

For The Women

Society News and Club Activities

ALMA TROWBRIDGE, Society Editor—Phones 7 and 189

Miss Deane Roberson Became Bride Of Ensign W. H. Hamrick Last Sunday

Brevard Girl Marries Navy Man At West Asheville Baptist Church

Miss Everette Deane Roberson, of Brevard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Roberson, of Candler, became the bride of Ensign William H. Hamrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hamrick, of Asheville, in a ceremony at the Calvary Baptist church, West Asheville, last Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Rev. W. H. Moore, of Raleigh, performed the ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. C. I. Poor, organist, and Mrs. Thomas W. Bird, of Charlotte, vocalist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Her sister, Mrs. John Gilmore, of Aerney, Neb., was matron of honor, and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Evelyn Hamrick, was maid of honor.

Cecil Hoskins was best man, and ushers were Zeno Wall, Earl Woodard, Charles Newcomb and Bill Melia.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the Hamrick home, 565 Haywood Road.

Mrs. Hamrick has been secretary and chemist in the chemical laboratory of the Ecusta Paper corporation since August, 1940.

Ensign Hamrick has been located in the Panama Canal zone the past 27 months. Prior to that time he was employed as transmitter engineer at WNCN radio station.

Mrs. Hamrick was extensively entertained in Brevard, Asheville and Candler following the announcement of her engagement two weeks prior to her wedding.

Pretty Wedding At Methodist Church Here Last Friday

Miss Mabel Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Morgan, of Bakersville, and Rev. Glenn H. Barney, son of W. C. Barney, of Tampa, Fla., were married in a ceremony at the Brevard Methodist church on Friday evening, August 20. The pastor, Rev. W. A. Jenkins, performed the ceremony.

The double ring ceremony was used. White gladioli and white burning tapers formed the decorations. The couple was unattended.

Miss Ola Johnson, of Shelby, former student of Brevard College, and a roommate of the bride at Asheville College, played the wedding music.

The bride wore a dusty blue suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias. She wore a pin that belonged to the bridegroom's mother.

Mrs. Barney was graduated from Asheville College, and took graduate work at Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Ill., where Rev. Mr. Barney is still studying and will receive his degree in June.

The couple are spending their honeymoon at Judson Lake, near Brevard, on the Greenville highway. They will return to Evanston on September 1st, where Mr. Barney is pastor of the Hennipen Methodist church.

Following the ceremony, the couple and wedding guests were entertained at an informal reception at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W.

BAPTIST CIRCLES HAVE MEETINGS

Circle No. 1 of the Methodist church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fleet Gallamore, with the chairman, Mrs. Roy Long, presiding over the business. Mrs. Karl Bosse was program leader on the topic, "Building a Firm Foundation for Youth." Others assisting were Mrs. Gallamore, Mrs. Long, Mrs. A. W. Barnette, Mrs. J. J. Gray and Mrs. Winston Ashworth. Refreshments were served at conclusion of the meeting.

Circle No. 2 held the regular meeting in the church parlor. Following devotionals led by Mrs. McCall, routine business was conducted by the chairman, Mrs. Walter Kay. The program on Bible questions and answers was led by Mrs. Harold Runkin. Refreshments and a social period were enjoyed. Mrs. Payne was hostess.

REGULAR MEETING OF AUXILIARY IS HELD

The August meeting of the Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church was held last Thursday afternoon in the Hut, with Mrs. E. L. Happ, president, in charge of routine business.

Mrs. Charles Davis was program leader on the topic, "Toward New Horizons," assisted by Mrs. R. T. Kimzey.

Members of Circle No. 4 served light refreshments at conclusion of the program.

Garden Club Has Lovely Tea And Flower Exhibit

Outstanding among the lovely social events of the week was the annual open meeting for members and guests of the Brevard Garden club last Friday afternoon, which was in the nature of a flower exhibit at the home of Mrs. S. A. Bullock, followed by a garden tea on the lawn of the home of Mrs. Ludwig Straus, both on Park avenue.

Around 100 guests were in attendance at the two functions, including club members and visitors from Atlanta, Louisville, Charleston and various sections of Florida.

