SON OF CAROLINA IS NEW BOOK BY LONG

Brevard Writer Author of Educational Stories About Famous Men

Durham-Vivid scenes and interesting personalities extending through an interesting lifetime as a newspaper man, college professor, and author are described by Augustus White Long, now living in Brevard in his autobiography, "Son of Carolina," just issued by the Duke university press.

Born in Chapel Hill during the civil Long attended the University of North Carolina and in 1885 went to Old Trinity college in Randolph county as professor of English. He later taught two years at Wofford, ten years at Lawrenceville school in New Jersey, and 14 years at Princeton university.

Long's autobiography is filled with incidents not only about well known North Carolinians, but other eminent Americans. He was brought into personal acquaintance with such men as Thomas Nelson Page, Woodrow Wilson, Grover Cleveland, and Henry van Dyke. His description of Van Dyke and of Woodrow Wilson at the time when the latter was president of Princeton university are among the high spots of the book.

His love for newspaper work is indi- Friday, 13th, Lucky cated in many sections of Long's book. # SEVERE DROUGHT IS AFFECTING STREAMS

Brevard Water Supply Holds Good Despite No Rain-fall for Weeks

Twelve days have gone by in Brevard without rainfall, according to records in the office of P. B. Price, official observer here, and reports from all sections of the county are to the effect that streams are extremely low. Only .3 of an inch rainfall has been ecorded in October, that on the first day of the month. During September the low record of 2.80 inches was recorded, with scarcely any rainfall after the 18th.

The Brevard water department reports adequate supply on the watershed, and no curtailment has been made necessary.

Predictions Wednesday by some of the older citizens were to the effect that rain was due within 48 hours, which will be welcome news to gardens as well as forest wardens who fear an outbreak of blazes despite the fact that leaves have just begun to fall, and the woodlands are not considered danger-

Osborne and Hogsed Injured In Airplane Crackup Last Sunday

Dr. Joe E. Osborne and Austin Hogsed of Rosman, were injured last Sunday afternoon when an airplane in which they were taking off from the airport near Asheville crashed.

Mr. Hogsed was seriously injured, suffering a dislocated knee, several ribs broken, and numerous cuts and bruises. He is in Biltmore hospital, Asheville.

the crash, was less severely injured, and was released from the hospital

Dr. Osborne and Mr. Hogsed flew from Rosman to the airport Sunday afternoon where they had the engine of their plane checked in endeavor to clear up a skip in the motor, according to attendants there. After the ground mechanic had given his o.k. to the motor the two men attempted to take off for the home flight.

However, the motor failed to function properly, and Dr. Osborne told local business houses or individuals who are friends who talked with him that he realized he could not get his plane into proper position for landing, and quested to leave their memberships swerved immediately to the landing either at the Chamber of Commerce or field in an attempt to set down there.

The motor went dead, Dr. Osborne said, and when about 30 feet off the ground, it side-slipped and crashed with ballots being mailed to paid mem-'Red" Stewart, Asheville electrician, bers. zie Matthew of Tennessee, and Mrs. the plane passed the airport hangar, licity material printed before Christsputtering as it took off, Brevard high school will play host to the Liberty, S. C., football eleven here Friday afternoon, with the game to be called at 3:30 on the high school grid.

Brevard has played three games this season, winning from Weaverville, and losing to Waynesville here; Mars Hill, there last Friday by a 15-0 score.

Coach Cox has shifted his lineup to include Carland, passer and fast back in the backfield to replace Allison who had to quit school. In addition, the line has been showing up exceptionally well this week during practice sessions, and the rushing of kickers and passers will be minimized Friday, according to the mentor.

New Jerseys have been secured for the Brevard squad, and this is also believed to be an added incentive to "get out and hustle."

Probable starting line-up Friday will be-R. Hilemon and R. Jackson, ends; Lance and D. Hamlin, tackles; Dixon and Miller, guards; C. Hamlin, center; Misenheimer, Carland, J. Hileman, and C. Wright, Liberty is expected to bring two full teams here Friday. Last Sat-urday the South Carolina team defeated Westminster high 19-0.

"The Great American Tragedy"

Public indifference to the destruction of our forest resources by fire is permitting an annual loss of over 34 million dollars in the South, according to a report compiled by State Foresters and the U. S. Forest Service. Only an aroused public opinion against careless and criminal burning of our forests can reduce this appalling loss.
