OWEN AND NOT "BROWN"

Under a picture of a Rosman school boy holding a dehydrator, that was used in last week's paper, the boy's name was inadvertently given as "Cecil Brown." Instead of Brown, the correct name is Cecil Owen. He is one of the many boys and girls at Rosman who have made inexpensive dehydrators in the vocational work shop.

WARTIME HINTS FOR Brevard and Transylvania HOMEMAKERS

Enemies, Beware!

You'd better give heed and beware!

War bonds from us are fast coming your way.

In bombs and bullets from the air.

Peanut Butter Cookies

In case you should remember that we told you last week we'd give you a good recipe for peanut butter cookies in the column this week, here it is the first thing: Sift 1 cup flour with one and one-half teaspoons baking powder and half teaspoon salt. Mix well together one-fourth cup shortening, one-half cup peanut butter and one-half cup sugar. Add 2 eggs well beaten, and to this mixture add the sifted dry ingredients alternately with one-third cup milk. Drop from tip of teaspoon onto cookie pan and bake in hot oven about 10 minutes.

Did You Know That?

Did you know—That in the Egyptian desert an appreciable rain fall occurs only once every few years? That on any one day more than 2,000 allied merchant vessels are at sea with war cargoes? That gliders are able to land in fields too small for power ships? That the name Casablanca means "White House" in Africa? That many luxury air liners have been stripped and converted into planes? That early attempts by Europeans to settle on the Solomon Islands were balked by cannibalism of the natives? (Puzzle, what's become of the cannibals?) That the thumbs-up sign of the British and many other of the allies long has been used by American airmen to signify "everything's ready" or "okay."

Household Hints

In the event you dislike the odor of cigarette smoke, you might try placing a few saucers of ammonia in the room. Bread crumbs, dry or buttered, keep sweet and fresh for weeks on the pantry shelf, if stored in tightly-covered waxed paper containers. You can save cake crumbs, too, to be used later in various fruit flavored puddings. Try allspice as a seasoner when you can't get other spices.

Wise Sayings

The best doctors in the world are Dr. Diet, Dr. Quiet and Dr. Merryman-Jonathan Swift. I hope I shall always possess firmness and virtue enough to maintain—what I consider the most enviable of all titles—the character of An Honest Man — George Washington. To put in the hands of all people the means of a freer, broader and more healthful life. I don't know of a better purpose in life than that for anyone—Henry Ford. The best thing about obstacles is that they make us prove ourselves to ourselves. Some of life's keenest satisfaction comes from doing things we thought we couldn't do—Henry Ford.

Kitchen Charmer

Pretty printed chintz.

By VERA WINSTON

THE LITTLE number that is right for whipping up supper in the kitchen and yet smart enough in which to appear before guests is a very important member of the wardrobe just now. Here is one such brunch frock fashioned of gay printed chintz with blue and green flowers on a pink ground. It has a classic collar and revers and buttons to the waistline in front. Self ruffling outlines the square yoke and continues down either side and winds up around the pockets. A sash ties in back.
