

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

A Newspaper Devoted to the Best Interest of the People of Transylvania County

Vol. 52: No. 19

BREVARD, NORTH CAROLINA,

THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1942

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

Rites Held Wednesday At 4:30 For Sergeant Albert T. Kilpatrick, Accident Victim

Was Instantly Killed In Car INDIVIDUAL'S PART Accident Near Edge-field, S. C., Monday

WAS AT CAMP GORDON

Funeral service was held Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Brevard Methodist church for Sergeant Albert T. Kilpatrick, 32, who was killed in an automobile accident near Edgefield, S. C., last Monday morning. The Rev. E. P. Billups, pastor, officiated. Interment was in the Gillespie cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Harry Clayton, A. B. Owen, Harold Nelson, Curt Wright, George Nicholson, and Ralph Morris.

Flower girls were Mrs. Curt Wright, Mrs. Allison Orr, Mrs. George Nicholson, Mrs. Joe McJunkin, Mrs. Harold Nelson, Mrs. Willie Nelson, Mrs. Rube Morgan, Mrs. Ralph Morris, Marie Galloway, Nelle Miller, and Molly McCall.

Sergeant Kilpatrick, who was stationed at Camp Gordon, near Augusta, Ga., and Albert M. Aiken, of Asheville, were killed when the car in which they were riding struck a bridge abutment near Edgefield about 5:30 Monday morning. The youths were returning to camp after spending the week end visiting relatives here and at Asheville. He was a cousin of Sergeant Kilpatrick. Surviving Sergeant Kilpatrick are the father, D. P. Kilpatrick, of Brevard; two sisters, Mrs. S. T. Usry, of Brevard, and Mrs. Will Moore, of Farmville; one brother, Karl, of Brevard.

Moore-Trantham were in charge of arrangements.

JONES IS HONORED John Paul Jones, of Wake Forest College, has recently been accepted into Gamma Sigma Epsilon, national honorary chemical fraternity, entrance in which depends, to a great extent, on scholastic average, not only in chemistry, but in other courses as well.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones, of Brevard.

GAS RATIONING TO

Registration For Motorists To Be Carried Out At County Schools

Registration for the rationing of gasoline will begin in Transylvania county on Friday, May 15, according to announcement by the county rationing board. The rationing plans are in accordance with measures adopted by WPB in a tier of Southeastern states to correctly distribute diminishing supplies of

Although no exact weekly gallonage per motorist could be cited by the rationing board, it is expected that the average motorist will be limited to not more than 5 gallons per week. Provisions will be made for necessary vehicles, and trucks operating for the transportation of products will not be rationed.

J. B. Jones, county schools sup erintendent, said registration for gasoline rationing will be conduct ed at the elementary schools in the county, similar to the registration for sugar now being carried

Complete details will be available next week, the rationing board

BOARD ANNOUNCES MAY TIRE QUOTA

Twenty-Seven New Car And Truck Tires Altowed For Month Of May

Transylvania county motorists have been granted a quota of five new passenger car tires and 22 new truck tires for the month of May, according to Randall W. Everett, chairman of the county rationing board. The recap quota is for 22 passenger car tires and 43 truck tires, he said.

New tubes allotted for the month of May include 20 for passenger cars and 32 for trucks.

So far in the tire rationing program, allotments for the county have been sufficient to take care of the eligible applicants, it was pointed out.

IN WAR EFFORT IS URGED BY RAMSEY

Citizen - Times Manager Warns Against Too Much Lethargy By Citizens

OTHERS ON PROGRAM

D. Hiden Ramsey, general man ager of the Asheville Citizen-Times company, told a group of Transylvania citizens gathered Tuesday evening at the Brevard high school auditorium for a patriotic rally that every individual American must play a definite part in the current war if we are to win it. He stressed the part of the individual in the war, and pointed out two dis-

E. H. McMahan, chairman of the Transylvania war savings staff, reported late Wednesday that the pledge-signing campaign being carried out here this week is well under way. He said canvassers are reporting splendid cooperation in the pledge ef-

Every wage earner in the county is being contacted this week, and canvassers hope to complete the campaign this week end, Mr. McMahan said.

tinct ways which the average citizen may aid-the buying of war bonds and stamps and enrolling in civilian defense courses. The rally, jointly sponsored by the war bond campaign committee and the civilian defense council, launched the pledge-signing campaign in the Commenting upon the apparent lethargy of Americans, Mr. Ramsey continued by saying: "Americans have lived so easily and so safely, it is hard for us to realize Precinct Meetings To Be the danger we are now facing." It is entirely possible for us to lose START ON MAY 15 this war, he said, and already we have suffered more reverses than said, and already we have been suffered by American armies in the history of the re-

CONFINE DOGS!

