Happy Celebration On 23rd Wedding Anniversary Event

Mrs. Richard Pace celebrated her 23rd wedding anniversary in a happy and unusual manner last Sunday by attending church service at the Baptist church here with Mr. Pace, after having been confined to a wheel chair for six years.

"I just can't express my happiness in being able to go to church again," Mrs. Pace said to friends who were greatly surprised at seeing her at church.

Although she had been discouraged often by statements from her friends and doctors that she would never be able to walk, Mrs. Pace has had faith to believe that she would walk again.

Her many friends here have expressed the hope that she will continue to improve and will soon be able to completely abandon her wheel chair.

D. A. R. HAS REGULAR BUSINESS MEETING

The October meeting of the Waightstill Avery chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held at the home of Mrs. J. H. West on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. J. M. Allison, regent, presided. The pledge of allegiance was led by Mrs. J. S. Silversteen, and the Lord's prayer by Mrs. West. Report of the district meeting in Asheville was given by Mrs. Silversteen, stressing the importance of continuing the different war activities of the D. A. R. chapter.

After a brief business session, the chapter adjourned and reported in a body at the Red Cross work room for the remainder of the afternoon.

Scout Activities During The Week

Troop I of the Girl Scouts enjoyed an interesting and instructive talk on safety by Mr. Gill Thomas, of the Brevard police force, at the regular meeting last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Morse, of Columbia, S. C., spoke also on personal grooming.

The leaders and Scouts of Troop I were hostesses for a square dance Friday evening at the Hut. Eben Morrow called the sets. Punch was served during the evening.

After the regular meeting of the Girl Scouts Friday afternoon, the leaders took the troop to the hospital, where Miss Ann Ashe gave instructions on personal hygiene and hospital bed making.

English Music Theme At Music Club Meet Saturday Afternoon

English music was the theme of the program presented by Mrs. Knox DeLong Saturday afternoon at the October meeting of the Music Lovers' club, held at the home of Mrs. Keith Pooser, with Mrs. Edward H. McMahan as co-hostess.

Appearing on the program in numbers selected were: Mrs. Melvin Gillespie, Mrs. Karl Bosse, Mrs. Nat Townsend and Miss Emmi Neuberger.

Mrs. DeLong prefaced the program with an interesting treatment of the Renaissance period, sacred music. She brought out the fact that English music, though somewhat prosaic and unimaginative, was as exact and thorough as the English themselves.

The program included the following musical numbers: "Summer Is Iucmen In," a round typical of Shakespeare's time; music of the Renaissance period, sacred music, "I Have Longed At Thy Saving Health," and "Ave Verum Corpus," Mrs. Gillespie; secular music, "The Silver Swan," by Orlando Gibbons, and "Now Is The Month Of Maying," by Morley, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. Bosse and Miss Neuberger; "O Mistress Mine," by Morley, from Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," music of the Victorian period, "O Glad-some Light," by Sullivan; music by modern English composers, "God So Loved the World," by Stainer, all rendered by Mrs. Gillespie; "The Unforgettable Lullaby," by Cyril Scott, Miss Neuberger.

At the conclusion of the program, the hostess served refreshments.

GARDEN CLUB MEETING TO BE FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The October meeting of the Garden club will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Baker, 325 W. Probart Street, Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. Paul Tindall will be co-hostess.

A round table discussion will be led by Miss Annabel Teague on the Victory garden harvest. Each member is asked to exhibit a specimen from her Victory garden.

METHODIST CIRCLES HAVE REGULAR MEETS

October meetings of three circles of the Methodist church were held last Thursday afternoon in the homes of members.

The meeting of Circle I was held at the home of Mrs. A. R. Gillespie, with ten members present. Mrs. E. S. English, chairman, presided over routine business, and devotionals were led by Mrs. Burt Loomis. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Mrs. Ernest Norwood was hostess to the members of Circle II at her home, with twelve members present. The chairman, Mrs. J. F. Zachary, conducted routine business, and devotionals were given by Mrs. Norwood. The hostess served refreshments following the business.

Circle III met at the home of Mrs. R. F. Mock, with nine members present. Mrs. J. B. Picklesimer presided over business transactions and also led the devotionals. Mrs. Mock's daughter, Mrs. J. R. Sledge, served delicious refreshments, assisted by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Roy Kanipe.
