LAKE TOXAWAY IS NOW ENJOYING A REAL ESTATE BOOM

Several Transactions Take Place During The Past Week. Changes Given

Several real estate transfers have been made in the upper end of Transylvania county during the past week, the majority of the transfers having been made through Dan Reid, owner and manager of Toxaway Lodge, at Lake Toxaway.

What is known as the Margaret C. Head place, of the W. E. Head homestead in the Boheny section, was sold to Alexander Lukshis, a native of Lithuania who has lived in this country for several years.

His intentions, when new building will be permitted after the war, are to build a summer home on the property and to develop the water power. The main attraction is a beautiful waterfall in the back yard of the house on the place. The property purchased includes 18 acres of the 62 acres of the Head homestead tract.

"Bonnie View," near Sapphire, the property formerly owned by Mrs. Geoffrey Mann, of Charleston, S. C., was purchased by Mr. Reid and has been repaired and remodeled, and is now ready for occupancy as a summer home, which he expects to rent this season.

The Clarence Norton homestead at Oakland has been purchased by W. F. McCall, who is a native of this section but in the winter time he is engaged as railway conductor on the Florida east coast. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Chappell and family now live on the place.

Passenger transportation in Charleston, S. C., has increased 622 per cent since December, 1938.

with the Transylvania Boys in the Military Service

Larry Wilson, son of Mrs. Allie C. Wilson, of Brevard, is now an aviation student at the University of Alabama. He volunteered in the army air corps and left in April for Keesler Field, Miss., where he took his basic training.

Sgt. Robert Chappell is now in the army infantry with headquarters in Los Angeles, Calif. In a letter to the editor of this paper he wrote, "I want to thank all you good workers on the paper for sending my paper to me, for it is swell to get the home news. There are four of us boys here from Transylvania, and we are all anxious to read the paper each week. Keep up your good work."

Cpl. John B. Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Avery Reid, of Quebec, has been promoted to the rank of corporal, and is now at Camp White, Oregon. After three months maneuvers in Washington, he expects to leave soon for Fort Still, Okla., to a training school. Cpl. Reid says, "the army is what you make of it."

James Francis Kanipe, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kanipe, West Jordan Street, Brevard, has enlisted for Officer Pilot training in the United States Naval Reserve, according to an announcement made by the Naval Aviation Cadet Selection Board in Atlanta.

Kanipe, a native of Brevard, graduated from the Brevard high school, where he was editor-in-chief of its publication.

Upon reaching the age of 18, or shortly thereafter, Kanipe will be called into active duty for training. After completing all required courses he will qualify for the Navy's "Wings of Gold" and be commissioned as a Flying Officer with the Fleet.