Many complimentary remarks were heard regarding the exhibit of home grown summer flowers, their attractive arrangement, appropriate and unique containers and the variety of flowers. Club members and others who exhibited flowers were, in addition to the co-hostesses, Mrs. Bullock and Mrs. Straus, Mrs. Bradford Allen, Mrs. Earl Bryant, Mrs. S. R. Harrington, Mrs. Lehman Kapp, Mrs. Roy Long, Mrs. Lester Martin, Mrs. Ashe Macfie, Mrs. John Maxwell, Mrs. Oliver Orr, Mrs. Julius Sader, Mrs. H. P. Vannah, Mrs. Lottie Duckworth.

Assisting Mrs. Bullock in receiving were the club officers, including Mrs. Sader, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Long, Mrs. Orr, Miss Dulcie Hayes, Mrs. Harrington and Miss Anne Geer, of Hartford, Conn., who introduced the out of town guests.

At four-thirty, the guests repaired to the Straus home, where a colorful garden tea was enjoyed, amid the natural beauty of growing flowers, trees and shrubbery. Mrs. Straus' granddaughter and young girl friends assisted in serving.

M. Melton, 116 Franklin avenue. Out of town guests for the ceremony and reception were Miss Ruth Morrison, of Cleveland, Ohio, Miss Ola Johnson and mother, Mrs. J. A. Johnson, of Shelby, Mark Morgan, of Bakersville, brother of the bride, and Francis Wilkie, of Charleston, S. C.

Music Club Hears Program Favorite Musical Numbers

A program of favorite musical compositions featured the August meeting of the Music Lovers' club, which was held last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Allison, with Mrs. J. B. Picklesimer and Mrs. J. E. Loftis as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Allison, program leader, read excerpts from the first chapter of the book, "Music on the Air." The program included the rendition of the first ten selections which a poll vote of 500 people gave as their favorite musical selections.

Favorite Compositions
The program was as follows: "Minuet in G," by Beethoven, Mrs. Clyde MacDonald, violin, accompanied by Mrs. W. E. Freeman and Miss Jeanette Austin, guest artists, in piano duet; "To a Wild Rose," by MacDowell, piano solo, Jeanette Austin; "Spring Song," Mendelssohn, vocal solo, Miss Emmi Neuberger, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Freeman; "Barcarolle," by Offenbach, piano duet by Mrs. Freeman and Miss Austin; "Melody in F," by Rubenstein, to which accompaniment, played by Mrs. Melvin Gillespie, the club sang, "Welcome Sweet Spring-time," "Humoresque," by Dvorak, piano duet by Mrs. Allison and Mrs. Gillespie; "Anitra's Dance," by Grieg, piano solo by Mrs. Freeman; "Traumerei," by Schumann, piano duet by Mrs. Freeman and Miss Austin; "Massa Dear," to the tune of "Largo," sung by Mrs. Allison, Mrs. A. H. Kizer, Mrs. Mrs. H. R. Bobst and Mrs. Nat Townsend; Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus," piano duet by Mrs. Freeman and Miss Austin.

Other Features
Other features of the program were, "Largo from Xerxes," by Handel, duet for organ and piano, Mrs. Karl Bosse, organ, and Mrs. Gillespie, piano. The organ played is owned by Rev. Harry Perry and was used in his services when he was chaplain in World War I. The group also enjoyed hearing a recording of the broadcast from Sicily over CBS in which Mack Allison, Jr., participated.

Mrs. H. R. Bobst presided over the business transactions.

Miss Elizabeth Allison assisted the joint hostesses in serving refreshments to the sixteen members and eight visitors present.

FIRST FALL MEETING OF WEDNESDAY CLUB ON 1st

The first meeting of the fall club year of the Brevard Wednesday club will be held next Wednesday afternoon, September 1, at the home of Mrs. Roy Long, new president. The meeting will be at 3:45 o'clock.

FIDELIS CLASS WILL MEET THIS FRIDAY EVENING

The Fidelis class of the First Baptist Sunday school will have the August meeting Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Albert Payne, with Mrs. Guy Dean as co-hostess. Members are reminded to bring their extra coat hangers, which will be sold for benefit of the class expenses.

