keeps me fighting to keep our freedom and it's your prayers that hold me up. But strong is the love that is locked in my heart, and the smile on your face that I always know is more than a memory, steadfast and true, though each one of your prayers that you whisper each night shall give me new courage and strengthen my fight. Remember that wherever I go, I'll never find a wife and mother so kind and true."

Pfc. Gordon Brewer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brewer, of Oakland, who has been in the army since last March, is now serving overseas in the anti-aircraft artillery. He took training at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Pvt. James B. Pickelsimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pickelsimer, of Brevard, has been awarded the army good conduct medal at Fort Sill, Okla., where he is a member of headquarters, service battalion, field artillery officer candidate school regiment, it has been learned here through the Fort Sill public relations office. The medal is awarded for "fidelity through faithful and exact performance of duty, efficiency, and behavior that deserves emulation." In order to receive the good conduct medal, an enlisted man must serve three years in peace time or one year in wartime and be recommended by his commanding officer.

plans to move in the near future and to operate the farm. At the present time he is engaged in defense work.

The resolution passed by the commissioners at their last meeting, authorizing the sale of Mrs. Julia Galloway's property in the Boyd township to Claude Davis was rescinded at the request of both parties and Mrs. Galloway agreed to pay up past due taxes and penalties against the property, and to retain ownership.

W. E. McLean, who has been charged with poll tax in two townships, was ordered to pay only one poll tax.

A poll tax charge against P. M. Orr, who is 69 years of age, was cancelled, and a similar tax against O. S. Moore was also revoked.

Commissioners Carl Allison and Willis Brittain attended the meeting.
