Miss Ethelyn Pickelsimer Becomes Bride Of Rhea Orin Doyle Saturday

Local Girl Marries Army Man In Greenville, S. C. Church Ceremony.

Miss Mary Ethelyn Pickelsimer, daughter of Charles W. Pickelsimer and the late Mrs. Pickelsimer, of Brevard, became the bride of Rhea Orin Doyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Doyle, of Jackson, Tenn., in a ceremony at the First Presbyterian church chapel, Greenville, S. C., Saturday afternoon, October 16, at six o'clock.

The pastor, Rev. Charles H. Nabers, D. D., officiated, in the presence of a few relatives and close friends.

The wedding music was played by the church organist, Lawrence G. Nilson.

The bride wore the wedding dress of her cousin, Mrs. John Pickelsimer, of Brevard, who was married almost a year ago. The dress was of white ivory brocade satin, with sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves, basque waist and long, full skirt. Her finger tip veil was caught with an orchid. She carried a prayer book topped with an orchid.

Anne Pickelsimer, sister of the bride, of Brevard, was maid of honor. She wore a long, yellow

V-Garden Exhibit Features Club Meet

A victory garden harvest exhibit featured the October meeting of the Garden club, which was held last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Paul Baker, with Mrs. W. P. Tindall as co-hostess.

The exhibit consisted of specimens of canned goods, vegetables and flowers from each member's garden this summer, and presented altogether a beautiful display of a wartime harvest scene.

Judges in the exhibit were Miss Annabel Teague, county home agent, Miss Madge Rhyne, head of Brevard college economics department, and Miss Edna Nesbitt, Rosman home economics teacher.

The following were prize winners: canned exhibit, Mrs. B. W. Thomason, first; Mrs. Edwin Happ, second; Mrs. S. R. Harrington, third; vegetable exhibit, Mrs. John Maxwell, first; Mrs. Happ, second; Mrs. Ludwig Straus, third; flower exhibit, best arrangement, Mrs. E. R. Pendleton; best specimen, Mrs. Happ, first and second.

In the absence of the president and vice president, routine business was conducted by the secretary, Miss Dulcie Hayes.

A social period and refreshments concluded the meeting.
