WEEKLY BINGO PARTY SUSPENDED HERE NOW

Jaycee officials announced yesterday that since C. W. Pickelsimer has rented the building here on West Main street that they have been using, the weekly bingo parties held on Friday nights will be suspended for the time being until another location can be found. In making the announcement, the officials stated that they desired to express publically their appreciation to Mr. Pickelsimer for the free use of his building. Besides providing entertainment

Junior Commandos Turned In 45,000 Pounds Of Scrap

Brevard and Pisgah Forest junior commandos are continuing to advance in rank by bringing in the scrap, Fred Taylor, chairman of the Jaycees' unique scrap drive, states.

To date over 45,000 pounds of scrap metal have been collected by these commandos.

Collection is made every Saturday afternoon at the Brevard elementary and Pisgah Forest schools.

Mr. Taylor stated that a new shipment of caps and sweaters is expected to arrive within the next few days.

"When they are received, we plan to have a large parade," he said.

All boys are invited to become junior commandos.

for the community, the parties have greatly promoted the sale of war bonds and stamps. To date around $1000 worth have been sold.

and at least indirectly, to answer peace feelers emanating from Spain, which thus far have been firmly rejected.

It is not known definitely whether Joseph Stalin and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek will attend the parleys, but, if not, it is assumed they will be informed of developments.

Except for sporadic fighting on the part of isolated units, the campaign in Africa has been brought to a close with the capture by Allied troops of the Axis strongholds at Tunis and Bizerte. This triumph opens the way for an Allied invasion of Europe, which, it has been conjectured, may be preceded by thrusts at one or more points in the Mediterranean area. The campaign in Tunisia was marked by the fiercest kind of fighting and Axis troops, cut off from their European bases of supply by Allied aerial and naval action, fought until they were overwhelmed by repeated blows of the British, American and French armies. It was estimated that 100,000 prisoners were taken in the final phase of the fighting in Tunisia while no dependable estimate of the booty seized has been made.

been increased from one to five pounds of sugar of the 25 pounds granted, according to the OPA. This was done so that jams, jellies and preserves can be used more extensively as a spread to stretch the butter and margarine ration. At the top limit of 25 pounds, Mrs. Davis said, the housewife can plan to can 100 quarts. However, she stated, this is the maximum to be granted in only a few cases where this large amount of fruit will be canned and preserved. Last year there was not top limit set on the amount of sugar obtainable for canning, and some housewives got as much as 45 pounds.
