P.T.A. MEETING

The election of officers was one of the main features of the April meeting of the Rosman Parent-Teacher association which met Tuesday afternoon, April 2, in the high school auditorium. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. William Bailey; vice president, Mrs. E. H. Davis; secretary, Mrs. D. H. Parsons; treasurer, Miss Ophelia White; Mrs. Tom Stroup, chairman of the publicity committee; Miss Geneva Paxton, chairman of the program committee; Mrs. Joe Osborne, chairman of the membership committee; Mrs. H. G. Stoppel, chairman of the hospitality committee. They were also installed at the meeting.

The following program was given: Songs, "America," by group, prayer, Rev. Underwood; a short play, "Peggy" by the members of the ninth grade class.

The P.T.A. voted to take part in the cancer drive which is to be sponsored this month in Transylvania county. Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. Parson are chairmen for this committee. Prof. Tilson reported on the accomplishments of the Rosman P.T.A. Some of the major accomplishments are the purchase of two sets of encyclopedias, playground equipment valued at $35, and equipment for the school lunch room valued at approximately $50, and the purchase of shrubbery for the school grounds.

Mrs. Van Wrenn's third grade won the large picture for attendance. The organization voted to spend the rest of the money in the treasury to buy books for the elementary school library.

After the meeting adjourned the group enjoyed refreshments in the home economics room.

AGRICULTURE PROGRAM

The ninth grade agriculture boys gave a splendid program on Friday. Glenn Winchester.

CHAPEL PROGRAM

The high school met Thursday morning of last week for the regular assembly program. The following program was given:

"Loves Old Sweet Song," was sung by the school. The ninth grade gave a one act play entitled "Peggy".

The program was enjoyed by everyone. The play was given to the elementary school Friday morning. Annie Banther.

FARM MEETING

A program was given at the Rosman auditorium Friday, April 5, at 8:00 p. m. The program opened with a song by the FFA string band, followed by a prayer by Mr. Roberts. The string band played several songs, then a short speech was made by Mr. Max Roberts, discussing some of the work of the FFA.

Mr. Roberts made an interesting talk on poultry. Motion pictures were shown to illustrate this line of work, and work which is carried on by the FFA. The Lord's Acre movement was shown, showing their little village picnics and their church gatherings.

The FFA string band and others that gave the program were from Bryson City.

The program was very interesting and a large crowd attended. Marriah Stewart.

WINNERS IN THE POSTER CONTEST

A great deal of interest was shown in the making of posters for the senior play. The posters were judged by the student body Thursday.

The following students were winners in the contest: Violet McCall won the first prize of fifty cents; Donna Ruth Galloway won the second prize of twenty-five cents, and Glen Winchester won the third prize which was a free ticket to the senior play.

The judging was hard to do due to the fact that there were so many good posters. Credit must be given to the makers of all the posters for their good work and their interest shown in the contest.

Helen Whitmire.

SENIOR CLASS TO PRESENT PLAY

The senior class of Rosman high school will present Frances Huntley's rollicking comedy entitled "Bachelor's Choice," in the high school auditorium Thursday, April 11, at 8 p. m.

The cast of characters is as follows: Mrs. Conway, the mother who is determined to have a singer in the family, Louise Osteen; Nancy Conway, the younger daughter who hits upon ordering a man as a way out of difficulty, Lurleene Lusk; Alice Conway, the older daughter who was the bachelor's first choice, Ruth Rice; Joe Conway, the kid brother, Robert Whitmire; Henry Conway, Mrs. Conway's brother-in-law, Rastus Smith; Aunt Jane Conway, the very brusque old lady, Sylvia Huggins; Jim Bachelor, the bachelor, Powell Boley; Mrs. Chipley, Thelma's mother, Elizabeth Sisk; Thelma Chipley, Nancy's rival in the radio singing contest, Gladys Clark; Lord Lovett, the ordered man, Lawrence Fisher; Barbara Dale, the fiancée of Henry Conway, Lucy Hall.

