

When Victory Comes . . .

There will be great rejoicing all over the Allied world and in liberated regions. But victory will come only at the cost of prodigious effort, both on the battle fronts and at home.

Just now Allied troops are locked in combat on Italian soil. Other bitter struggles are sure to follow this one before Hitler's European fortress is smashed and the liberty of mankind is made secure.

The present war loan drive asking the American people to subscribe 15 billions in bonds comes at a critical time. The Allied Nations throughout the world after many reverses are on the offensive and the rapidity with which they overcome the enemy will depend in large measure on the backing they receive from home. Clearly in this solemn hour the obligation rests upon every one of us to—

Legion Men Respond To Notices Mailed

J. M. Gaines, commander of the local post of the American Legion, said yesterday that notices have been mailed to the membership for 1944 dues. The mailing, he explained, was in order to conserve funds and an excellent response has been given by the membership in sending in their dues. However, some have not yet done so and they are urged to send in remittances promptly in order that the expenses of an active program for the coming year may be met. Dues may be sent to W. J. Wallis, Jason Huggins, of Brevard, or to F. Brown Carr at Pisgah Forest. All members of the Legion post and visiting ex-service men are urged to assemble and take part in the parade to be staged in honor of the mechanized unit of the army which will visit Brevard Monday. The time of the parade and other particulars will be found in another part of this paper.

what her sister had said. Ralph Ramsey represented Miss Shipman and Grainger Pearce, Charlotte attorney, appeared in behalf of the Bituminous Casualty corporation, with which Miss Rose Shipman carried an insurance policy at the time of the accident.

The next case heard was that of James Haynie vs. the Ecusta Paper Corp. and the Liberty Mutual Insurance company. Haynie sought to recover on the grounds that in July, 1942, his arm was injured while working at the plant. Dr. Newland testified in this case also, describing the nature of the injury, and the claimant was heard. Carl Stewart, Marshall attorney, represented Haynie and Kester Walton, of Hendersonville, represented the corporation and company.

As a courtesy to the New York Industrial commission, Mr. Kimzey heard the case of Virgil E. Twigg vs. the Grumman Aircraft Engineering corporation. Mr. Twigg testified that on February 2 of this year, while working at the aircraft plant in New York state, he suffered injury to his right arm in a fall which had seriously impaired his earning capacity.

Mr. Kimzey is scheduled to conduct hearings today at Burnsville and Spruce Pine and tomorrow in Rutherfordton. Between $25,000 and $50,000 in compensation is involved in all the cases he will hear this week.

Pipkin, John Pickelsimer, George Page and Bill Bangs.

The Jaycees also plan to go to Rosman Saturday morning for a while with the jeep and to take persons there who buy bonds from them, for a ride.

Mr. Taylor reported that sales to date have been very gratifying. He urged that those who are purchasing stamps convert them into bonds before Saturday at the booth and so qualify for a ride in the jeep.

From 5 to 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon, the jeep will be at Greasy Corners to carry colored bond purchasers to ride, Mr. Taylor said.
