

For The Women

News Of Society and Club Activities

ALMA TROWBRIDGE, Society Editor — Phones 7 and 189

Miss Martha Virginia Dixon Marries Lt. William Edwin Baldwin In Durham

Local Girl Weds Army Lieutenant In Pretty Church Ceremony

Miss Martha Virginia Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence F. Dixon, of Pisgah Forest, was married to Lt. William Edwin Baldwin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Edwin Baldwin, of Dunn. The ceremony was performed at the Trinity Avenue Presbyterian church in Durham on Friday afternoon, July 2, at five-thirty o'clock, with the pastor, Dr. Paul Leslie Garber, officiating.

Baskets of white gladioli, woodwardia and fern were used in the decorations. Wrought iron candelabra bearing burning candles cast a soft glow over the scene.

Mrs. H. C. Carr, of Durham, played the wedding music. Before the ceremony she played "Concerto from a Violin Sonata," by Mendelssohn; "Spozzia," by Liszt; "Calm as the Night," by Bohm. During the ceremony she played softly "To a Wild Rose," by MacDowell. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white marquisette informal wedding gown, fashioned with high round neckline outlined with applied lace. The pointed bodice was attached to a full gathered skirt. Her white Juliet straw hat was trimmed with illusion veiling which was attached to a coronet of orange blossoms. In her hand she carried a Bible with an orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained at a reception at the Crystal ballroom of the Washington Duke hotel in Durham.

The couple left for Abilene, Texas, where the bridegroom is stationed at Camp Barkley.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of open blue, with accessories in navy. Her corsage was of yellow roses. The mother of the bridegroom wore a black and white crepe print dress, with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Baldwin received her education at Women's College of the University of North Carolina and Duke University, where she received training for a medical technologist. Lieutenant Baldwin is a graduate of Georgia Military Academy, Duke University and the Duke Medical School. He interned at the Charity hospital in New Orleans, La.

BUY WAR BONDS!

Garden Club Will Meet Friday, 16th

The July meeting of the Brevard Garden club will be held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. E. Reid, with Mrs. Hugh Hollifield as co-hostess. The meeting will be held at 3:45 o'clock.

T. S. Gash, assistant farm agent, will be the program speaker, on the topic, "Garden Enemies and How To Control Them." Mrs. Roy Long will discuss, "How To Make a Corsage."

PRESBYTERIANS TO HAVE AUXILIARY MEET TODAY

The July meeting of the Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will be held at the Hut this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Preceding the general meeting, there will be a meeting of the executive board at 3 o'clock.

YOUNG PEOPLE HAVING SERIES OF PROGRAMS

The young people's Vesper group of the Presbyterian church will have a series of programs on prayer at each Sunday evening service. The subject next Sunday will be on the Lord's Prayer.

On Thursday evening at 6:30 the girls of the group will have a softball game on the college field, after which they will meet at the church to do some painting.

BAPTIST CIRCLES WILL MEET THIS AFTERNOON

Circle No. 1 of the First Baptist church will have the July meeting this afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. George Massey. The meeting of Circle No. 2 will be held at the home of Mrs. C. P. Link on Miner street. Mrs. Hugh Hollifield will be in charge of the program. Mrs. Ralph Parrish will be hostess at the meeting of Circle No. 5 at her home.

GLANERS CLASS TO MEET THURSDAY EVENING 15th

The Scripture Glaners class of the First Baptist Sunday school will hold the regular meeting tonight at 7:45 with Mrs. Rosalie Combs at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lester Martin. All members are urged to attend.

A "Dust Proof" mattress cover made of heavy muslin will protect it from dust and wear. You can make these covers with an envelope type closing so they can easily be washed.

Joins the WAACS

GRACE THORPE, daughter of Jim Thorpe, great Indian football player, and one of the greatest all-around athletes of all time, is pictured after she joined the WAACS in Detroit, Mich. (International)

SARAH TAYLOR GUILD HEARS PROGRAM ON ORIENTALS

Featuring the July meeting of the Sarah Taylor Guild of the Methodist church was an interesting discussion on Orientals. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Trantham, with Mrs. Clyde MacDonald as co-hostess.

