enroll.

This is the second camp to be conducted here this year, the first having closed the last of June when over 200 were enrolled.

Ramone S. Eaton, American National Red Cross, will again be director of the school, with most of the first term faculty members also to return.

Registration will begin Thursday, and actual classes will get under way Friday morning. The session will continue for ten days.

Sherman Opening New Meat Market In Town

D. T. Sherman announces that he is opening a new market in the Ray & Williams Grocery, to be known as Sanitary Market. The new business is located in the same building with the grocery.

Mr. Sherman has been identified with markets here for several years, and was connected with the Waters market for two years before entering business for himself.

Faysoux Hypnotist To Appear Here Two Evenings This Week

W. A. Faysoux, hypnotist and telepathist, who with his company is announced to appear at the Brevard High School auditorium for two performances—Friday night and Saturday night of this week, will do a blindfold drive through the streets of Brevard Friday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

While completely blindfolded and attended by a committee of citizens, Professor Faysoux will drive an automobile from in front of the Belk's Department store on Main street to a secret place where the committee has previously concealed a postoffice key, drive to the postoffice, find the box where the committee has placed a letter, and deliver the letter to whom it is addressed—continuing with his eyes closed and blinded, according to the announcement.

Faysoux is also scheduled to hypnotize a subject in the window of the Belk store at 8:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, this subject to remain in hypnotic state until awakened on the stage at the high school at 8:30.

The show is being conducted under auspices of the American Legion. Faysoux and his party were here five years ago, and drew a large crowd at both night performances.

Noted Pianist Will Play Here Monday

Monday evening, August 21st, at 8:15 in the Brevard high school auditorium the Junior Music club will present Thomas Brockman young American pianist, in recital.

Mr. Brockman first won recognition through the contests of the National Federation of Music Clubs, and on a number of occasions was a winner for the Southeastern States district. He later studied under Walter Spry at the School of Music of Converse College, graduating in 1936.

After playing for Dr. Josef Hofmann, he was one of five out of several hundred admitted to the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. This unique school since its foundation by Mrs. Edward Bok in 1924 has become world famous as perhaps the finest music school in the world—among its teachers have been Leopold Stokowski, Josef Hofmann, Arthur Rodzinski, Fritz Reiner, Efreim Zimballist, Carlos Salzedo, Marcello Sembraich and many others. Among its graduates have been: Rose Bampton, Helen Jopson, Conrad Thibault, Sam Barber, Gian-Carlo Menotti, Nadia Reisenberg and Oscar Shumsky. Entrance to the Curtis Institute is by scholarship only. He first studied under David Saperton and continued for the past two years with the brilliant young Russian pianist Nadia Reisenberg.

He has won the interest of some of the country's most noted musicians, among them being Rudolf Serkin and Madame Olga Samaroff-Stokowski.

Mr. Brockman will appear in concert in Greenville early in September before returning to Philadelphia to resume his studies. This winter he will also appear in Asheville in concert.

Mr. Brockman will be assisted by the Rev. Charles Jones who will sing two groups accompanied by Alvin Moore.

At Lyday Hospital

Patients reported at Lyday Memorial hospital on Wednesday were: Mrs. James Bumgarner and infant son, born Friday, August 11, Mrs. A. P. Nesbit and infant son, Inez Owen, Irene Davis, Jewell Reed, Homer Chappell, Ernest Henline, Earl Wyatt.

William Allison Was Buried Saturday Eve

William Marion Allison, 73, died last Friday morning, and was buried the following afternoon in Davidson River cemetery, following last rites at the home of his son, Allard Allison.

A farmer of the Penrose section for years, Mr. Allison was a member of the Enon Baptist church. He had been unable to do heavy farm work for several years before his death due to ill health.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Mae Gray of Penrose; and four sons, Allard, Milas, and Dewey of Brevard, and Wade Allison of Hazel Park, Mich. One sister, Mrs. Ella Campfield of Mooresboro, N. C. also survives.