Others connected with the play are: stage managers, Rea Gillespie, Velma Wilson, Edward Gillespie and Truman Henderson; chairman of publicity, Violet McCall; chairman of costumes, Lula Cassell; prompter, Ruby Greene; business manager, Margaret Ponder. The ushers are: Myrtle Fisher, Veardeary Fisher, LeVonne Nicholson, Marie Wilde, Essie Conner, Geneva Beddingfield, Gladys Owen, Louise Chastain, Ella Mae Whitmire and Dona Mae Smith.

Be sure and get your tickets in advance from Mr. Thomas or one of the students selling tickets, and prepare for one of the real treats of a lifetime.

Violet McCall.

EIGHTH GRADE PROGRAM

The eighth grade class of the Rosman chapter of Future Farmers of America gave a very good program on Friday in their classroom. Glen Winchester.

ELEMENTARY STUDENTS PATROL

At the request of the AAA the Rosman elementary school now has a student patrol. This patrol is made up of members of the seventh grade directed by Mr. Ponder.

Every morning, noon and after school three seventh grade students stand at the corner and other dangerous points and help the smaller children across the highway. With spring and the traffic that spring naturally brings, we hope many accidents will be avoided due to these students. The students on duty may be distinguished from the other children by their white belt and strap.

Margaret Ponder.

SENIOR SUPERLATIVES

The junior class met Friday morning to elect the following superlatives for the senior class: Prettiest girl, Essie Conner; most handsome boy, Robert Whitmire; best sports, Elizabeth Sisk and Robert Whitmire; most athletic, Louise Osteen and Edward Gillespie; best all-around, Ruby Green and Lawrence Fisher; best personality, Lurleene Lusk; most studious, Margaret Ponder; most intelligent, Lucy Hall; neatest girl, Ruth Rice; class baby, Essie Conner; most conceited, Powell Boley; most humorous, Sylvia Huggins; woman-hater, Truman Henderson; man-hater, Reba Gillespie; most original, Reba Gillespie; best dressed girl, Ruth Rice; biggest giggler, Velma Wilson; girl with prettiest smile, Margaret Ponder; cutest girl, Essie Conner; most unselfish, Gladys Clark; most courteous, Verona Fisher; most dependable, Margaret Ponder; most attractive, Ruth Rice.

Most likely to succeed, Margaret Ponder; class flapper, Ruby Greene; biggest mouth, Geneva Beddingfield; class tomboy, Elizabeth Sisk; silliest boy, Powell Boley; biggest feet, Rastus Smith; most bashful, Truman Henderson; quietest, Louise Chastain; laziest, Joe Breedlove; most musical, Ella Mae Whitmire; most artistic, Reba Gillespie; most romantic, Reba Price; and most dramatic, Dona Mae Smith; teacher's pet, Powell Boley.

Edna Allison.

MR. AND MRS. LUNSFORD ATTEND FOLK LORE PROGRAM

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Lunsford, Jr., left Wednesday afternoon for Pittsburgh, Penn., where they attended the Folk Lore program Friday night, April 5.

The program was by the Southern Appalachians at the Hall of Music, Carnegie University in Pittsburgh.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Lunsford appeared on the program Friday night. They returned home Sunday and reported an enjoyable trip. Elizabeth Sisk.

LIBRARY BULLETIN BOARD

If a student gets tired of sitting or studying in study hall there are several things he can do such as, go to the trashcan, sharpen his pencil, get permission to walk over and speak to his friend and several other things. But the most beneficial thing to do while reading is to look at the attractive pictures and articles of interest on the bulletin board in the library.

Our librarian, Miss Volrath, changes the things on the board every week in order to make it more noticeable.

This week, on the board, there is a chart showing the route of the Blue Ridge Parkway. There is also a list of books to read during the month of April, a list of the names of prominent men whose birthday comes in April and also a large picture of a spring flower garden.

We hope to keep the bulletin board in first-class condition for the remainder of the school year. Gladys Clarke

FIFTH GRADE CHAPEL PROGRAM

Miss Orr's and Miss Freeman's fifth grades gave a chapel program Tuesday. The program was greatly enjoyed by the audience. Margaret Ponder.

