Fortnightly Club Enjoys Special Treat At Meeting

A special treat in the nature of a barbecue supper following the regular meeting of the Fortnightly club was enjoyed last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. H. Lyday. The supper was held on the lawn around the barbecue stand amid the natural beauty of growing shrubbery and trees.

Mrs. Lyday, president, was in charge of business transactions. Mrs. W. M. Melton, bond sale chairman, reported that a final total of $6,250 worth of war bonds had been bought and sold by the club during the September drive. Mrs. Lyday was elected delegate to the district meeting to be held in Asheville on October 12. Mrs. Goode Loftis, Mrs. J. C. Wike and Mrs. Melton were appointed on the school attendance committee to consult with Superintendent Jones. Mrs. W. G. Henson was elected to substitute for Mrs. Cordia King during her absence of several weeks.

An interesting program on "When Doctors Are Rationed," was led by Mrs. J. S. Nicholson. This was the second of the discussions for the year on the general theme, "Blueprints for Tomorrow." Mrs. Henson read a brief sketch of the life of Mary Stewart, author of the club collect.

OLD TOXAWAY

By MYRTLE AIKEN
Rev. Frank Fenwick, of Asheville, will preach at Old Toxaway Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The public is invited.
Cpl. Arthur Aiken, of Camp Forrest, Tenn., and Mrs. Aiken and daughter, Martha Jean, of Blowing Rock, visited Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Aiken and family here the past week. He was accompanied on his return to camp by his wife and baby, who will spend some time there.

Pfc. Lee S. Robinson, who has been in service the past 17 months, was given a discharge last week from the Desert training center in California. He is the son of S. E. Robinson and the late Mrs. Robinson.

Rev. George Holcombe, of Middle Fork, was elected pastor of the Old Toxaway Baptist church the coming year. Rev. Elmus Barrett, of Rosman, is the resigning pastor.

Sam Passmore of Davidson River, Frank McCall of Cherryfield and Carl Wike of Brevard.

Mrs. W. C. Fisher and Mrs. Elbert Whitmire and son Ted of Brevard spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Ann Miller.

T. C. McCall, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. McCall, a graduate of Rosman high school, entered State College last year. After he had been there a little more than half the year, he was drafted for army service. On examination, he was turned down because of some physical defect. This year he has entered Brevard College and is pleased with his work and delighted with the excellency of his teachers. But he has received another call asking him to appear soon for another army examination. He does not object to going into the army, but says he would be pleased if he might be permitted to remain in Brevard College at least until the end of this school year.