Mrs. Nat Townsend, program leader, had secured Mrs. C. H. Trowbridge to give the discussion. Adding to the interest of the program was the displaying of Japanese, Chinese and other oriental curios and antiques representative of the life of those people. Mrs. Mordecia Neely was devotional leader.

Mrs. Ralph Fisher, chairman, conducted routine business, after which refreshments were served by the joint hostesses.

METHODIST SOCIETY TO MEET THIS AFTERNOON

The July meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will be held this afternoon at 3:30 in the ladies' parlor of the church.

Pretty Wedding At Presbyterian Church Here Last Friday

The marriage of Miss Thelma A. Nauman, of LeRoy, Minn., to Elmo H. Madison, of Brevard and LeRoy, took place at the Presbyterian church in Brevard on Friday afternoon, July 9, at five-thirty o'clock. The pastor, Rev. Ashby Johnson, officiated, in the presence of a few close friends.

The bride wore a two-piece suit of marquisette in pale gold with white accessories, and carried an arm bouquet of white roses, fern and baby's breath. Her only ornament was a triple string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. John Bradshaw Verner, of Brevard, was matron of honor, and the bride's only attendant. She wore a French blue Bemberg sheer dress with accessories in white. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, delphinium and baby's breath.

Lawrence F. Dixon, of Pisgah Forest, was the best man.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arno Nauman, of LeRoy, and is a graduate of the LeRoy high school.

The bridegroom, who is a chemist at the Ecusta Paper Corporation, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Madison, of LeRoy. He is a graduate of the University of Minnesota.

Upon her arrival in Brevard, Miss Nauman was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Bromfield at their home "Norborne" on East Main street, where a beautifully appointed luncheon was served the young couple before the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Madison will be at home after July 15 at the Wike apartments on East Main street in Brevard.

Pfc. G. T. Henderson Weds Miss Esther Olinger In Knoxville, Tenn.

Popular Quebec Man Marries Knoxville Girl Who Attended College Here

The marriage of Pfc. George Truett Henderson and Miss Esther Olinger was solemnized at the Smithwood Baptist church at Knoxville, Tenn., at eight o'clock Monday evening, July 5. The officiating minister was Rev. G. G. Graber.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. B. B. Olinger, of Knoxville. The attendants were Miss Aubra Lay of Fountain City, maid-of-honor, and Mrs. Charles Pickel, sister of the bride and matron of honor. Carl Caldwell, of Brevard, was best man and Murrel Dockery, of Appalachia, Va., was another attendant. Five-year-old Martha Pratt was flower girl. Miss Virginia Patree played, "I Love You Truly," "Because," "Indian Love Song" and others on the pipe organ before the ceremony.

The mother of the bride was dressed in pure white. The bride wore a white gown with lace inset and lace yoke. The vest was of white net and the halo was of the same material framed with baby pearls. The maid-of-honor was dressed in a gown of pastel blue, while the gown of the matron-of-honor was pastel pink. The maid and flower girl carried garden flowers. The bride's flowers were white rose buds and white gladioli.

Following the wedding, the bride and groom were given a reception by Mrs. Curtis Lay and daughter, Miss Aubra Lay, of Fountain City, a residential suburban section of Knoxville. Quite a number of the bride's friends attended the reception, at which the table was covered with a lace cloth, the center piece being a three tiered cake in white and green.

On Tuesday, Carl Caldwell, of Brevard, who attended the wedding, brought Pfc. and Mrs. Henderson to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Henderson, where they remained until last Thursday morning. They then left for Ann Arbor, Michigan, where they expect to remain until Pfc. Henderson is transferred to some other field of action.

Mrs. Henderson is the daughter of the late Mr. B. B. Olinger and Mrs. Olinger, of Knoxville. After graduating from high school, having completed the work in Central high school and adult night school Knoxville, she attended Brevard college for two years.