The Rev. Carl Blythe had charge of the funeral service, and funeral arrangements were by Osborne-Simpson.

BAPTIST CHURCH TO MEET AT CATHEY'S

Annual Association in County Gathering At Boylston Last Week

Next session of the Transylvania Baptist association will be held with Cathey's Creek church on Wednesday and Thursday after the first Sunday in August, 1939, with the Rev. Lawrence Erwin scheduled to preach the introductory sermon.

The association closed its two-day session at Boylston church last Thursday afternoon, after hearing reports of committees and discussions on various phases of church work by leaders.

Speakers heard during the second day included the Rev. J. C. Pipes, regional missionary worker who spoke on the "Aged Ministers' Retirement Plan;" John Arch McMillan presented the cause of the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville; Miss Mary Currin brought a message on missionaries.

Don C. Young of Asheville, discussing a report on "Temperance and Moral," made a strong appeal for doing away with liquor, wines, and beer. Dr. O. T. Binkley, professor of Bible of Wake Forest college, gave a discussion on Christian education. M. O. Alexander of Forest City spoke on the Cooperative Program.

Among the visitors the second day were the Rev. J. C. Owen of Asheville; the Rev. J. R. Bowman of Roanoke; the Rev. Richard Moore, Severn, N. C.; the Rev. H. T. Davis, Salisbury, N. C.

Reports presented Thursday included: Aged Ministers' Retirement Plan, Rev. J. C. Pipes; W. M. U. Mrs. M. C. Shipman; Orphanages, E. Carl Allison; Christian Education, Miss Martha Kate Moore; Temperance and Public Morals, A. B. Galloway.

Dahlia Show Set For August 26 at Brevard

Brevard's annual dahlia show will be held at the Brevard College gymnasium Saturday, August 26, opening to visitors any time after noon. The show is sponsored by the Transylvania Dahlia club.

It is requested by the committee in charge that all exhibitors bring their entries between 8 and 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

First, second and third prizes will be awarded in each of the 12 sections according to the point system. A silver cup sweepstakes prize will be awarded the one winning most number of points in all sections.

A silver cup also will be awarded the exhibitor of the best dahlia in the show. Dr. G. B. Lynch has been winner of this cup the past two years. The cup will belong permanently to the same winner for three successive years. This entry is open only to Transylvania county growers.

John Ashworth is chairman of the dahlia show, and Mrs. Brown Carr is president of the club.

A. C. Sheldon, of Charlotte, expert dahlia grower, has been asked to judge this year's show.

Special Jr. Order Meet

A special meeting of the Junior Order has been called for Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the Junior hall. All members are requested to be present.

CHANGES ANNOUNCED IN COLLEGE FACULTY

Fall Term Begins September 19th—New Staff Members Announced

(By E. D. C. Brewer)

Several changes in the Brevard College staff for the college year opening September 19 have been announced by President E. J. Coltrane.

Mrs. Ethel M. Chapin Morgan, of Albemarle, will teach German and assist in the department of natural science. Mrs. Morgan has a master's degree from the University of North Carolina and has nearly completed the requirements for the doctor's degree in chemistry. For four years she was instructor in chemistry and mathematics at Asheville Teachers College.

Miss Harriett Killough, who for the past three years has been dietitian of the West Hall dining unit, has resigned to join the staff of High Point College. Miss Myra Binford, dietitian at Virginia Lodge, will be transferred to West Hall.

Miss Mae Freeman, who graduated from Brevard College in 1938 and attended Asheville Teachers College, has been selected to become dietitian at Virginia Lodge. Miss Freeman is the daughter of the Reverend H. C. Freeman, pastor of the McDowell charge in the Marion District. While she was at Asheville Teachers' college, Miss Freeman was student dietitian.

Haston Farley, graduate of Berea College, came to Brevard in June to take up duties as instructor in agriculture and superintendent of the farm. Mr. Farley is a native of Kentucky and succeeds Covert S. McCallum, who will be doing graduate work at State College.

