In the afternoon, from 4 to 6:15, a program on Spiritual Enrichment will be given at the church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Ashby Johnson.

Next Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service, communion will be observed, the pastor has announced.

INTERESTING MEETING OF FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

An interesting meeting of the Fortnightly club was held last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. G. Pangle, with Mrs. Goode Loftis as hostess.

Business transactions were conducted by the president, Mrs. Pangle, after which a program on "Stalin and Russia" was in charge of Miss Alma Trowbridge.

Light refreshments and a social period were enjoyed at conclusion of the program.

GERMANY AND ITS LEADERS TOPIC OF WEDNESDAY CLUB

"Is Germany Incurable?" was the program topic at the regular meeting of the Wednesday club, which was held on the afternoon of March 24 at the home of Mrs. J. S. Silverstein.

Mrs. S. A. Bullock, program leader, told of the Nazi bombastic claims to superiority and their incredible cruelty which seemed to point to insanity.

Mrs. A. H. Kizer spoke on the topic, "If a nation suffers from paranoia as individuals." She pointed out that Germany's boast came originally from an inferior complex, as shown particularly in a desire for domination.

Mrs. R. W. Everett, president, conducted the business session, which opened with the reading of the club collect and pledge by Mrs. E. J. Coltrane.

The meeting of Circle No. 1 will be at the home of the chairman, Mrs. E. E. Vasey; Circle No. 2 will meet at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Walter Hart; and Circle No. 3 meeting will be held at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Jerry Jerome.

Installation of elected and appointive officers of Pisgah Chapter 198 Order of the Eastern Star will take place at the regular meeting to be held in the Masonic hall next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Mae Willman, district deputy, will act as installation officer, and Mrs. Minnie K. Lewis, will be installation marshal.

FIDELIS CLASS HAS SAINT PATRICK THEME PROGRAM

A program of interest featured the regular meeting of the Fidelis class of the First Baptist Sunday school, which was held last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. H. N. Lyda, with Mrs. Arthur McCrary as co-hostess.

The St. Patrick theme was carried out in the program, which was in charge of Mrs. Albert Payne. Two contest prizes were won by Mrs. Lyda, and the essay prize on "What Am I Doing To Help the War?" was won by Mrs. J. E. McJier, and another contest by Mrs. H. T. McDaniel.

Mrs. Lester Martin, president, conducted routine business, which opened with devotionals led by Mrs. Harold Runion. Mrs. Runion was elected to the office of treasurer to take the place of Mrs. Mosier, who is leaving Brevard.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the nineteen members present and one visitor, Mrs. John Jones. The next meeting will be held on the fifth Friday in April instead of the fourth in order not to conflict with the high school commencement on the usual date of meeting.

MATHATASIAN CLUB HEARS PROGRAM ON GERMANY

A program on "Is Germany Incurable?" was heard at the regular meeting of the Mathatasian club, which was held in the ladies' parlor of the Methodist church last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Ralph Zachary as hostess.

Mrs. Walter Duckworth, program leader, told facts of interest and information from Dr. Richard M. Brickner's book, "Is Germany Incurable?" bringing out the belief of the author that for five decades the German nation has been suffering from a dangerous mental disease diagnosed as paranoia.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Harry Sellers, Mrs. C. J. Goodwin, vice president, presided. Mrs. Oliver Orr, Mrs. Jerry Jerome and Mrs. T. G. Moody were appointed a committee to confer with the other local book clubs to decide the matter of inviting the district director here for a joint meeting with all the clubs.

Following refreshments served by the hostess, the club adjourned to meet in April with Mrs. Moody.
