Of the 130 employes, each one pledged some amount, averaging $2.88 per employe, or a total of over $375.00.

This is the first of the larger concerns where the employes and the employers have joined in the movement to make the community hospital a reality.

Total amount raised by the employes of the Wheeler plant will be matched by management of the company, according to statement made by A. W. and George Wheeler, and this additional sum from the plant management will make the Wheeler concern total $750.00
