Lillie Alene Brown Becomes Bride Of Dr. H. B. Perry, Jr., Last Friday

Brevard College Teacher Weds In Pretty Church Ceremony At Boone

Miss Lillie Alene Brown, of High Point, head of the music department of Brevard College, became the bride of Dr. H. B. Perry, Jr., of Boone and Baltimore, Md., in a ceremony at the Boone Methodist church on Friday afternoon, August 6, at 5 o'clock. Rev. O. L. Brown, father of the bride, officiated.

The church was decorated with white gladioli, fern and evergreen, with five-branched candelabra bearing cathedral tapers.

Miss Dorothy Jones, of Madison, organist, played the wedding music. Miss Julia Owen, of Asheville, was soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her great-uncle, Dr. B. B. Dougherty, of Boone. Miss Elizabeth Brown, of High Point, was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Gertrude Perry, of Boone, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. James I. Mizelle, of Independence, Va.

Dr. H. B. Perry was his son's best man. Ushers were Bernard Dougherty, Dr. W. C. Thomas and John Lester Brown, brother of the bride.

Bride's Costume

The bride's dress was of white marquisette, fashioned with a round neckline and a deep yoke trimmed with a gathered ruffle of matching material. The long fitted bodice also was trimmed with a gathered ruffle and the bracelet-length sleeves of the gown were gathered slightly at the elbow. Her fingertip length veil of gathered bridal illusion was attached to an orange blossom crescent, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath, centered with an orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Brown, parents of the bride, on the lawn at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. D. D. Dougherty, for the bridal party and close relatives.

Reception Given

After the reception Dr. and Mrs. Perry left for a brief wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a jungle brown traveling suit with matching accessories. On her shoulder she wore an orchid detached from her bridal bouquet. At present the couple will make their home in Baltimore.

Mrs. Perry is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. O. L. Brown of High Point. A graduate of Greensboro college with a bachelor of music degree, she has done post graduate work at the University of North Carolina and for the past year was head of the department of music at Brevard college. This summer she was a member of Appalachian State Teachers college at Boone.

Dr. Perry, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Perry of Boone, is a graduate of Wake Forest college and the University of Maryland school of medicine. At present he is interning at the Baltimore City hospitals.

Army Man Honored With Social Events

Several events of a social nature were given for Pfc. Rowell D. Bosse, of the army air base in New Orleans, La., while on his 15-day furlough here with his mother, Mrs. W. T. Bosse.

Those entertaining were: Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Moore gave a supper, the guests at which included members of the Moore and Bosse families, and Rev. and Mrs. B. W. Thomason. Charles Moore showed colored slides of wild flowers. Other guests in to see the pictures were Captain and Mrs. Richard H. Johnston and Miss Martha Sellers.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Poole entertained with a supper, the guests being Rowell and his mother, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Bosse and Mrs. Donald Lee Moore. Other events were a fish supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Norwood for Rowell and his mother, and a supper given by Mrs. James J. Gray, the guests at which were Rowell and his mother and Mr. and Mrs. Knox DeLong.

Decorations and entertainment were carried out in cabaret style. Games and contests were enjoyed, and the guests took part in various skits during the evening.

The honor guest was presented with many lovely and useful gifts.

Those present were: Mrs. William Kirk, Mrs. Brian Combs, Mrs. Edwin English, Mrs. Lloyd Hughes, Miss Marie Sprinkle, Miss Mildred Carpenter, Miss Lucille Roberts, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, of Hendersonville, and Miss Blanche Patterson, of Asheville.

Local Girl To Marry Navy Man In Ceremony To Be Held This Fall

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Everett Deane Roberson, of Brevard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cashiers B. Roberson, of Candler, to Ensign William H. Hamrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hamrick, of Asheville.

The wedding will take place in the fall.

Miss Roberson has been employed as secretary and chemist in the chemical laboratory of the Ecusta Paper corporation since August, 1940.

Ensign Hamrick was called into active service in January, 1941, and for the past 27 months he has been located in the Panama Canal zone. Prior to entering the service, he was employed in the engineering department of radio station WWNC as a transmitter engineer.

The engagement was announced at a party given by Mrs. John Reese Sledge at her home in Brevard Friday evening.

Miss Roberson greeted the guests at the door, and on arrival she pinned on each a corsage, on the ribbons of which were inscribed the names of the two contracting parties, announcing their engagement. Miss Roberson's mother also greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. Sledge was assisted by Mrs. James Mills, of Brevard, in serving an ice course.

A color scheme in white and green was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. A profusion of summer flowers in blending shades added to the attractiveness of the prevailing color note.

Brevard and out of town guests were: Mrs. William Jordan, Miss Eleanor Spain, Miss Lucy Clarke, Miss Dorothy Singletary, Miss Myrta Mae Spain, Miss Dorothy Johnson, Mrs. Charles Glazener, Miss Nelle Bookout, Miss Marie Sprinkle, Miss Edith Ridenhour, Miss Connie Marion, Miss Edna Nesbitt, Mrs. William Millner, Mrs. John Pickelsimer, Mrs. Anna De-Schot, Miss Anna Meixell, Mrs. James Mills, Mrs. C. Engagement Of Niece Is Announced Here For Sept. Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones, of Brevard, have announced the engagement of their niece, Miss Mary Malinda Hamrick, of Brevard and Concord, to Bernhard Bjorn Christopherson, of Washington, D. C., and Superior, Wis.

The wedding will take place in Concord on September 3rd.

Miss Hamrick is a graduate of Brevard high school and of the Shelby Hospital School of Nursing. For the past three years she has been assistant supervisor of the operating room at Cabarrus hospital in Concord.

Mr. Christopherson received his training at Superior State college. He has been employed for several years as draftsman in the navy yard at Washington.

AUGUST MEETINGS OF METHODIST CIRCLES

Circles No. 1 and No. 3 of the Methodist church met in joint session last Thursday afternoon at the parsonage for the August meeting.

Following devotionals led by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Jenkins, the two circles met in separate rooms for the business transactions, and re-assembled for refreshments together.

Mrs. E. S. English, chairman, presided over the meeting of Circle No. 1, and Mrs. Cordia King, chairman of Circle No. 3, conducted routine business of that circle. Mrs. Jenkins was hostess at the meeting of Circle No. 1, and Mrs. J. S. Nicholson was hostess of the other circle.

MRS. SLUDER HOSTESS AT MEETING OF CIRCLE II

Mrs. H. A. Sluder was hostess at the August meeting of Circle No. 2 of the Methodist church, which met at her home last Thursday afternoon.

An interesting program preceded the business session. Miss Mary Sluder was devotional leader, telling in an interesting and unique manner the story of Luke. Miss Carolyn Sluder and Miss Jeanette Austin rendered several piano and vocal selections.

Included in the routine business, presided over by the chairman, Mrs. J. F. Zachary, plans were made to provide flowers for the church each Sunday during August.
