OAKLAND NEWS

By Mrs. Lee Norton
Saturday of this week is the day set for the annual working at Lake Toxaway cemetery. Sunday, memorial day, will be observed with the decoration of graves. It is hoped that all who have relatives and friends buried here will co-operate in both the work and decoration.

The mother of Mrs. Theodore Rose, who recently became the bride of a soldier by the name of Norton, left here Monday to join her husband, who is stationed in Texas. Mrs. Norton is better known by her friends here as Mrs. Brady.

Clarence Chappell and family arrived here Saturday for a visit with relatives and friends after an absence of more than a year. Mr. Chappell has been employed in a shipyard in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McCall arrived home last week for a vacation, but Mr. McCall is subject to a call when needed on his job, which is railroading. Mrs. McCall will remain at home through the summer.

E. A. Reid was in Asheville Saturday to consult his physician. He is taking treatment from a specialist.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Taylor and two daughters, of Enka, spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Sanders. Other visitors at the Sanders home recently were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dishman, of Brevard, and J. L. Sanders, of South Carolina.

Mrs. M. E. Nicholson was in Brevard Saturday on business. Other visitors to Brevard Saturday from Oakland were Clyde Chappell, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McCall and Mrs. Lee Norton.

To all readers of this paper, please don't forget the working and decoration at Lake Toxaway cemetery Saturday and Sunday.

Bundles Organization Raise $27.50 Friday

A large number of people enjoyed an entertaining program that was given here at the courthouse last Friday night by the local Bundles for America and Britain organization, featuring folk music by Watson and his Rambling Mountaineers. The local organization cleared $27.50 from the event and this money will be spent for materials for garments for war sufferers.
