ARMY JEEP WILL RETURN HERE SAT.

Persons Buying Bonds From Jaycees Will Be Entitled To A Ride

"Dixie," the army jeep sent from Asheville last Saturday at the behest of the local chapter of the junior chamber of commerce, will return this Saturday at 10 o'clock to foster the sale of war bonds, according to Paul Pipkin, who is in charge of bond sales for the Jaycees. Others on the committee with him are John Picklesimer, George Page and Bill Bangs.

All persons who buy bonds that day at the booth on the square or who purchase from any member of the Jaycees will be entitled to a ride in the jeep.

Lt. John C. Estill, Sgt. Clifford Taylor and Cpl. Robert Bingham, who accompanied "Dixie" to Brevard last Saturday, will also return.

Due to limited time, the jeep will not be taken to Rosman this Saturday. It will, however, be at worth, "Working Together"; Mrs. B. W. Thomason, "Turning Corners."

A pleasant social hour and refreshments followed the program.

"The boys in our armed forces are the grandest people in the world to sing for," Adelaide Van Wey Hill declared here Saturday. Mrs. Hill, who has been spending the summer here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Silverstein, has returned to New York city to resume radio and concert work.

Last year Adelaide, as she is affectionately known in Brevard, sang to over a million boys in service. Under U. S. O. sponsorship, she gave numerous performances in three states and participated in a great many shows for the merchant marine.

Appreciative Audiences
"I love to sing to the boys because they are the most appreciative audience I have ever had and because I am profoundly grateful for the sacrifice they are making for the cause of liberty," she said with feeling.

This year she plans to devote even more of her time to singing at various army camps and naval centers.

"These boys are ready to give their very lives in the defense of things that every true American holds dear and the most that I can do to add to their pleasure and enjoyment is too little," she said.

No Remuneration
Adelaide, as well as all other artists who appear on U. S. O. programs, give their time and talents without financial remuneration.

In addition to singing for the men in uniform, she does a great deal of concert and radio work. Adelaide has a striking personality and a rich, mellow contralto voice.

"The servicemen like to hear all kinds of songs, but they seem to prefer the snappy tunes that have a lot of zip and rhythm," she asserted.

They like such songs as "Move It Over," "The Man I Love," "It's Postwar Date," negro spirituals and similar tunes. "It's Postwar Date" was introduced for the first time by Mrs. Hill at a merchant marine benefit in charge of Mrs. Thorwald, A. Bjerg.

Dog Vaccination Schedule Given

Wade Bagwell announced today that he will be at Brevard elementary school Saturday afternoon from 1 to 4 o'clock to vaccinate dogs.

Next Saturday, Oct. 2, at the same hours, he will be at the Pisgah Forest post office building.

Mr. Bagwell has been reappointed to do vaccination work in this township. The state law requires that all dogs be vaccinated once each year.

Greasy Corner from 5 to 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon to carry colored bond purchasers to ride.

Bond sales for last Saturday amounted to approximately $4,650, with $3,850 in Brevard, $600 in Rosman and $200 in Greasy Corner.

KRUEGER NAMED SUPERVISOR OF PISGAH FOREST

Succeeds H. B. Bosworth In Position Of War

Carl G. Krueger, supervisor of Shoshone National forest at Cody, Wyo., for the past four years, has been appointed to succeed H. B. Bosworth as supervisor of Pisgah National forest for the duration of the war.

Mr. Bosworth has been named North Carolina area forester in charge of the government's timber production war project. He has been transferred to Raleigh for the duration.

Duncan is Assistant
William F. Duncan, who has been in charge of the office here since Mr. Boswell's transfer, will continue as assistant supervisor.

James C. Kircher, regional forester, and Arthur W. Hartman, assistant regional forester, arrived in Asheville Tuesday to meet Mr. Krueger and make a 10-day inspection of the forest. The general checkup, made once each two years, will include a tour through the entire forest area and a careful study of administration and improvements.

While in Asheville, Mr. Bosworth will also attend the one-day meeting of the Carolina-Virginia Lumbermen's club at Grove Park inn.

Mr. Krueger, a graduate of the University of Minnesota, has been with the U. S. forest service for 15 years. His first assignment was a position with the Kaniksu National forest in Northern Idaho. After a year there he moved to Wyoming, where he has spent the 14 years at Washakie, Medicine Bow, and Shoshone National forests.

A recent survey shows that the stock of vegetable seed on hand as of June 30 was 32 percent above the amount held at this same time last year, but the supply was below the average generally available at that date.

WAR BOND SALES
