AID FEED SITUATION

Under the grant-of-aid program, all farmers in Transylvania county who are participating in the 1943 AAA farm plan may now obtain a free supplement of lime and seed, P. A. Rahn announced today.

Supplemental orders for lime, crimson clover, vetch and Austrian winter peas must be placed at the AAA office here in the courthouse and farmers can get nearly as much under the supplementary program as they received under the regular set-up this year.

The only requirement is that the grants must be used on or before December 1, of this year.

Orders will be filled as rapidly as possible in order that the farmers may get full benefit of the lime and seeds this fall.

"This is an excellent opportunity for our farmers to lime their farms and to plant additional seed," Mr. Rahn stated and added, "I believe they will take advantage of it, too."

Latest reports show that there are 954 farmers in this county participating in the 1943 AAA program. "This includes nearly every farmer in Transylvania," Mr. Rahn said.

County Agent J. A. Glazener emphasized the fact that this program will assist the farmers in producing more feed which is badly needed.

BREVARD P-TA MET HERE TUES.

Approximately 100 Attended First Meeting Of This School Year

Transaction of routine business and a short program were the main features of the first fall meeting of the Brevard Parent-Teacher association, which was held Tuesday afternoon in the grammar school auditorium. The meeting was attended by around 100 parents and teachers.

The meeting opened with the singing of the national anthem by the group, followed by the reading of the P-T. A. creed by Mrs. T. E. Reid, and the reading of the P-T. A. prayer by Mrs. J. F. Zachary. Two vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. H. R. Bobst, "Danny Boy" and "Sylvia."

Mrs. Goode Loftis, president, conducted the routine business, and announced that the committees for the year would be made public at the October meeting, or sooner. Plans were made for holding the October meeting at night instead of in the afternoon, to be in the nature of a social gathering and entertainment for the teachers.

School Principals To Meet Saturday

Transylvania county school principals will meet here Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the commissioners' office, Supt. J. B. Jones announced today.

There are a number of important matters to be discussed at the meeting, including plans for the opening of school lunchrooms, Mr. Jones stated.

The government will co-operate in the operation of the lunchroom program this year, but a heavier responsibility rests upon the schools and the community, it has been pointed out.

Among other things, it will be necessary for the schools to secure cooks and provide food. The principals will be in charge of employing cooks.

According to present plans, some of the school lunchrooms in the county will be open by October 1st.

HOSPITAL SERVICE GROUP ORGANIZED BY AUXILIARY FRI.

Members To Assist With Work At Hospital. Canned Food Is Needed

Plans for organizing a hospital service group and for providing food for the hospital were made at the September meeting of the Women's Hospital Auxiliary, which was held last Friday afternoon at the Methodist church parlor.

It was proposed to organize a group of women under the supervision of the auxiliary to serve at the information desk at the Transylvania community hospital and to render such service as may be asked by the hospital staff. According to plans outlined, each member of the service group will have a regular schedule of duty one morning each month to give information, receive and transmit packages, flowers and messages for patients, act as hostesses for visitors, answer the telephone when requested to do so, and other services as become apparent from time to time. Volunteers from the community and county to assist in this activity will be greatly appreciated, it was brought out.

Members were reminded of a resolution that was adopted at an earlier meeting for each member to give to the hospital one can of food out every dozen canned. The food may be left until the first of October at the war bond headquarters room on Main St., next to Parsons', or other arrangements may be made for calling Mrs. Ludwig Straus. Jellies, jams, canned fruits and vegetables, winter produce such as potatoes, apples, cabbage, onions, squash, etc., will be greatly appreciated.

Number Of Transylvania Men Have Died While In Service, However

Several Transylvania county men have been killed while in service during World War Two and a number of Transylvania men died in service during World War One, but a check up reveals that Lewis E. Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glover Jackson, of Brevard, is the only Transylvania man since the Civil War who has been killed in action against the enemy.

Pfc. Lewis Jackson died in action in Gaudalcanal October 25, 1942, and since that time several Legionnaires have been making an investigation to determine how many others from this county have lost their lives on the battle fronts. Their reports show that not a single other man has fallen in this war and that there were none in the first World War.