Pfc. Truett Henderson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Henderson, of the Quebec section, of Transylvania county. After graduating from Rosman high school he went to Mars Hill college, and after he graduated from that junior college he entered Western Carolina Teachers college. In two years there he completed the course for his B. S. degree. After his graduation, he taught school one year and then secured a position with Ecusta Paper corporation, where he worked until April of last year, when he was called to service in the United States Army. He was inducted at Fort Bragg on April 11, 1942, and sent to Camp Grant, Ill., for two months of basic training in the medical corps. He was then sent to Fort Sheridan, Ill., for two months training in the hospital laboratory. On August 13, 1942, he left for Camp McCoy, Wisconsin, where he worked as laboratory technician until March 20, 1943, at which time he was sent to Ann Arbor, Michigan, where, under A. S. T. R., at the University of Michigan, he is taking a course in mechanical engineering.

Middle Fork Bible School To Close Fri.

BY INEZ CHAPMAN
The Bible school that is being taught by Miss Evelyn Stewart will close Friday afternoon. The closing exercises will be held Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. There has been a good attendance.

Pvt. Elzie Raines, of Camp Howze, Texas, arrived Sunday to spend a few days' furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Raines.

Mr. and Mrs. George Holcomb and family spent the week end visiting relatives in Jocassee, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Aiken spent the week end as guests of Mrs. Elsie Trotter, of Pickens, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Powell and family, of South Carolina, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Powell.

Miss Ruth Green, of Rosman, was a week end visitor of Miss Helen Galloway.

Mrs. E. Chapman, of East Flat Rock, has been visiting relatives and friends in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Chapman and son were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Chapman.

Miss Evelyn Stewart, Bible school teacher, was Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Galloway.

HAVE YOU UNUSED ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES IN YOUR HOME?

If so get them out and have them put in good repair. Then, if you do not wish to use them yourself, list them with us for sale to others, or for exchange.

There is no charge for this listing service; we offer this service as a wartime contribution towards making the most effective use of the electrical appliances on hand.

Telephone No. 116 between 8:30 A. M. and 5:00 P. M. on week days, giving the name of the appliance you have to dispose of, its condition, your name and telephone number or street address. Then, as we receive inquiries we can give your name to those who wish to purchase.

Please do not call us for electric irons, however; for there are none available for sale or exchange.

DUKE POWER CO.

Day 'Phone 116 - Night 'Phone 16

TODAY & FRIDAY

"Five Graves To Cairo"

Franchot TONE and Anne BAXTER

A tense drama in a mud village occupied by German troops hot on the heels of the retiring British army . . . a drama that audiences will watch with interest and remember with satisfaction.

World In Action, "Invasion of Europe"

SATURDAY

Short Subjects
Chapter 7, "Jr. G-Men vs Black Dragon"

SUNDAY & MONDAY

"Presenting Lily Mars"

Judy GARLAND and Van HEFLIN

Smart direction, dialogue and costuming against a background of lavish production are blended harmoniously into this picture.

News of the Day

TUESDAY

Also Short Subjects

WEDNESDAY

Also Short Subjects

"Johnny, ... this Milk Is What Makes Marines Tough!"

Drink several glasses of milk a day to give you energy and vitality to do your job. No matter what your occupation may be, milk will give you what you need.

Transylvania Dairies milk is tops in quality and it will be a refreshing pick-up after a strenuous day. Visit our plant and see the processes through which the milk passes before it reaches your door.

PLEASE RETURN BOTTLES PROMPTLY!

Transylvania Dairies

Ralph Parrish, Mgr.

CLEMSON THEATRE

FRIDAY & SATURDAY

FRIEND OR FOE?
The Frontier in a Turmoil
... as Tim Takes Over!

Chapter 12, "VALLEY OF VANISHING MEN"

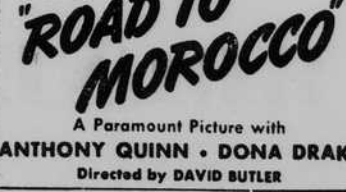

MONDAY

THE BIG THREE OF COMEDY!

In the hit that's zanier than "Zanzibar" ... screwier than "Singapore!" ... the funniest "road" show of all!

THE BIG THREE OF COMEDY!
CROSBY-HOPE-LAMOUR

Short Subjects