

Transylvanians Speak

By Inquiring Reporter

QUESTION: What would you suggest as the first step the Junior Chamber of Commerce here should take in the promotion of Brevard and Transylvania County?

R. H. PLUMMER—"The primary function should be, I think, to provide entertainment for the tourists."

POSTMASTER COLEMAN GALLOWAY—"They might aid materially in the dedication exercises of the new Post Office building which will be some time in May."

MRS. H. L. HASWELL—"If this new organization of young people could do something about providing adequate housing facilities for all the people who will be moving to Brevard when the new Ecusta unit begins operation, I think they will have performed a major task."

JERRY JEROME—"Arrange a nice entertainment program for the summer tourists."

LOYD O. HUGHES—"Some means ought to be devised to get newcomers to Brevard orientated to the town and community. I think this is one step the Junior Chamber of Commerce should take into consideration."

DONALD JENKINS—"Have a program of entertainment for the summer visitors."

PAUL SMATHERS—"They could well devote their efforts to securing and developing of amusement and recreation facilities."

DR. C. L. NEWLAND—"I strongly favor such an organization, as it increases local spirit, and hope they will be constantly on guard to assist other local organizations, such as churches,

Penrose School To Hold Open House

An "At Home" will be held at the Penrose school on Wednesday, April 16, at 1 o'clock, to which the public is invited.

Many pupils are taking the typhoid vaccination given at the school each Thursday morning.

Maureen Burnette made the highest average on the seventh grade tests given last Monday morning.

The perfect attendance roll for the seventh month is as follows: Jessie Phillips, Ellis Parker, Nora Lee Rogers, Louise Ashe, Jimmy Brown, Eddie Cox, J. D. Phillips, Geraldine Ray, Johnnie Landreth, Martha Parker, Jack Talley, Rosa Lee Hall, Margaret Phillips, Grace Surret, Virginia Surret, Cecil Rogers, Claudia Cox, William Parker, Mildred McClure, Betty Jo Wilson, Richard schools, hospital, etc. It might be well also if they could promote better sanitation and cleanliness for the town and county."

R. H. RAMSEY—"One of the most valuable projects that the Junior Chamber of Commerce could undertake for the coming season would be to plan and carry out a full program of entertainment for summer visitors."