Pfc. Jackson, who graduated from Brevard high school in 1939, and entered service in January, 1942, was in the first U. S. Marine corps.

He was awarded the purple heart and a special citation which his parents have now.

The citation was tendered to all of the officers and enlisted men of his division and reads as follows:

"The officers and enlisted men of the first marine division, reinforced, on Aug. 7 and 9, 1942, demonstrated outstanding gallantry and determination in successfully executing forced landing assaults against a number of strongly defended Japanese positions on Tulagi, Gavutu, Tanambogo, Florida and Gaudalcanal, British Solomon Islands, completely routing all the enemy forces and seizing a most valuable base and airfield within the enemy zone of operations in the South Pacific Ocean. From the above period until Dec. 9, 1942, this reinforced division not only held their important strategic positions despite determined and repeated Japanese naval, air and land attacks, but by a series of offensive operations against strong enemy resistance drove the Japanese from the proximity of the airfield and inflicted great losses on them by land and air attacks. The courage and determination displayed in these operations were of an inspiring order."

The citation was signed by Frank Knox, secretary of the navy.

Gibbs Appointed As Tire Co-Ordinator

The local rationing board announced today that Charlie Gibbs has agreed to take over the duties of tire co-ordinator for Transylvania county and has called a meeting of all tire inspectors in the county to be held on October 4th at 2 p. m. in the rationing board office here.

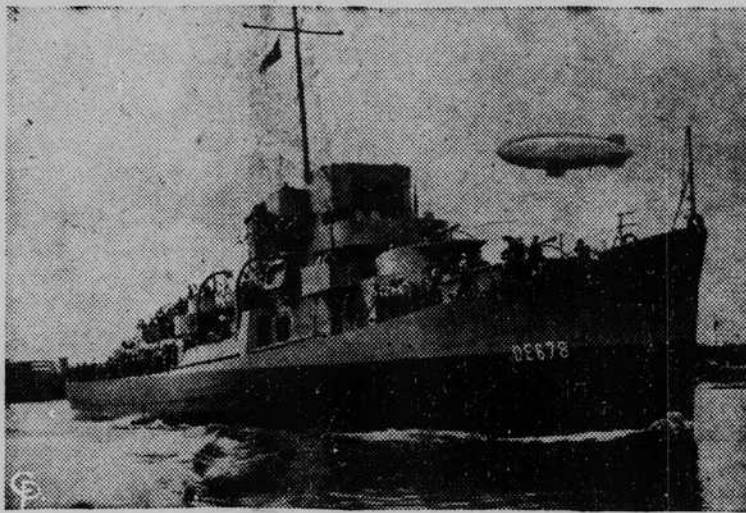

It is expected that a representative from Charlotte will be present to discuss the new inspection regulations.

and reports will be sent to these physicians, Dr. Michal stated. No referral is necessary from expectant mothers who plan to employ a midwife and all such persons are urged to take advantage of this service, it is pointed out.

A similar health clinic is being held each third Friday afternoon at Rosman and the clinic here will be for the benefit of people living in Brevard and vicinity.

"Since serious disorders can develop during pregnancy with little or no warning sign to the mother, particular attention will be given at the clinics to expectant mothers," Dr. Michal said. "This will include a complete

3 COMPENSATION HEARINGS HELD HERE YESTERDAY

Conducted By Pat Kimzey, Popular Member Of Industrial Commission

Three cases were heard in the court room here yesterday by Pat Kimzey, of Raleigh, involving the application of the workmen's compensation act. Mr. Kimzey is a member of the state industrial commission, which administers the act in North Carolina. Decisions will be announced by Mr. Kimzey later.

The first case heard was that of Miss Rose Shipman vs. the Franklin hotel and others. Miss Shipman contended that as a result of a fall at the hotel on July 2, 1941, she suffered a broken hip, which had totally disabled her. Dr. C. L. Newland, now a major in the medical corps and stationed at the Maxton-Laurinburg air base, described the nature of the injuries sustained, and stated that as a result Miss Shipman had been totally and permanently disabled.

