Recent Bride Is Honor Guest At Lovely Tea Event

Mrs. F. P. Sledge and daughter, Mrs. Roy Kanipe, were hostesses at their home Tuesday afternoon from four to six o'clock at a lovely tea, entertaining in honor of Mrs. James H. Sledge, recent bride.

Receiving the guests at the door were Mrs. F. P. Sledge, Mrs. James H. Sledge, Miss Lillian Powell and Mrs. Kanipe. Each wore afternoon dresses of pastel colors with matching corsage.

Mrs. E. O. Roland and Mrs. Ed Cantrell assisted in serving. Autumn leaves and other suggestions of the season were used in the decorations. Guests registered in the bride's book.

WEDNESDAY CLUB MET WITH MRS. POOSER 27th

The Brevard Wednesday club met October 27th at the home of Mrs. Keith Pooser, with 15 members present and two substitutes for the afternoon - Mrs. Ward Harrison for Mrs. Lehman Kapp, and Mrs. Madison for Mrs. Ashby Johnson.

Mrs. E. J. Coitrane led the American's Creed and salute to the flag, followed by the club collect.

The club expressed regret over the resignation of Mrs. Otis Marshall. Routine business was conducted by the president, Mrs. Roy Long. The Girl Scout chairman reported the need of furniture for the Scout room.

The program on "The Negro's Contribution to American Life," was given by Miss Annie Jean Gash, followed by a reading, "The Creation," by James Weldon Thomas, rendered by Miss Wylma Pooser, in a most pleasing manner.

Refreshments and a delightful social hour followed the program, after which the club adjourned to meet November 10 at the home of Mrs. Alex Kizer, who will also be program leader, on the topic, "Alaska, America's Scandinavia."

Birthday Event Is Enjoyable Occasion

The birthday of Mrs. R. F. Mock, last Sunday, was celebrated by her in many enjoyable ways. Mrs. Mock has been in declining health for several years and has been confined to her bed the past eight months.

Friends called during the afternoon, and the day was otherwise made happy for Mrs. Mock by the receipt of many cards, birthday greetings, a varied assortment of gifts, and four long-distance telephone calls from friends and relatives. A sister-in-law, Mrs. E. E. Roberts, of Candler, made her a pleasant surprise birthday visit.

Mrs. Mock is unable to see to read or to distinguish persons, but she is always cheerful and enjoys the frequent visits from her many friends. She makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. John Reese Sledge.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY IS ENJOYABLE OCCASION

Jean Pipkin and Stanford Hardin entertained with a Halloween party last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pipkin.

The party was held on the lawn, which was gaily decorated with Jack-o-lanterns, pumpkins and other suggestions of the Halloween idea. Games were enjoyed, and refreshments in keeping with the occasion were served. Many of the guests wore costumes.

Those present were: Doris Phillips, Wilma Gay Phillips, Phyllis Galloway, Georgia Ann Reid, Betty Jean Smith, Eleanor Bryant, Clara Dean Parrish, Patsy Parrish, Mary Elizabeth McGaha, Edward McGaha, Joe Poole, Bobby Martin, George Poor, Wayne Kerber, Michael Duckworth, James Martin, Byron Green, Bobby Cabe, Dot Price, Becky Price, Paulette Pipkin, Mary Lois Price, Mary Alice Hollifield.

MRS. TILSON HOSTESS AT MATHATASIAN CLUB MEET

Mrs. E. F. Tilson was hostess at the regular meeting of the Mathatasian club, which was held at her home last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. C. J. Goodwin, president, presided over business transactions, included in which was the making of plans for selling war bonds and stamps on Saturday. The year's project was discussed, and the club decided that the members would work in the Red Cross room on the fourth Tuesday, either in the afternoon or at night. Mrs. Oliver Orr and Mrs. J. B. Jones were appointed to investigate the possibilities of a plan for encouraging attendance at Sunday school.

Mrs. Harold Norwood, program leader, discussed the topic, "Our Northern Outposts—Alaska and the Aleutians." The meeting concluded with refreshments and a social period. Two former members were present, Mrs. Ralph Zachary and Mrs. Fred Holt.

PRESBYTERIAN CIRCLES TO MEET THURSDAY 4th

The four circles of the Presbyterian church will meet this afternoon and night for the regular November meetings. Circle No. 1 will meet at the home of Mrs. E. E. Vasey; Circle No. 2 with Mrs. Paul Baker; Circle No. 3 with Mrs. Henrietta Sprouse, all at 3:30 o'clock. The night circle will meet at the home of Mrs. M. M. Feaster at 8 o'clock.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB HEARS PEACE PROGRAM

A peace program of interest and information featured the regular meeting of the Fortnightly club, which was held last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. F. Zachary.

Rev. W. A. Jenkins discussed the topic, "Responsibility of the Church in Winning the Peace," bringing out the thought that post-war peace must be a just and durable peace motivated by Christianity, with the general welfare of all nations the chief goal to be attained. Mr. Jenkins substituted on the program for Mrs. Cordia King, who is out of town for some time.

Routine business was in charge of the president, Mrs. G. H. Lyday. Mrs. Paul Baker was welcomed as a new member.

Refreshments and a social half-hour were enjoyed at conclusion of the program.

Former Resident Is Beauty Winner

Miss Mary Allison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allison, formerly of Pisgah Forest, but now living in Broad Creek, Va., was winner of the Broad Creek beauty contest, for which she was awarded a $25 prize. She was crowned "Miss Broad Creek." She is a student at Broad Creek high school.

Miss Allison is a niece of Mrs. Fred Manley, Mrs. Emmett Reece and Stanley Allison, of Pisgah Forest, and a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allison.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT WILL MEET NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT

The November meeting of the Local Department of the Methodist church will be held next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. E. Waters, with Mrs. Hale Siniard as co-hostess.

To Hold Clinic At Rosman Fri., P.M.

The November health clinic will be held at Rosman in the Methodist church there Friday afternoon from 1 until 4 o'clock. Mrs. Paul Eollis, county nurse, announces.

These monthly clinics have been held in the Gloucester Lumber company building, and arrangements have just been completed for the new quarters. Special attention is given to maternal and infant care.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their acts of kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our dear wife and mother. We also deeply appreciated the many beautiful flowers.

TO HOLD SCOUT LEADERS COURSE

Course To Be Given At Hendersonville. District Committee Meets

A scout leaders training course for Transylvania and Henderson counties will be held at Hendersonville on November 14 and 21, E. H. McMahan, chairman of the Transylvania district, announces.

At a meeting of the local district committee, held last Thursday night, it was announced that the new Scout troop at Pisgah Forest that is being sponsored by the Presbyterian church is now in full operation and ready for installation.

It was also urged that a troop be formed at Rosman as soon as possible.

Reports from the different troops indicated that progress is being made. The air scout patrol of troop 1 has volunteered to fight forest fires on the watershed as a public service.

Plans were also made for the Scouts to give a special program at the Scout hut in the near future and all parents will be invited to attend.

At the next meeting of the committee, officers for next year will be elected. Jack Trantham was appointed chairman of a nominating committee.

Rev. W. A. Jenkins is commissioner of this district. Assistant Scout Executive W. C. Wall attended the meeting here.

MIDDLE FORK NEWS

BY INEZ CHAPMAN

Communion service will be observed at Middle Fork church Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

Several people from this community attended the singing at Brevard last Sunday.
