Everything Is Now In Readiness. Dormitories Are Remodelled

GOOD YEAR IS SEEN

All Transylvania county students who are to enroll at Brevard college this fall are requested to register this Saturday morning between the hours of 9 and 12, Dr. E. J. Coltrane announced today.

Next Monday morning Brevard college will open for its tenth consecutive year, President Eugene Coltrane announces.

According to present indications, enrollment will be around 250, which is regarded as being exceptionally good in view of wartime conditions.

During recent weeks West Hall and Taylor Hall have been completely renovated and are now ready to house girls. The dormitories have been re-painted on the inside and a good deal of new furniture has been added.

Registration will be held at the college on Monday and Tuesday and classes are to start on Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

"The outlook for a good year is unusually bright," Dr. Coltrane said.

The first of a series of health clinics will be held here at the county health department office Friday afternoon from 1 to 3 o'clock.

Other clinics are to be held every fourth Friday afternoon in each month.

Special attention will be given to examination of infants and expectant mothers and at the same time all types of protective vaccinations and inoculations are to be given, including diphtheria, smallpox, typhoid and whooping cough.

The clinic will be conducted by Dr. Mary D. H. Michal, assistant district health officer, and she will be assisted by Mrs. Paul Lolis, county health nurse.

Two Egg Oddities Are Discovered Here

Dad Herbert, well known local painter, has discovered an oddity that should be good enough for Mr. Robert Ripley.

While cooking his breakfast a few days ago, Dad found two complete eggs within one egg. The same day Mrs. Mary Jane McCrary brought forth another egg oddity. Hers was geographical rather than biological. Contours on the outside shell made the egg look very much like a map of the world.

"Perhaps hens have become world-minded, too," she explained.

Five Transylvania Schools To Operate Lunch Rooms; Others Maybe Started In Near Future

Brevard, Rosman, Lake Toxaway, Pisgah Forest and Quebec To Have Them

Five Transylvania county schools will operate school lunch rooms this year, Supt. J. B. Jones announced this week.

Reports from other schools were not available, but it has been definitely decided that the following will carry out the lunch program: Brevard, Rosman, Pisgah Forest, Lake Toxaway and Quebec.

Definite plans concerning the operation of the lunch rooms have not been made but "we expect to have them in operation soon," Supt. Jones declared.

It was decided at the principals' meeting here last Saturday that each principal would discuss the lunch room program with the parents in his community and that decisions would be made following those discussions.

Applications For Renewal Of "A" Books Now Being Accepted By Board

Yesterday the Transylvania county rationing board started accepting renewal applications for "A" gasoline ration books, Mrs. Ernestine Davis, chief clerk, announced.

The renewal form should be filled out, mailed or taken to the ration board office here.

Those who do not have "A" books must file original application forms.

The new renewal "A" books contain coupons numbered "A-8", "A-9", "A-10", "A-11", and "A-12". The "A-7" coupon originally printed in the book will be removed before the books are sent to the board.

VARNER ISSUES FINAL WARNING

Motor Vehicle Owners Who Do Not Have Stamps May Be Indicted

S. E. Varner, U. S. deputy collector, announced today that he has been instructed to issue summonses immediately for the owners of all motor vehicles on which the yellow auto stamp for the fiscal year July 1, 1943, to June 30, 1944, is not displayed.

Mr. Varner stated that in traveling around Brevard and other sections of the county he has observed that a large percentage of motor vehicles now being used do not have these stamps displayed. "The stamps should have been purchased and displayed during the months of June and July, in accordance with the law," he said.

Mr. Varner is here in his office in the post office building every Monday and Saturday from 9 a. m. until 12 noon and from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.

He stated that it was not necessary to see him in person to get this stamp. "Simply buy a post office money order, payable to the Collector of Internal Revenue,"

PUBLIC TOILETS IN COURT HOUSE HIGHLY SANITARY

Improvement Work Is Completed. Caution Issued To The Public

The public toilets in the county courthouse have been remodelled, disinfected and painted and they are now in a highly sanitary condition, Sanitarian Walter Hart announced today.

To keep them in this condition, signs have been placed in all three toilets stating that persons spitting on the floors or defacing the toilets in any way will be fined $5.00.

This regulation, it is stated, will be rigidly enforced by the sheriff's office, assisted by Sanitarian Hart. Mr. Hart has also agreed to make weekly inspections and to submit reports regularly to the county commissioners. The toilets will be disinfected at frequent intervals, too, it was learned.

This improvement has been made following a report from the grand jury at the last term of Transylvania superior court that the toilets were in a deplorable condition.

Because of the priority restrictions and because of plans to put the toilets in the basement, with both outside and inside entrances after the war, no new equipment was installed. The repair and improvement work done, however, cost around $300.

"They are now in good shape and let's keep them that way," Mr. Hart stated.

Junior Commando Scrap Campaign To Be Renewed Soon

The scrap collection campaign, conducted locally by the Junior Commandoes under the direction of the Brevard Jaycees, will be resumed on October 2, according to Paul Pipkin, who is in immediate charge of the activity. He replaces Fred Taylor, who leaves Saturday morning to enter the naval service.

The place where the scrap is to be brought and the exact time when collection is to start will be announced in next week's paper and all children who wish to participate are cautioned to be on the alert for this information.

Children who took part before the activity was suspended in June and who reached certain grades will be permitted to begin at that point to work for promotion and prizes. Those who reached the highest grade will be awarded medals and service stripes.

"Clean out your gutters of all leaves and trash as these are also great fire hazards," he suggested. "If each business man and household will become fire conscious, it will save many dollars in damages and perhaps some precious life," he said.

This is also a good time to check all electric wiring in the building, he stated.

Mrs. Chamberlain is, at present, completing the manuscript of her "Memoirs," a sociological study in which she has given her impression of the changes in thought and living conditions that have occurred in her life.

The book has no special thesis, imposes no special opinion; it tells just how life has looked to me down the years," she declared. The 73-year-old native North