ST. PHILIP'S BAZAAR AND BRIDGE ENJOYABLE EVENT

The annual bazaar, food and fancy goods sale and bridge party, sponsored by ladies of St. Philip's Guild on Tuesday afternoon and evening, proved an enjoyable and profitable occasion, held at the Walnut Inn.

Around $200 was realized from the benefit, which amount will be used toward the church repair fund. A large number of summer visitors and townspeople were in attendance at both occasions.

METHODIST SOCIETY HAS PROGRAM OF INTEREST

A program of interest on the general theme, "A Living Church," was the main feature of the August meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service, which was held last Thursday afternoon in the ladies' parlor of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Cordia King, program leader, gave the call to worship and led in the responsive reading. Mrs. Oliver Orr read the meditation, and the missionary topic on "The Volunteer Woman and Her Church," was discussed by Mrs. D. J. Luther.

Following the program, the business session was presided over by Mrs. E. J. Coltrane, president.

PRESBYTERIAN CIRCLES TO MEET NEXT THURSDAY P. M.

The four circles of the Presbyterian church will have the September meetings next Thursday afternoon, September 2, at the following homes: Circle No. 1, with Mrs. C. D. Brown; Circle No. 2 with Mrs. Keith Pooser; Circle No. 3, at the home of Mrs. C. L. Newland; and the night circle, No. 4, at the home of Mrs. Charles Cook.

CRADLE ROLL DEPARTMENT TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE TODAY

The Cradle Roll department of the First Baptist Sunday school will hold open house in their new class room this Thursday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock. The event is for all members and prospective members between the ages of one to four and for their mothers.

PRESBYTERIAN PICNIC TO BE HELD TODAY

A picnic of the Presbyterian church will be held this afternoon and evening at White Pine camp. Transportation will be provided for those desiring it, and cars will leave the church at 4:30 in the afternoon.

NEWS BEHIND—

FROM PAGE TWO

cradle or in the grave? The liberals thought the scheme would be a great vote catcher, but the voters who have been in touch with congressmen seem more concerned about the destructive tax rates they will have to pay in now, than they are about the prospect of the government paying their undertaker 20, 30 or 40 years from now.

When your doctor asks where you prefer to have your prescription filled, say: VARNER'S, because: Filled only by registered pharmacist; as written and at reasonable prices. (Advt.) tfe

FOR SALE — Adding Machine Paper and Typewriter Ribbons at The Times Office.

CLEMSON THEATRE

FRIDAY & SATURDAY

"Calling Wild Bill Elliott"

WITH BILL ELLIOTT and GABBY HAYES

—also— Selected Short Subjects

& DON WINSLOW OF THE COAST GUARD

MONDAY

THE MARINES HAVE LANDED

Sonja has the situation well in hand!

SONJA HENIE JOHN PAYNE ICELAND

JACK OAKIE SAMMY SWING AND HIS ORCHESTRA

'Modern Mexico City' and Comedy

Co-Ed Theatre

TODAY & FRIDAY

MERLE OBERON BRIAN AHERNE

IN

First Comes Courage

—also—

NEWS & "YANKEE DOODLE MOUSE"