Alex H. Kizer, city clerk, has issued a notice, warning all dog owners that dogs are not allowed to run about town loose during the months of May, June and July, under the rules of an ordinance passed in previous years by the board of aldermen.

The ordinance provides that during the months of May, June, and July of every year, the owners of all dogs in the town of Brevard shall keep them confined, except that dogs which have been properly vaccinated for rabies may be allowed in public if muzzled.

Persons violating the ordinance are guilty of a misdemeanor and are subject to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars.

AT COLLEGE MAY DAY PROGRAM

This picture was made during the annual May Day program at Brevard college last Saturday afternoon when Miss Jean Bennett was crowned Queen of the May. Shown, left to right, are Freddie Harrison, crown bearer; Douglas Wyatt, court herald; Russell Lawson, attendant to the Prince; Marshall Curtis, Prince Charming; Jean Bennett, May Queen; Marceline Peck, maid of honor; Martha Mc-Crary, flower girl; and Arthur Green, Jr., court herald. (Times staff photo)

County Board Ban Beer, Wine Sales

The Transylvania county board of commissioners, in regular meeting here Monday, enacted an ordinance which would prohibit the sale of beer and wine throughout the county between the hours of 12:01 a. m. and 1:00 p. m. on Sundays. A similar ordinance was enacted by the Brevard board of aldermen last month, to apply to the town of Brevard.

The ordinance adopted by the county commissioners was presented by W. W. Brittain, seconded by John L. Wilson, and was unanimously passed by the board.

The ordinance becomes effective immediately, it was announced.

Held At Voting Places Saturday

The Domecratic precinct meetings will be held in each precinct agent. in Transylvania county on Saturday, May 9, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the voting places for the purpose of electing the Democratic executive committee for each precinct and for the purpose of electing delegates to the County convention, according to Ralph H. Ramsey, Jr., county chairman.

The Transylvania County Democratic county convention will be held on Saturday, May 16, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the courthouse in Brevard, for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Democratic convention.

All Democrats in Transylvania county are invited and urged to attend and take part in these meet-

AT THE HOSPITAL

Louise Bryson, Geneva Beddingfield, Fannie Chastain, Ressie Chap-Ball, Mrs. G. A. Schulze and infant

TAR HEEL FRONT IN WASHINGTON

Haywood Man Watches Advertising

By Robert A. Erwin and Frances McKusick (Staff Correspondents)

WASHINGTON. - Prominent | ticed law in Greensboro. He first distinguished themselves in Government service here is Garland S. "Dick" Ferguson, native of Wayer than any other person . Mr. Fer. mission in 1927. guson was appointed a Democratic

Mr. Ferguson received his legal N. W. training at the University of North Carolina, and for many years pracamong Tar Heel natives who have came to Washington during the last World War as assistant general counsel for the Newport News Shipbuilding Company, returning to the nesville and former Greensboro at state shortly after the war to torney, who has held the post of Greensboro, where he stayed until Federal Trade Commissioner long. his appointment to the Trade Com. Revival Services On

A grave, rather dignified man, member of the Trade Commission Mr. Ferguson impresses one as Street and Pennsylvania Avenue,

"I think I have the best location

Mrs. Kilpatrick Dies Suddenly

Mrs. R. P. Kilpatrick, 69, member of one of Transylvania county's best known families, died Wednesday afternoon in Biltmore hospital, Asheville, where she had been for the past several days. She had been in declining health for some time.

Funeral service will be held Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the First Baptist church in Brevard, conducted by the pastor, Rev. B. W. Thomason. Interment will be in Gillespie

Survivors include the hushand, R. P. Kilpatrick; two daughters, Mrs Dan Merrill and Mrs. Larry Beck, of Brevard; three sons, Robert, Edward and Harold Kilpatrick of

CONTEST FOR 4-H'ERS SET

A 4-H county health contest will $100.00. be held in Transylvania on Mon- Mrs. O. H. Orr, president, presidday, May 11, at the county health ed over the meeting. office in Brevard, according to Joe

Two winners will be selected at the county contest, a girl and a boy, and they will compete in the district health contest to be held in Asheville on Monday, May 25.

It is expected that a large num ber of entrants will compete in the local contest.

