OAKLAND NEWS

Mrs. Bezie Nicholson, who is nearly 75 years old and has never had the measles, was recently exposed to a case. She has left her home here for the time being to be with her daughter, Mrs. N. S. Galloway, at Rosman, to be near a doctor in case she should need one. Grady Nicholson, Jr. is now in bed with measles at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Roxie Dunn, at Selma.

Lee and Fred Nicholson, of Rosman, were here Saturday night for a visit with their mother, Mrs. Maggie Nicholson.

Mrs. Lee R. Fisher, of Rosman, and Mrs. Spencer Welborn and daughter, Rhoda Ann, spent Friday night here with the former's son, Frank, and family.

Mrs. Charlotte Rigdon has returned home after spending some time at Wolf Mountain with her son, Ralph, and visiting other relatives in that section.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Noland, of Asheville, were recent visitors of the latter's mother, Mrs. S. E. Alexander. Other recent visitors of Mrs. Alexander were Mrs. Lee R. Fisher, of Rosman, Mrs. Spencer Welborn, of Cycle, and Mrs. Lee Norton.

Nell Burgess was in Rosman Friday on business.

Miss Alberta Burgess was a Brevard visitor Friday afternoon.

Recent visitors of Mrs. Lee Norton were Mr. and Mrs. D. Grimshawe, of Brevard, Mrs. Spencer Welborn and daughter, Miss Rhoda Ann, of Cycle, Mrs. T. P. Galloway Jr., of Calvert, and Mrs. Jack Fisher, of Rosman.

Rev. and Mrs. Roland Robinson had as guests Sunday their son, Berry Robinson, and family, of Tryon.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Taylor and daughters, Sybil Jo and Nannie Sue, of Enka, spent the week-end here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Sanders.

Ray Sanders had the misfortune of getting a fingernail mashed last week while handling steel on his job.

Berskie Ruff visited friends here Sunday.

Miss Velma Wilson spent Sunday afternoon at Boheny with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Mrs. I. S. Sanders and sons, Lane and Cecil, and Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Taylor and daughters visited Mrs. S. L. Sanders and son Lensey at Lake Toxaway Sunday.

Mrs. E. D. Reid visited Mrs. Maggie Nicholson Monday.

Mrs. Floyd King and son Max spent Monday at Lake Toxaway with relatives.

Mrs. Fred Nicholson, of Rosman, is here for a few days visit with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Maggie Nicholson.

Grady Nicholson was able to be out on his job Monday for the first time since his illness with measles. The crew of WPA workers are doing some nice work on the banks of the highway in this section. They are so smooth it is almost equal to frozen snow and makes a nice place for little boys to slide down, though it is rather hard on the seat of their overalls.

Girl—I maintain that love-making is just the same as it always was. Her Sweetheart—How do you know? Girl—I just read about a Greek maiden who sat and listened to a lyre all evening.

Mrs. Emma Aiken Laid To Rest Near Brevard

GREENVILLE, S. C.—Mrs. Emma Henderson Aiken, 79, died Wednesday night of last week at 9:30 o'clock at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jimmie Harkins, near Easley where she was visiting. She died suddenly although she had been in failing health for some time.

Mrs. Aiken was born and reared in Transylvania county, N. C., a daughter of the late Ben Henderson and Jane Patton Henderson. She had spent the greater part of her life in Brevard, where she was well known. For the past five years she had been living with her children.

Her husband was William H. Aiken, a Confederate veteran, who died in 1933.

She was a member of the Brevard Baptist church.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. E. C. Cooper and Mrs. P. W. Atkinson of Greenville; three sons, N. R. Aiken and W. W. Aiken, of Greenville, and H. P. Aiken of Greensboro, N. C., in addition to 20 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Harkins; four brothers, Willie Henderson, Asheville, N. C.; R. L. Henderson, Pickens; F. Henderson, Brevard, and W. B. Henderson, Greenville.

Funeral services were held from the chapel of the Thomas McAfee Funeral home Friday morning at 10 o'clock, the Rev. L. H. Miller officiating. Interment was made in Cathey's Creek Baptist church cemetery at Brevard.