A recent graduate of Westminster Choir College, John M. Hawkins, Marion, has been added to the staff as director of vocal music. During his last two years at Westminster, Mr. Hawkins was director of music in the First Presbyterian Church of Maywood, N. J. Miss Irene Clay will continue as head of the music department and instructor in piano.

Last Fishing Dates In Pisgah Forest Be Held Friday-Sunday

(By Ranger Service)

The ranger's office announces that Davidson River has been closed for the remainder of the season but that South Mills River will be opened on August 18th and August 20th. This opening is on the Lower South Mills River and the stream will be divided into three sections. Twenty fishermen will be permitted to fish from the Government boundary on the Lower South Mills River entrance, to the swinging bridge at Turkey Pen. Fifteen fishermen will be permitted to fish from the Turkey Pen swinging bridge to the Cantrell Lodge in section II and twenty fishermen will be permitted from Cantrell Creek to Wolf Ford or in Section III.

Checking stations will be as follows:

Section I. At the Coker and Fanning Hunting Club on Lower South Mills River.

At the Turkey Pen Guard Station one mile from the Henderson-Transylvania County line on Highway No. 280.

Section II. At Turkey Pen Guard Station.

Section III. At Turkey Pen Guard Station but fishermen to be permitted to enter the stream through Poplar Lick Gap.

The Forest Service and Bureau of Fisheries are attempting to promote good fishing by resting the stream on Saturday and opening it on Friday and Sunday, August 18th and 20th. We would appreciate any comments or suggestions on how this experimental fishing works out from the fishermen's points of view.

The final season's opened period will take place on Upper South Mills River on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 23rd, 24th and 25th.

Special Music Sunday At Methodist Church

"Why Not Try God?" is the sermon subject for the morning service at the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, the pastor, the Rev. E. P. Billups has announced. Mrs. Herbert Finck will sing, "The Lord is My Light," by Oley Speaks.

At the vesper service on the church lawn at 7:30 o'clock, an outdoor worship service will be held. The pastor will give a dramatic reading of Henry Van Dyke's poem, "God of the Open Air." This service was postponed from last Sunday because of rain.

Tour Through Pisgah Forest Being Arranged For Sunday

Second "Show Me" tour through Pisgah National Forest will be staged Sunday afternoon, with Chamber of Commerce officials, Pisgah Forest rangers, and CCC enrollees joining to make the trip interesting.

Visitors and home-folk alike are again invited to make the trip through the same preserve, over roads built by the forest service, the CCC, and state highway, and view the numerous points of interest which are not available on ordinary occasions.

The group will leave the Chamber of Commerce office on West Main street Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock sharp, go to Cathey's Creek and enter the forest road there. Turning right at Gloucester Gap, down the left prong of Davidson river headwaters to the fish rearing station, John's Rock CCC, up the "Headwaters" road via Looking Glass Rock, and to the fawn rearing station in time to witness the feeding of the more than 100 baby deer at 6 o'clock.

Brief stops will be made along the route, and forest officials will explain various phases of work going on in the forest.

The party will be escorted by forest rangers, and CCC boys will patrol the roads in order that there will be no auto parties traveling in opposite direction from that of the tour party.

John Smith and Mrs. Thelma Fisher are making up groups to make the trip, and those people who have cars are urged to take their own parties or notify Mr. Smith or Mrs. Fisher if they are willing to take a group.

Last trip saw 23 cars on the tour, and it is hoped that at least 50 cars will be able to go Sunday.

For the camera fans there are numerous fine shots to be taken on the trip. Those interested in forests will see reforestation work on a scientific basis, and for those interested in wildlife, possibility of seeing turkey, squirrels, deer, and possibly a bear, is excellent.

Leaving Brevard at 3 o'clock sharp, the trip of 35 miles may be made in three hours or less, and those who wish to go on to top of highway 284 to place where construction work on the Great Smoky Mountains Scenic Parkway is going forward may do so, after the party reaches the fawn plant.