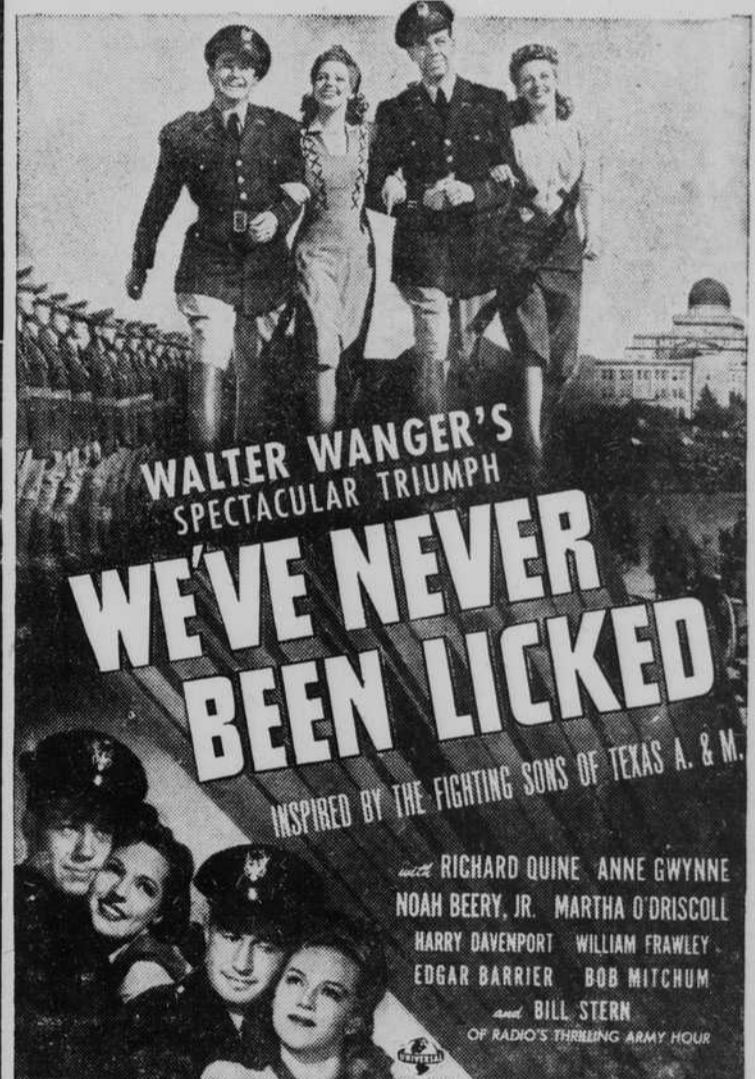

SATURDAY

—also—

G-MEN VS. BLACK DRAGON & COMEDY

SUNDAY & MONDAY

L-A-T-E-S-T N-E-W-S

TUESDAY

Henry Aldrich Swings It

WITH

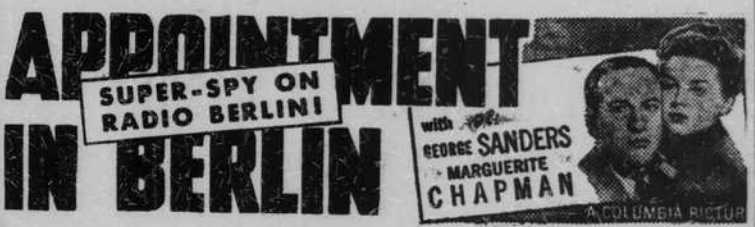

Jimmy Lydon and Charles Smith

Trouble's TOT GETS HOT! He's in there swinging —and the whole town swings AT HIM!

—also—

Selected Short Subjects

WEDNESDAY

Popular Science; "Tokio Jokio", Comedy

Square Dance

At The COUNTRY CLUB

Friday & Saturday Nights, August 27-28

Starting at 9 P. M.

Music By PATTERSON'S BAND

Admission: 40c Inc. Tax No Charge For Service Men

LET YOUR FEET WIN THEIR Wings

Wings

LUMBERJACK BLUCHER

in young, light-stepping

RED CROSS COBBIES

They're the nearest thing to flying. Racy as a P-38. Rugged as a B-17. And as dashing as a cadet officer. Gold Cross Cobbies look young, keep your step young and lively through the busiest day-long duty. Glorious fitting. Trusted Gold Cross quality for long mileage.

Famous for over 50 years as Red Cross Shoes... Unchallenged value at $6.95

SCHULMANS

"One Week Nearer To Victory"

PREMIER

A NEW SERIES OF BROADCASTS

MODERN ROMANCES

Exciting, Gripping stories taken from the pages of the Magazine

"MODERN ROMANCES" 3 TIMES WEEKLY - EACH PROGRAM COMPLETE

EVERY MONDAY - WEDNESDAY - FRIDAY at 3:15 P. M.

Sponsored by the Bakers of Southern Enriched Bread

WSPA 950 on your dial SOUTH CAROLINA'S FIRST STATION, SPARTANBURG