 NEW GAME
 The students now have the advantage of playing "Dartboard Baseball" here. It is a game which involves the use of darts. A board is painted so that different areas represent strikes, outs, etc. A dart is thrown from a given distance and if it hits in a spot marked out he is out and someone else tries his luck.
 —W. B. Head

ELEMENTARY CHAPEL PROGRAM
 The elementary chapel program given last Friday by Mrs. Morgan's second grade consisted of an Easter play and several smaller events. The play was entitled, "The Easter Bunny."

 —W. B. Head

R O S M S —
 JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION
 The annual junior-senior reception will be given April 17. The motif this year is an old fashioned garden. The banquet hall will be decorated with an old well with an oaken bucket covered with ivy or rose vines, surrounded by wisteria, dogwood and honeysuckle flowers. Mrs. Hamed and the junior class are in charge of the entertainment and Mrs. Hamed's home economics girls will prepare and serve the food. The girls who serve will be dressed in old fashioned costumes.
 —Martha Lee McCall

R O S M S —
 HOME ROOM TALK
 Arthur Waldrop, a member of the senior class of Rosman high school, gave an interesting talk in the home room on Wednesday of this week. Arthur chose as his topic, "The History of Marriage." Many interesting points were brought out in his talk.
 Glenn Winchester will give a talk in the next home room program.
 —Jeyell Garren

R O S M S —
 CLASS COLORS AND MASCOTS CHOSEN
 The senior class selected Paulette Glazener, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Glazener, of Calvert, and Lester Winchester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Winchester, also of Calvert, for their mascots this year.
 The class colors have also been chosen—they are lavender and white. The class flower is lilac.
 —Annie Banther

R O S M S — P. T. A. MEETING
 The Rosman P. T. A. held its last meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon in the high school auditorium. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. E. H. Davis; vice president, Mrs. J. R. Bowman; secretary, Mrs. J. B. Rogers; treasurer, Mrs. Harry Morgan.

 SENSE AND NONSENSE
 So Grace enjoyed the play, did she? No wonder—Look who she was sitting by.
 Blanche O. why did you run off and leave Roma at church. But we hear that Huey B. needed some company, too. Eh Roma.
 "Gone with the wind." What a famous quotation. How about it Arnold and Louise?? We know you saw it. Betty B. don't worry, read, Brandon doesn't believe everything he hears.
 "Jim" did you have company Sunday?? And who was it may we ask?
 Runt why were you so happy Monday morning? Could a certain visitor have had anything to do with it??
 Poor Jesse has the measles—and say Glenn S. seems rather down in the dumps.
 Too bad Aileen B. wasn't home Sunday Glenn W. But "There'll Come a Time Someday" when she will be—we hope.
 Why is T. C. M. so interested in Rosman?? Reporters lets hear from you.
 Bertha P. seems to like the high school building a lot. Could Donald M. know the reason?
 "Windy" has a new nickname. "Shorty" A. B. happens to have the same one.
 Lucille had a good time Sunday and Grace M. was along I believe.
 Millie is rather down-hearted since Ernest left for the camps. Roma you're awfully small—but is it so that you had a boy-friend at church Monday night?
 Too bad you haven't had measles Evon. If you had you could go to see Tony.
 Blanche those S. C. boys come to Quebec not to Toxaway—So why worry?
 "Cricket" hurry and make your mind up. Who is your boy friend, Lige P. or Lightening R?
 That's all readers, yes it is all—and there is no more for this time but I'll tella ye—we'll be seeing ye—and it won't be long. So long everybody.
 "Runtie Bee"

Transylvanians Speak By Inquiring Reporter

QUESTION—What feature or section of The Transylvania Times do you like the best?

MRS. B. D. FRANKLIN—"I believe I turn to the Transylvanians Speak section the first thing, then I like to read the personal items."
 FRANK McINTOSH—"I read the advertisements first."
 CHARLES MOORE—"I like to read the want ads."
 MRS. V. H. GALLOWAY—"I read the want ads first, then the personals."
 PAT PATTERSON—"I think I turn to Doug's Squibs and Squawks first."
 S. P. VERNER—"Strange as it may seem, I always read the Society section first."
 P. A. RAHN—"I read the front page first, then the editorials."
 R. B. DAVENPORT—"I like the way the paper carries up-to-date news of local interest, and not fill it up with so much outside matter that we already know about from the daily papers and radio."
 ALVIN MOORE—"I always enjoy reading the Glancing Back column, and then I read the editorials."
 JOHN WALKER—"Being a Brevard boy away at college, I look on the weekly coming of the paper as a letter from home, and in fact I get it oftener than I do a letter from homefolks."
 MISS ANNIE JEAN GASH—"I look first for the reports of the organizations with which I am connected."
 MRS. CORA DEAN—"I read the local and personal items first, because I like to keep up with the comings and goings of people."
 REV. J. R. BOWMAN—"I naturally turn to the Rosman news first, then I read the editorials."
 COY FISHER—"All sections of the paper are good, and cannot be beat."
 MRS. W. L. HARMON—"I like to read the Squibs and Squawks by Mr. Douglas."
 JACK FISHER—"The Rosman news naturally comes first in my interest."
 JAMES NELSON—"Of course I like to read the Rosman news section first."
 CLAUD GLAZENER—"I turn to the Rosman section first as of chief interest in the paper."