Miss Annie Shipman, a sister and associated with her in the operation of the hotel, said that as a result of the fall Miss Rose had been rendered unable to do any work whatever and required the attention of others. Miss Rose Shipman took the stand to verify

TWO MOONSHINE STILL CAPTURED

One In The Cathey's Creek Section And The Other Was Near Brevard

Two large stills were destroyed in Transylvania during the past week and officers were hot on the trail of another moonshine outfit that had been moved by its owners.

Tuesday afternoon Sheriff Freeman Hayes, Deputy W. T. Brown and Chief Bert Freeman raided and destroyed a 70-gallon still in the Cathey's Creek section. It was not in operation and supplies of all kinds had been used up. No arrests were made.

Sheriff Hayes and Chief Freeman located and cut up a 40-gallon still and 120 gallons of beer last Sunday afternoon on Mill Hill near Brevard.

That same afternoon Deputies Brown and Lewis Dobbins made an extensive search in the Old Toxaway section and finally found that the still they were looking for had been removed. The operators, in their haste to stay a few steps ahead of the law, left one tub of mash and a cap.

Bag Limits Are Also Announced. Deer, Bear Season Opens Oct. 15

Because of popular demand, the squirrel season in Transylvania and other Western North Carolina counties was opened yesterday instead of waiting until October 1, as had been planned, E. R. Galloway, county game warden, announced Tuesday night.

One of the reasons for the late opening was said to have been based upon the fact that often times squirrels killed before October 1 are not very good. However, the opening date was changed because of the insistent demands.

The bear and deer hunting season will open in this county on October 15. The bear season will remain open until January 1, but the deer season will close around December 1. The bag limit on bear is two for the season and deer, three for the season.

The bag limit for squirrel is six per day. The opossum and raccoon season will open on October 15 and February 15 and there is no bag limit. The quail season opens November 25 and closes February 10. Hunters are allowed to hunt ten days and to kill a maximum of 150 quail during a season.

The rabbit season extends from November 25 to February 10 and there is a bag limit of ten per day. This year there will be no open season for wild turkeys.

The ruffed grouse season will extend from November 25 to January 1 and the bag limit is ten.

Mr. Galloway also stated that there will be no open season for beaver, doe deer, or fox squirrel in this section and that it is unlawful to hunt on Sunday.

The game warden also called attention to the following regulations and restrictions:

Urgent Appeal Made For Farmers To "Axe The Axis With Axes" In County

To help relieve the pulp, acid and lumber shortage that might retard the war effort, the Gloucester and Carr Lumber companies in Transylvania county and the Champion Paper and Fibre company of Canton have joined in with this newspaper in urging Transylvania woodcutters and farmers to "axe the Axis with axes."

Many farmers in this county have already agreed to devote three extra days this year to cutting pulp and acid wood and an urgent appeal by the War Production Board is being made to all others to do the same thing.

The lumber companies whose finished products are used primarily in the war effort need more men in the woods and are

THIRD WAR LOAN DRIVE SALES ARE OVER $100,000

One-Fourth County Quota Is Reached. Rallies Are Well Attended

Over $100,000 worth of war bonds have been sold in Transylvania county during the first week of the Third War Loan drive, Chairman Ed H. McMahan announced today.

This is a good beginning, McMahan said, but at the same time he emphasized the fact that it is only about one-fourth of the county's large quota of $432,000.

"We still have a long way to go and only two weeks left in which to reach our goal," he declared.

The war loan drive chairman also pointed out that the industries of the county have not made their purchases yet and that house-to-house canvass and individual solicitation have just gotten underway.

At a workers' conference held here last night in the war bond office across from the courthouse, reports indicated that solicitors are receiving enthusiastic cooperation and that a complete canvass of the town of Brevard and the entire county will be made during the next week or ten days.

The war bond rallies that are being held in all of the schools of the county are being well attended and many bonds are being sold at those meetings, Chairman McMahan said.

Julian A. Glazener, county agent, spoke at the rally held at Rosman last Thursday night and Ralph Ramsey spoke at Pisgah Forest Monday night. At Lake

Supt. J. B. Both Brevard schools are expected to be closed from 11 until 1 o'clock.

All men in the armed forces who are at home on furloughs and all ex-service men are urged to attend.

C. M. Douglas was appointed to have charge of arrangements for the parade.

The public is cordially invited to attend the rally.