NEW PASTEURIZING PLANT OPERATING

Plant of Transylvania Dairies Will Have Formal Opening Soon

The new pasteurizing plant of the Transylvania Dairies is now in operation, according to announcement by T. R. Parrish, plant manager, and formal opening will be held in the near future. The pell, Juanita Osteen, Mrs. W. M. plant is located on a lot just opposite the Brevard college campus and the public is cordially invited to come down to inspect it any time. In connection with the opening of the pasteurizing plant by Transylvania Dairies, a new market is offered farmers in the county. The plant will utilize grade A raw milk and expects to purchase it in large quantities from farmers in all sections of the county. A number of farmers have already carried out improvements to meet the grade A specifications, it was stated. New and modern equipmnet has been installed in the pasteurizing plant. The Transylvania Dairies will and deliveries of pasteurized milk are made daily.

member of the Trade Commission by President Roosevelt twice since that time and has held the chairmanship three stimes. At present he is vice-chairman and under the rotation system will become chairman for the fourth time next Jan- fice in the Apex Building at Sixth leave and in the commission being a person impresses one as being a person in whom great responsibilities can be placed. Yet nouncement has been made by the pastor, Rev. S. F. McAuley, who is doing the preaching. Services are held each morning at lime as materials will become available for proceeding with original building expansion to invest the proporties. Decision to invest the proporties. Decision to invest the proporties of the priorities. man for the fourth time next Jan- fice in the Apex Building at Sixth 10:30, and in the evening at 8:15. Song and prayer services are held til construction work can begin was at 10 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.

-Turn To Page Four this series of revival meetings.

Annual Asheville District Conference Of Methodist Church To Be Held At Brevard On Tuesday, May 12; Smathers To Preside

MAKE PLANS FOR CLEAN-UP DRIVE HERE MAY 11-16

Members Of Committee Of Women's Civic Club Are Appointed

PROCLAMATION ISSUED

Plans were completed at the May meeting of the Women's Civic club for the annual clean-up campaign, which will be staged in Brevard next week, from May 11 to 16, with Mrs. E. L. Happ as general

Others appointed on the committee to assist Mrs. Happ in the various zones of the town are: Mrs. E. R. Pendleton, Mrs. O. H. Orr. Mrs. Ralph Fisher, Mrs. Flax Lawrence, Mrs. D. J. Luther, Mrs. Mary Scott. A colored person will also be appointed to have charge of the clean-up drive in the negro section of the town.

Among other matters of business transacted at Monday's meeting was vote of the club to beautify and maintain the recreation lot on Jordan street, and acceptance of Mrs. Lawrence's offer to act as recreational supervisor. Mrs. H. E. Er-win and Mrs. A. B. Galloway were appointed to serve also on the recreational committee, and $10.00 was donated by the club to be used in painting the play park benches. Miss Lucye Hedden was named chairman to arrange for the beautifying and care of the triangular lot at the intersection of the Rosman road and the Country club road. It was voted to donate $5.00 toward the loan linen closet and to sponsor the movement for the County Health office. One dollar was also donated for the cancer control campaign.

Another important vote of the

-Turn To Page Twelve

STORK COMES TO SEE Born to Mr. and Mrs. Emmit

Reese a son, Allison Wayne, on BRITISH FORCES OPEN April 22 at Biltmore hospital. Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. A Schulze a daughter, on Tuesday May 5, at Transylvania Community hospital. Mrs. Schulze was former

BULLETIN!

District Ranger J. B. Fortin announced late Wednesday that Davidson River, Western North Carolina's best known trout fishing stream, will be opened to the public Thurs-day morning. The previously announced schedule of open fishing dates will be followed for remainder of the season, Davidson River and other fishing streams in Pisgah national forest were closed to the public recently during a siege of forest fires in the area.

Host To Conference

REV. E. P. BILLUPS, above, pastor of the Brevard Methodist church, will be host to the annual Asheville district conference of the Methodist church here next Tuesday, May 12.

War Bulletins

CORREGIDOR TROOPS SURRENDER AT LAST

GEN. MACARTHUR'S HEAD-QUARTERS, Australia, May 6.-Corregidor and its three sister fortresses, America's islet bastions in Manila bay, surrendered today with a garrison of upwards of 6,500 American troops, sailors, marines and army nurses.

The regular garrisons, numbering more than 3,000, had been increased by 3,500 naval men and marines who had been evacuated club was to buy a war bond for total had been reduced by an unknown number of casualties.

Corregidor went down to defeat inflicted heavy casualties on the weary, hungry, and disease-ridden American-Filipino defenders, the war department disclosed today.

ATTACK ON MADAGASCAR

VICHY, France, May 6.-British forces opened a land, sea and air attack in a determined bid for attack in a determined bid for quick capture of the fortified northly Miss Eunice Simpson, of Brevard. ern bases of Madagascar.

