CANNING DEMONSTRATION

Under the direction of Mrs. J. P. Cheek, who will be assisted by Mrs. W. C. Morris and Mrs. Jerry Griswold and other members of the home demonstration club, a canning demonstration will be held at the school house on Thursday afternoon, June 24th, at 2 o'clock. A thorough discussion of food preservation, preservation by salting or brining and home food storage will be among the valuable information issued and every woman in the community is urged to be present.

REVIVAL MEETING CLOSES

The two weeks revival at the Baptist church, conducted by Rev. J. A. Anderson and Rev. Ralph Banning, came to a close on Sunday. Baptismal services were held on Sunday afternoon, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Claud Ray were immersed.

CLUB MEETING IS HELD

The June meeting of the home demonstration club was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Hamby with twelve present, which included two new members, Mrs. N. N. Wilde and Mrs. T. J. Bostic. A month's war bond purchases of $32.05 was reported. Miss Annabel Teague presented the topic "Food Preservation," stressing the need for saving everything in the Victory garden and demonstrating the canning of greens, giving many helpful ideas for this year's canning.

OAKLAND NEWS

By Mrs. Lee Norton

Members of the Lake Toxaway Baptist church wish to extend through this column a unanimous vote of thanks to Mrs. Spencer Welborn for her generous donation to the church. Mrs. Welborn reads the Transylvania Times every week, even to all the advertisements, she says, and the Oakland community still seems like home to her.

Rev. David Wilson, of Salem, S. C., and Rev. Theodore Rose have just closed a revival at Travelers Rest Baptist church in the Bohoney section, with eight additions to the church by baptism.

Rev. W. H. Nicholson, of Tom- assee, S. C., and Rev. David Wilson were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verner Redman last Saturday.

Julie Chappell had the misfortune to lose his milk cow by lightning last Saturday, when a terrific storm passed through that section.

Barry Robinson and family, of Tryon, were visitors Sunday of Rev. and Mrs. Roland Robinson.

Mrs. Roxie Dunn, of Selma, visited her mother, Mrs. Belzie Nicholson last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Bertie Nicholson, of Rosman, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Maggie Nicholson.

Miss Elizabeth and Alvin Burgess returned home last Friday from Tomasse, S. C., where they attended school the past year.

Mrs. Tillie Morgan, of Eastatoe, is spending some time here with Mrs. Mamie Burgess and family.

A message from Lane Sanders to his parents here stated that he had arrived safely in Australia.

Mrs. R. A. Collins, of Rosman, is spending this week with Mrs. Wait Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Smith and Mrs. Frank Smith, of Brevard, called on friends here last Sunday.

Mrs. Lee Norton was dinner guest of Mrs. Mary Burgess Sunday.

Vess Chandler is reported to be quite ill at his home here. His case is one that should be investigated by the welfare workers, it is said.

Mrs. Homer Chappell has taken charge of her two little daughters, Lovine and Agnes, who have been with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Chappell, for several months.

ents, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Banning, at Boylston, will soon join Mr. Holden.

Guests during the week of Mrs. Laura Radford were Mrs. Louis Kadlick, Mrs. Maney Arrington and daughter and two children, of Spartanburg, S. C.

Mrs. Ossie Sentelle has returned to her home here after spending several days at Etowah with her daughter, Mrs. Curtis Grey, and son, who have had their tonsils removed.

If the conservatives can get control of it, they will crush you. As long as you are in control, you will crush everyone else. Indeed this is what you proclaim to be your aim.

Do you call this liberalism? Or freedom? Or democracy? I call it reactionism, despotism, and totalitarianism.