Picnic tables have been arranged at Pink Beds camp ground for those who wish to carry supper, and those who wish to cook have also been prepared for at the Pink Beds camp ground where water and other facilities, are provided.

Hotel and boarding house keepers are requested to invite their guests on the trip, and visitors to the town may have someone to drive their cars if they will contact Mr. Smith or Mrs. Fisher. The roads to be traveled are all surfaced and are maintained by the forest service and CCC.

REUTER PLANS MANY IMPROVEMENTS SOON FOR CLOUGH ESTATE

New Owner Prominent In Business Circles—Interested In Good Livestock

I. J. Reuter of Biltmore Forest plans to continue operation of the Clough Farm "as a farm which I have longed and wished for all my life," according to new owner of the huge body of land surrounding Glen Canon Falls.

Mr. Reuter closed deal for the farm in the office of Lewis P. Hamlin here Thursday morning, and has already started on the improvement program.

The farm was purchased nearly two years ago by W. R. Smith of Marion, and has been improved considerably under Mr. Smith's ownership. Aside from the fact that the new owner plans to improve the pasture, remodel the tenant houses, and possibly do other improvements.

Asked as to whether he planned to make the Clough Farm his permanent home, Mr. Reuter said that he plans to build a cottage there immediately for his use, but that he was uncertain at this time in the matter of building a home. He owns a home in Biltmore Forest, said to have been bought by him a year or so ago at a price of $50,000.

Mr. Reuter is retired vice president of the General Motors Corporation, and stated that he plans to make North Carolina his home. He is interested in cattle and stock of the better type, and it is quite probable that he will improve the herds now on the farm immediately.

The farm contains 1,280 acres, with more than 300 acres of high grade bottom land, woodland, a 75-foot waterfall, and fine building stone as well. The place has been in the Clough family for many years.

Special Services At Selica Church Sunday

There will be a special service at Selica Methodist church Sunday night, August 20th. The pastor, Rev. J. R. Bowman, will bring a message to the young people of the church and community, and those who have just begun living the Christian life.

Anyone else who cares to attend is invited. The service will begin at 8 o'clock.

Battery F. Reunion Meets In Lenoir, 25th

Battery F. 118th Field Artillery, A.E.F., will hold its annual reunion at Lenoir, on August 25, according to notice here by Eck L. Sims, chairman of the program committee for the annual event.

The reunion will meet with Second Battalion, of the 89th Division, and it is probable that a combined reunion will be planned for the following year. Eugene Fink of Mooresville, is president of the Battery F. organization.

Tentative plans are to meet at 10 o'clock in the morning, with registration at the Community House, and a barbecue lunch at 12 noon.

Around 25 members of the battery are expected to go from Transylvania county, Mr. Sims said.

The 118th field artillery was commanded by Col. Albert L. Cox during the World War and played an active part in the St. Mihiel, Meuse-Argonne and Woivre sectors in France and with the army of occupation.

Maj. A. L. Bulwinkle was the wartime commander of the second battalion and plans to be present for the reunion. The battalion was originally recruited from Lenoir, Charlotte, Mooresville, Brevard and Wadesboro. About 150 war-time comrades have indicated their intention of attending the reunion, Major Crayton said.

Benefit Bridge Party Here Friday Evening

A benefit bridge party will be held at the NTA hut Friday evening of this week, beginning at 8 o'clock. The event is sponsored by the Women's Civic club for benefit of the club activities.

Valuable prizes have been donated by business firms and individuals, and will be awarded the winners following the games. Those who do not wish to play bridge are requested to bring their Chinese checker board or other games and make up their own table of players in advance, if desired. Refreshments will be served.

Garren Reunion Aug. 27

Annual Garren reunion will be held at the home of Tom Garren at Cathey's Creek on Sunday, August 27th. All relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend, and bring well filled dinner baskets.

Dahlia Club Meeting

A meeting of the dahlia club will be held in the office of F. E. Shuford Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Plans will be completed for the dahlia show to be held Saturday, August 26, and other matters of business will be discussed. It is urged that all members attend.