—COMMUNITY HAPPENINGS—

By Mrs. C. F. Allison

RAMER RECEIVES INJURIES

Clarence "Chuck" Ramer received an injury on the Ecusta road Saturday night when he was hit by a car, driven by Edward Gossett, of the U. S. Navy, while riding his bicycle enroute to work. After undergoing examination at the Transylvania Community hospital, he was removed to the Mission hospital, Asheville.

CHURCH UNDERGOES REPAIRS

Preparatory for the annual home-coming that will be held on Sunday, September 26, the beautiful and historic Davidson River Presbyterian church has just been re-painted, and other repair work, including a new roof, chimney and doors, has been completed. A large crowd is expected to attend the home-coming.

HOLDEN IN ENGLAND

Ralph Holden, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Holden, has arrived safely in England. Ralph has been stationed at Camp Santa Anita, Calif., and entered the service in February.

PASTOR AND WIFE HONORED

Mrs. J. A. Anderson, president of the Woman's Missionary Society of the local Baptist church, invited members of the Society to her home last Wednesday evening for the September meeting. A picnic supper was enjoyed by the Y. W. A.'s, W. M. S. and their families. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Anderson, was pleasantly surprised by a generous pounding, followed by an interesting program presented by the Y. W. A.'s.

GALLOWAY RETURNS

Friends in the machine room at Ecusta were happy to welcome Howard Galloway back to his old job. Howard, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Verg Galloway, has been given a physical discharge from the army air corps in Texas. He was accompanied here by his bride, of Texas.

PLANE HAS FORCED LANDING

Merrill Capps escaped injury last Sunday when he landed his plane on his father's place. Quite a bit of damage was done to the plane which was dismantled and hauled by truck to the airfield on Monday. Motor trouble was said to be the cause for the forced landing.

J. C. McDarris, who was formerly head of the county FSA, in a letter to the editor of The Times, writes: "Please change my address to the Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill. Ed McCall, George Dyer and Grady Patterson are in my company. No one else came to the Great Lakes from my group. We are getting along o. k. and I haven't seen a bit of home-sickness yet. I am company clerk, and the other boys are taking an active part in camp life."

St. Sgt. Hubert Batson, who is in the medical detachment of the glider infantry, at Fort Meade, S. D., wrote in a letter to the editor of The Times, renewing his subscription to the paper, "I want to renew my subscription to the best paper in the best town in the best country in the world."

Lt. Vance Jackson is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glover Jackson, here this week. He is stationed at Dyersburg army air base in Tennessee and is a bombardier on a flying fortress.

Pvt. Ernest L. Raines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Raines, of Rosman, returned Monday to Culver City, Calif., after a furlough with his parents. He is in the coast guard artillery, and has been in service since last December. Another son, Pvt. Elize M. Raines, is in the infantry of the U. S. army, stationed now at Camp Howze, Texas. He was on a recent furlough here with his parents. The two brothers volunteered last December.

Cpl. Charles Lee, who is in the training group flight squadron at Kearns, Utah, writes in a letter to the editor of this paper, "I'm here now taking overseas training and will probably not be here long. Had a letter from my brother, Ray, and he is overseas somewhere. You people at home keep up the fine work you are doing and it will help us to get this thing over."

SOMEWHERE IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC, Sept. 15—Freeman E. Galloway, U. S. Marine of Route No. 1, Rosman, North Carolina, recently was promoted to Private First Class. He is the son of Mrs. Ola Galloway, of Rosman.

Naval Aviation Cadet Alva Sentelle, of Pisgah Forest, has completed his training and ground school work at the U. S. navy pre-flight school at Athens, Ga. He has now been ordered to the naval air station at St. Louis, Mo., to begin progressive flight training preparatory to joining a combat unit, according to information from the public relations office.

Alfred E. Hampton, Jr., radio-man second class, of the U. S. navy, has been transferred to a Radar maintenance school at an undisclosed place, after an 8-day shore leave at San Francisco. He has been in active duty for some time on the USS Fletcher, and has been in service since January, 1941. He sent his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hampton, of Brevard, his service pins for their inspection. The pins show three gold stars for three major battles in the Pacific, and two stars for two encounters in the Atlantic before being transferred to the Pacific. Mr. Hampton's wife was with him during his recent shore leave in San Francisco.

September 17th

This is the day on which our forefathers gathered together to affix their signatures to this fundamental document of democracy.

Today our democracy is meeting the biggest challenge in its history. It needs the loyal support of every citizen, if its honor and traditions—even its very existence—are to be preserved.

Meet this challenge on this 150th Constitution Day by scraping together every dollar you can—and buy an extra $100 War Bond! That's your job in the Third War Loan drive.