SENIOR HOME ROOM PROGRAM

Reba Price was in charge of the senior home room program Friday. Louise Osteen was in charge of the devotionals. Following this Verona Fisher read some very good riddles. The last item on the program was a song by the class. The program was very enjoyable. Ruth Rice will be in charge of the program next Wednesday. Lurleene Lusk.

BASEBALL PRACTICE BEGINS

It is a sure sign that spring is in the air when one sees the boys at RHS slinging a ball high into the air to be caught by a fellow sportsman perhaps a half mile away (not exaggerating either). Just watch G. Summery or R. Lee if you doubt my word, which you are quite sure to do. According to all reports they are "up on their business" when it comes to pitching.

R. Israel has proved to be quite a find. He holds his own at catching.

It is still a question of who shall take his place as short stop—Sanders or D. Edens. Nevertheless, we find no wrinkles in anyone's brow about this yet. Anyway one will take his place as short stop the other as third baseman.

B. McNeely steps out and takes his place as first baseman. Lady Luck must take a hand if one reaches first base with Bill stationed there.

As yet it is undecided just who will be second baseman. The possibilities look bright, though.

Behold! another sports lover who knows his way about the field, T. C. McCall will be right fielder for the never losing boys from Rosman.

And, though the junior class surely must think him quite a conceited slayer from the way the senior superlatives turned out to be, Powell Boley will hold his own as center fielder.

Waldrop will act as left fielder. Fine playing is also expected of him.

Mr. Carter met on the ball field with the boys the latter part of last week and organized the teams.

The school has secured several new ball bats which Mr. Case's N.Y.A. boys at Brevard made. More equipment has been ordered and will arrive soon.

Several games have been scheduled with different schools in the near future.

Just watch the sports articles and see how well our expectations turn out!

Louise Osteen.

SENSE AND NONSENSE

"Bachelor's Choice," deign to hear; Bend to me a listening ear, as we say great words of praise, and in this our voices raise. You should have seen our works around when first this play we found. We hope to win great fame, and great honor be attached, to our name.

As the days pass swiftly by, and from fatigue the cast does sign, nothing shall dim our loyalty, dear "Bachelor's Choice," teachers students to thee.

You really must not miss "Bachelor's Choice" to be given on Thursday night.

Lane S. seems to be quite an accomplished pianist. It isn't raining daffodils, but it is raining from daffodils, eh, Mr. Carter? Don't say anything, Elizabeth when you see your French grade next month. Never, never, fill a daffodil with water and ask someone to smell of its fragrance. Ruby, you shouldn't blush so much, Maybe Mr. Thomas wasn't referring to you and Powell. Did you notice how excited all the cast of the senior play was Monday. It must have been due to their pictures. Gee but Reba G. was certainly dressed up Monday. I wonder why.

Marriah S. can't seem to decide whether it's going to be Johnnie or Ira S. Anyway, Marriah I believe Johnny would like that bill fold for a birthday present.

Did you notice all the clothes that Sylvia brought to school Monday? Oh, I see they were for the senior play.

Robert W. certainly looked "down in the dumps" Monday. I just wonder if Ruth's absence had anything to do with it. Louise O. certainly looks forward to 12:15 each day. Information please. Sid really likes to ride in a V-8, wonder if David could

High School Wins Over Henderson Hi

Brevard high school baseball squad decisively trimmed the Hendersonville high aggregation here last Thursday afternoon by the shutout score of 4-0.

Brevard tallied in the second, third, sixth and seventh frames, while Hendersonville runners died on third base in the fifth and sixth innings, their only threats to score.

Jackson did a creditable job on the mound for the Co-coached nine, and slammed out two singles in four tries to lead his teammates in hitting. Hendersonville 000 000 000—072 have anything to do with it. It's queer that Sylvia and Louise don't want a ticket to the play. Come on boys let's boost up about the ticket sale.

Glenn S. did you see Mr. Tilson making out a chemistry test in study hall. That means you had better study some.

Powell B. thinks there was a frame-up about the senior superlatives.

Glenn W. has expressed a sudden desire to learn to play the piano.

Well if what we had Monday were April showers, I'll be glad when they are over.
