GRAND JURY SERVES IN DISTINCTIVE WAY

Judge Wilson Warlick Firm
Believer in Usefulness
Of Court Group

"The grand jury is a fine and useful institution," said Judge Wilson Warlick at the opening of the December term of Superior court here Monday, "and it does a great work in protecting the rights and privileges of all free men," the judge continued.

"The right and privilege of being a part of such a useful body as the grand jury of this or any court should be regarded by citizens such as you gentlemen as a distinct honor, and any citizen should be willing to forego some pleasures, and even be inconvenienced in business pursuits to serve on the grand or petit jury," Judge Warlick stressed.

"We people in North Carolina and the United States have lots to be thankful for," Judge Warlick said. "We are one of the few nations in the world in which men are free in the sense of the word as God intended men to be free, and because we have this great freedom which is upheld by the system of courts and government as they are operated in North Carolina and other states, all citizens should feel proud to be allowed to serve as jurors.

"You have a good country," Judge Warlick commented, "and your chances for progress are great—in fact, I can see vast progress in Transylvania county since the first time I came here to hold court five years ago, and your sturdy citizenship is to be commended for your progress," the jurist concluded.

Two Brevard Dairies On U.S. Health Honor Roll

Both Brevard dairies, the Sunnyside and the East View, have been graded within the past week, and both are rated Grade-A by the North Carolina board of health, and by the United States board of health.

Announcement from the Transylvania Health Department by Walter Hart, inspector, states that both the Brevard dairies are on the "honor roll" of the United States department of public health, among the very few dairies in this section of the state to attain such a rating and hold it over a period of two years.

In giving the statement for publication, Mr. Hart also gives a brief treatise on the value of pure milk such as furnished by the local dairies, as follows: Milk is our most important food. While good milk has done more than any other single item of food to obtain and maintain health, bad milk is perhaps responsible for more sickness than all other foods combined.

There are several reasons for this: Milk carries a greater variety of infections than any other food. Bacteria grow well in milk, therefore, a slight infection may produce wide-spread and serious results. Of all foodstuffs, milk is the most difficult to produce, handle, transport and deliver in a fresh, clean sanitary manner. It is the most readily decomposable of all of our foods. Finally, milk is the only standard article of diet obtained from animal source consumed in its raw state. In view of the many disadvantages and few drawbacks we recommend and encourage the use of pure milk, and discourage the distribution and use of poor milk.

Brevard Elementary School 100% Givers To Community Fund

Brevard elementary school has been added to the list contributing 100 percent to the New Community Hospital building fund during the week.

Three other schools, Brevard high, Rosman high, and Rosman elementary, had already made contributions from each child in school. It is expected that this week will see several other names placed on the list of 100 percent donors.

School children and school teachers throughout the county have unánimously gone into the work of raising funds for the hospital, and the goal set for schools will be reached, committee members believe, within the coming week.

WOMEN'S CIVIC CLUB IN ANNUAL ELECTION

Mrs. Oliver Orr Again Heads
Organization—Plans For Year Are Outlined

Annual election of officers was the business of main importance taken up at the December meeting of the Women's Civic club, held Monday afternoon in the club room.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Oliver Orr, president; Mrs. J. H. West, vice president; Mrs. Ralph Zachary, treasurer.

Prospects for a new community house for Brevard appeared brighter, as brought out in the discussions. The club decided to apply all back dues for 1939 on its contribution toward the community hospital fund, and a special drive will be made for collection of the dues.

The president read an invitation from the Euclid club to act as joint hostess at a benefit bridge, the proceeds of which will be used toward improvement of the recreation center. The following committee was appointed to serve in this capacity: Mrs. Lee M. Bauer, Mrs. Ralph Fisher, Mrs. David Ward, Mrs. C. L. Newland and Mrs. Tom Hampton, Jr.

The particular goals for next year were stressed to include community welfare work and city beautification. The flower show and two bridge parties were mentioned as outstanding undertakings of the club the past year.

Criminal Court Docket Now Practically Cleared of Cases

December term Superior court is expected to be through on Friday of this week, and the second week will not be held.

Sheriff George Shuford asked The Times to notify all second-week jurors that their services would not be needed next week.

Criminal docket was cleared up Wednesday, and was really cleared up from a carry-over or continued standpoint.

Only five criminal cases remain on the docket for the April term of court, due to the manner in which Judge Wilson Warlick conducted the court, and the co-operation from court officials.

All "called out" cases were cleared off the docket, and the few defendants who failed to appear during the first day either appeared the second or third day for trial.

