All quotas have been lifted for Navy enlistments, and an unlimited number of 17-year-olds, WAVES and Seabees may be enlisted immediately. Also, men be-tween the ages of 28 and 50 may qualify for enlistment with any rating for which they are eligible. Navy trade schools have been opened wide to the 17-year-old youngsters, in order that a large group of young potential petty officers will be available soon. Never before in the history of the Navy have opportunities for the younger men been so great, and a nation-wide drive has been inaugurated to obtain thousands of youngsters for the training

There are 55 different Navy trades from which the youngsters may choose, and they range from medical training to carpentry. An effort is being made to place the youngsters in the fields they prefer, on the theory that they will do better work in the type of trade they like best.

Hundreds of Tar Heel women already have been enlisted in the WAVES, and are now undergoing training at some college or university. A few weeks hence, they will be graduated, and will be eli gible for petty officer ratingsready for duty at some shore sta tion within the continental limits of the United States.

Soldier's socks are expected to last 50 per cent longer as a result of a new process of treating wool now used by the Indian Army.
