IRA DAVES DIED

FROM PAGE ONE

18-year-old son, who was shot twice in the lower abdomen, is improving.

Since the shooting took place, Jackson and Transylvania county officers found a 50-gallon still and over 200 gallons of mash located near the Daves home, it was reported today.

A warrant for Daves, charging him with illicit manufacture of liquor, was supposed to have been issued yesterday by Jackson county officers, it was learned here.

The shooting occurred following a two-day family feud over a girl that was admired by sons of the two families and over the division of blackberries, officers stated.

tion's pulpwood are required for war purposes.

The Victory Pulpwood campaign was initiated by the War Production Board with the co-operation of other federal department, war agencies and industry. It is designed to relieve increasingly serious shortages in pulpwood and chestnut wood, the raw material which makes smokeless powder, rayon for parachutes, plastics for airplane parts, shell and bomb casings and shipping containers for ammunition, foods, supplies, blood plasma and other necessities for the armed forces and allies.

Committees Appointed
A Transylvania county pulpwood and chestnut wood committee has been appointed as follows: Ed M. Anderson, chairman; J. A. Glazener, Gerald Griswold, J. S. Silverstein, W. W. Croushorn, A. H. Harris, Carl Moltz, Robert Kimzey, E. F. Tilson and Bryon Shiflet.

The county's community committees are as follows:

Brevard community — Joe Bryson, G. W. Whitmire, and John Gravelly.

Gloucester community — Ranson McCall, Sam Owen and Richard McCall.

Quebec community — M. O. McCall, Charlie Henderson and Dillie Fisher.

Lake Toxaway community — G. T. Beddingfield, W. J. Raines, Walter McNeely.

Rosman community — A. M. Paxton, P. A. Morgan and Dewey Burton.

Enon community — P. A. Rahn, S. V. Brown and Andrew Boggs.

Little River — E. H. Mackey, Odell McKinney and Frank Shufford.

Cedar Mountain — S. A. Jones and Boyce Bishop.

The purpose of these committees, Chairman Anderson stated, is for the members to urge all farmers and woodsmen in the county to devote as much time as possible to cutting pulp and chestnut wood.

The ceiling price on chestnut wood is $10 per cord and on pulpwood, $12 per cord.

"Besides making some real money for themselves, our farmers and all others who have time can contribute substantially to the war effort by cutting pulp and chestnut wood.

It is also pointed out that the government is badly in need of more lumber and the two lumber companies in the county have assured The Times that they will give part time employment to farmers and others who will cut logs.

The Silverstein Industries buy chestnut wood, and pulpwood is purchased in this county by Champion and the Meade Corporation.

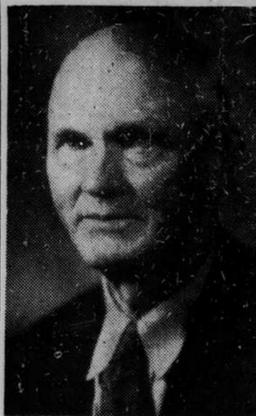

Of the current pulpwood campaign, Donald Nelson of the War Production Board, said, "Once again in an emergency situation involving production for the war effort, American newspapers have offered their assistance to the War Production Board. This voluntary and unsolicited action represents the highest expression of practical patriotism—the kind of patriotism which, if emulated by farmers and woodsmen in pulpwood producing areas of the United States, will solve the problem of current and threatening pulpwood shortages and, by its broader example, help to hasten the winning of the war. Personally, and as Chairman of the War Production Board, I am happy to welcome the assistance of the newspapers in this important production campaign."

The campaign to increase the production of pulpwood for the manufacture of products vitally necessary for military needs overseas and for home front war uses, is addressed to farmers, woodland owners, forest laborers and other available workers in the three major pulpwood producing areas of the South, Northeast and Lake States, where manpower shortages have developed because of the withdrawal of woodsmen for service in the armed forces or other war work.

Appeals To Farmers
The growing seriousness of pulpwood shortages prompted Mr. Nelson to issue the following appeal to farmers:

"If every one of the more than 2,800,000 farmers in the 27 pulpwood producing states were to devote three extra days in 1943 to cutting pulpwood we could overcome the threatened 2,500,000-cord shortage with wood to spare," Mr. Nelson declared. "I urge every American farmer to get in touch with his nearest Department of Agriculture representative to find out whether he can be of service in the production of pulpwood. I, of course, realize the increased war load which our farmers are bearing today, but the pulpwood situation is serious enough to justify this call for an extra effort."

is sending out this week to all prospective students states that freshmen should arrive on the campus that day. Classes will begin on Thursday, Sept. 23.

"Although many of our last year's students are now in the armed forces, we expect to fill vacancies with boys not yet ready for military service," he said.

The regular junior college program this fall will be just as full and efficient as in previous years, President Coltrane declared.

Playing football will be resumed this fall and a schedule of games with neighboring colleges is now being arranged. In the athletic department, however, the main emphasis will be placed upon a strong intramural program of physical education.

The college is doing a great deal of advertising and promotional work.

getting it established and operating," she said.

After the meeting, Miss Amis went with members of the library committee to see Mrs. Lehman Kapp, prominent Brevard woman who is a certified librarian, and requested her to accept the position as librarian, at least on a part-time basis. Mrs. Kapp said she was keenly interested in seeing a public library established here and would give the proposal serious consideration.

Miss Amis recommended that a library board consisting of 9 members be appointed by the county commissioners.

To meet the proposed budget requirements, it will be necessary for the Women's Civic club, sponsors of the movement, to conduct a campaign and raise around $1,500.

The county commissioners and the Brevard Board of aldermen have each agreed to give $160. This amount, with the amount available from the state, makes a total of $1,445.

As soon as a certified librarian can be secured, the Civic club will undertake to raise $1,500 through a campaign of local solicitation. Mrs. Oliver Orr, president, stated.

Grand Ole Opry Coming To Brevard

WSM's Grand Ole Opry of Nashville, Tenn., will stage one performance at 8 p. m. on the evening of Sept. 3 in a tent theatre located on North Caldwell street in Brevard.

Among the stars on the program are Bill Monroe and his Blue Grass boys, Sam and Kirk McGee, the boys from Tennessee, Cousin Wilbur and Lum and Maggie, featured comedians, Clark Moody, the North Carolina boy and many other top-notch performers. They will entertain by playing their fiddles, ukes, guitars and other instruments, rendering the popular old-fashioned songs.

start this drive next week end, Mrs. Orr declared.

Attending the meeting Tuesday night were Mrs. Orr, Mrs. H. R. Bobst, Miss Annie Gash and Ed M. Anderson.

Miss Amis stated that there are 82 counties in the state that are participating in the state-wide library program.

"With such a fine, progressive county, Transylvania certainly ought to be one of them, too," she asserted.

Haywood county has recently organized a county library and it has a first-year budget of $3,600, she said. The county gave $1,200.