Majority of the cases were submissions, or allowed the judge to hear the facts and pass sentence. Only one jury case was tried on the criminal docket—that of Tom Clayton of Rosman charged with driving a truck on the public highways while under influence of whiskey, and the jury rendered a verdict of not guilty.

Eighteen drunken driving cases were sent before the court by county, Brevard, Rosman, and state highway officers, and all but the case against Clayton were convictions—the most cases of this type ever to be tried in a Transylvania court, and the most convictions.

Altogether, the December criminal term was regarded by court attendants as being one of the smoothest ever held here.

Civil actions will be heard Thursday and Friday of this week, and the term will probably be adjourned during Friday.

In the only capital case—F. M. Whaley, charged with the death of F. Noble Simons last August 30—a plea

ED SPROUSE NAMED TO CONSTABLE POST

Commissioners Commend Officers for Arresting Intoxicated Drivers

J. E. Sprouse of Brevard was named constable of Brevard township at the meeting of the Transylvania board of commissioners Monday, replacing Luther Wood, who resigned several weeks ago.

Matters of tax collections took up major portion of the day with the commissioners, and Tax Collector Edwin Morgan was instructed to continue his efforts toward collection of current levy. Mr. Morgan reports that collections are good, but that he could use more every day.

A letter was written by the board to Highway Patrolman H. M. Morrow, commending him for the work he is doing in the county, and especially his zeal in ridding the roads of drunken driving.

Patrolman Morrow, county officers, and officers at Brevard and Rosman, have been making what might be termed "wholesale" arrests of drivers under influence of whiskey.

Fine Cooperation Is Shown In Seal Sales

Splendid cooperation is being received by clubs, schools and business concerns in the tuberculosis Christmas seal sale, sponsored by the Brevard P. T. A., which was started here last week. The campaign will continue until Christmas day. Mrs. C. E. Wilks is general chairman.

Seventy-five percent of the proceeds of all local sales will remain here to be used in the health work of the community.

President Roosevelt's endorsement of the Christmas seal campaign is as follows: "As the Christmas season approaches, my mind is drawn to the fact that it is again time for all of us to give our support to the sale of Christmas seals. This is such a well established custom in the United States that it seems hardly necessary again to call the attention of the people to its importance. Tuberculosis still menaces the lives of all our citizens and it leads in the cause of death of those between the ages of 15 and 45. The fine work that has been done by the National Tuberculosis association in the prevention of this dreaded disease merits the continued support of all the people of our country."

Firemen Seeking Old Toys For Children

Firemen of the Brevard department are anxious to secure discarded toys or broken toys of any type for use in their Christmas party for underprivileged children on Sunday, Dec. 24.

There will be 200 or more children at the party, the firemen state, and if toys may be received at this time, there will be ample time to repair and repaint them before the date of the party.

A workshop has been set up at the city hall where firemen are willing and eager to work on the job of reconditioning toys to give the young children whom Santa Claus would otherwise miss.

Plans are to have a real Santa Claus at the party for the children, and to have a "Santa Claus band" which the firemen say will be "direct from the North Pole Land."

of guilty was entered for involuntary manslaughter, and upon recommendation of Solicitor Ridings, the court accepted the plea.

Judge Warlick imposed a 12-month sentence on the public roads on Whaley, suspended for three years; deprived the defendant of his driving license in North and South Carolina, and recommended to the Florida highway patrol that his license there be revoked for 12 months.

Nine hundred dollars damage is to be paid to the widow of Mr. Simons, in monthly payments of $25 each through the clerk of court office, and the defendant was placed under $1,000 bond to insure his carrying out the court order. Whaley had already paid $110 on funeral expenses for the deceased.

Judge D. L. English and R. F. Thomas, who appeared for the defendant along with Attorney Stoney of Charleston, presented letters from a niece of the deceased, requesting that he be not punished in the case, and also a number of letters from residents of Florida and South Carolina testifying as to the character of Whaley.

Solicitor Ridings, in recommending the sentence to the court stated that there was doubt in his mind that a conviction of manslaughter could be made out. The solicitor said that he had examined witnesses in the case, and believed that acceptance of the proposal of the defense would meet the demands of the case.

Mr. Simons was struck by a car driven by Whaley last August 30, as the aged man was walking along Prohart Road, and died within a few minutes. At the inquest following the death, the defense offered evidence tending to show that the striking of the aged man was accidental, while other witnesses said that the man had been drinking heavily the night before and that he was in an intoxicated condition a short while before the accident.