Official dispatches that the French submarine Bevezieres, 1,379 tons, with a complement of 67, and the mine-laying sloop Bougainville. 1,969 tons, with a complement of 136, had been sunk in the first phase of operations yesterday. Nearly all of the crews were saved, it was said.

DESTROY AT LEAST 40

JAPANESE PLANES

NEW DELHI, India, May 6.-Forty Japanese planes were destroyed and 25 others badly damaged by a heavy United States bomber squadron which struck early today in its second successive

-Turn To Page Twelve

Brevard College Building Funds To Be Invested In U. S. War Bonds

Pledges made by Transylvania citizens in the recent Brevard colhandle all types of dairy products, lege building fund campaign are payable (the first instalment) this month, the campaign committee has announced, and notices are being sent out by the chairman, S. E. At Second Baptist paid into the fund will be invested the building funds in war bonds unreached at a special meeting of the The public is invited to attend campaign committee at the Brevard city hall last Friday evening.

A total of $63,000 has been pledged by Transylvania persons and meeting, and third of that amount month. Other payments will be en children were boys. come due in May, 1943, and May,

The county campaign, which was launched late last year, had just $20 for her service in helping him been completed and plans were be- register for the sugar rationing. ing made to continue the financial effort throughout Western North Carolina when war broke out in the Pacific. In the face of the national crisis, the committee decided to discontinue the campaign for an in- it has been announced. definite period.

Committee members emphasized paign will be completed.

Events Of All-Day Program For Next Tuesday Here Are Listed

SPEAKERS NAMED

The annual Asheville district conference of the Methodist church will be held at the Brevard Methodist church on Tuesday, May 12, according to announcement by the pastor, Rev. E. P. Billups. Hundreds of church laymen and officials from over this section of the state are expected to attend. Addresses are scheduled by such important church officials and lay leaders as Professor O. V. Woosley, superintendent of Children's Home, Winston-Salem; Dr. E. J. Coltrane, president of Brevard college; Judge Guy Weaver, of Asheville; Rev. L. B. Abernethy, of Elkin; Rev. W. L. Hutchins, Waynesville district superintendent; and many others. Rev. Dr. M. T. Smathers, Asheville district superintendent, will preside, and the sermon of the day will be brought by the Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick, Marion district superintend-

The program will open at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning with a short devotional service, followed by an organizational meeting, when the secretary and assistants will be elected. Other features on the morning program will include the roll call, a report by the local pastor, recognition of superannuates: and exhorters, committee report on youth activity, committee report on Christian education, an address on Christian education by Dr. E. J. Coltrane, and an address on extension training and camp activities by Miss Elizabeth Oliver. The sermon will be given at 11:30 o'clock, and following that the election of district lay leader and associate lay leaders will be held.

Lunch will be served at 12:30 o'clock by the ladies of the Brevard Methodist church.

Scheduled activities for the afternoon program include reports of to Corregidor from Bataan. This the district trustees and of the committee on lay activities, address on the orphanage by Professor O. V. Woosley, address on hospital and the Golden Cross by Rev. Herman In connection with the Clean-Up big-caliber Japanese artillery had F. Duncan, of Elkin, report on gendrive Mayor Carl Hardin issued a Lee Heffner, assistant county farm drive, Mayor Carl Hardin issued a swept away beach defenses and eral and conference benevolences by the Rev. L. B. Abernethy, of Elkin, address on the Work of Our Women by Miss Amy Hackney, of Asheville, committee report on Christian literature, address on Christian Literature by the Rev. W. L. Hutchins, committee report on quarterly conference records, and

UNDER WAY HERE

Last Registrations Be Made Thursday Not Later Than 5 O'Clock

Thousands of Transylvania citizens registered for the sugar rationing cards at the elementary schools of the county on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, and registration was not complete at press time Wednesday night. However, J. B. Jones said, he did not expect the time for registration to be extended beyond Thursday at five o'clock, date set.

for closing registration. More than 3,000 individuals had been registered at the Brevard elementary school by noon Wednesday. One teacher, Miss Edna Earle Nanney, had registered a total of more than 300. Besides the 27 school teachers in the Brevard district who are registering persons, two college students are also aiding with registration on the college campus. Largest family to register at the firms, the committee revealed at its Brevard school was one with an even dozen members. Another is scheduled to be collected this family registered in which all sev-

A "strange as it seems" item turned up in the registration when a man offered Miss Louise Moore

KIWANIANS TO MEET

The Brevard Kiwanis club will hold its regular meeting at the Moffitt House on Thursday at 12:15,

Don M. Jenkins, will be in charge of the program. The subject to this week, however, that the cam- be taken up is Municipal Admini-