FORMER RESIDENT PASSES

Friends here were sorry to learn of the death of L. C. O'Neal at his home in Mullen, S. C., on Saturday morning after suffering a heart attack. Mr. O'Neal is a former resident and sawyer for Carr Lumber company, and he and his family won many friends while living here. Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Phillips, who is at present employed in the Carr Lumber Co., office here.

H. D. CLUB WILL MEET TUES.

The December meeting of the home demonstration club will be held at the home of Mrs. G. C. Sentelle, Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 7th, at 2 o'clock. The demonstration, "Living With Your Family," will be presented, and a special offering for the Jane S. McKimmon educational loan fund, will be taken and a Christmas party and exchange of gifts will be a part of the meeting.

HONOR SON IN NAVY

Mrs. Roy Marshall entertained at her home with a Thanksgiving day dinner, honoring her son, Clarence, who has been here on leave after finishing his boot training at Bainbridge, Md., and before returning there to train for a gunners mate.

Guests present beside the Marshall family included: Mrs. Brook and Toy Webb, of Shelby, Mrs. Glen Bryson and daughters, C. B.

When your doctor asks where you prefer to have your prescription filled, say: VARNER'S, because: Filled only by registered pharmacist; as written and at reasonable prices. (Advt.) tfe

Allison and family, Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Stepp and family, Ervin A. Mullenax, Minyard Stepp and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stepp, grandparents of the honor guests.

ON THE ALERT

A prospective customer entered an art shop. "I want to see some of those pictures that are done by scratching," he said to the clerk. The clerk thought a moment, and then his face lighted up. "Oh, yes," he said, "you mean itches."

GLANCING BACK AT BREVARD

Taken from the files of The Sylvan Valley News, beginning 1895.

(From the file of Aug. 1906)

The many friends of Judge Shuford were glad to welcome him back to Brevard as he came here direct from Montreal, where he landed on his European tour.

H. Q. Adams, a brother of Mrs. W. B. Duckworth, has been a Brevard visitor for some time, the guest of his sister. He was very favorably impressed with the growth of Brevard since he was a resident.

We learn that Mr. Lamborn has resigned his position as manager of the Franklin hotel to accept a position with Waverly College in Philadelphia. Mr. Williams, who was in charge of Sapphire Inn when it was burned down, will take Mr. Lamborn's position at the Franklin.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Kirksey, of Pickens, S. C., have gone to make their home in the west in acceptance of an offer tendered the doctor as surgeon in a hospital at Mangum, Okla. They leave with the best wishes of many friends for their prosperity in their new home.

Mrs. Corbin, of Franklin, came over the first of the week to place her daughter, Edith, in the Brevard Institute.

Misses Minta Case, Victoria Neill, Ada McCall, Annie Riddle and Messrs Ed Hollingsworth, Frank Case and Avery Neill were Brevard visitors Tuesday and called at The News office.

W. C. Bosse, of Spartanburg, who has been spending the summer with his son, W. T. Bosse, of The News, has returned to his home.

Mrs. T. F. Marr will leave tomorrow for her winter home in High Point. Arthur Kilpatrick will occupy her residence until her return in June. Mrs. Marr has many friends in this community who will extend best wishes for her health and happiness wherever she may sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Gazener, of Atlanta, are spending a few weeks in Brevard, domiciled at Dr. J. H. McLean's beautiful home in North Brevard. Mrs. Glazener takes an outing every year among the scenes of his youth and early manhood, and Brevard is the mecca of his business relaxation.

We learn with regret that W. E. Breese has been confined to his room during much of the present term of court by his annual attack of hay fever. Several cases in which he was to appear have been continued on this account.

News was received here by phone yesterday of the death of Uncle Ben Breedlove. He was a pioneer settler in this mountain section.

Preparations are making for a start on the new brick block of the Dunn's Rock building on Broad street adjoining The News office. It is designed to cover the entire 63 front feet of their lot with a 2-story block that will be a credit to our town and county. We learn that T. B. Cray has contracted to do the brick work and he is

Seaman Summey Now On Duty In Capital

Washington, D. C., Dec. 1 — Among the women reservists now on duty with the Navy in the Nation's capital is Mattie Inez Summey, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Garren Summey, of Brevard.

Seaman Summey is stationed at the WAVES Bks. D. She reported abroad on Nov. 17.

As an enlisted woman in the U. S. Naval Reserve, Seaman Summey is one of several thousands of women who have been assigned to Washington to serve as direct replacements for Navy men, releasing them to fight at sea with the fleet. Groups of women in trim blue Navy uniforms are now an established part of the Washington scene and both the city and the Navy have made the newcomers feel at home.

Mattie Inez Summey is a graduate of Brevard high school and worked at Ecusta Paper Corp. before she enlisted in the Navy on Sept. 15. She received her recruit training at Hunter College.

We learn that C. M. Doyle, the potato man, will plant 50 acres in this staple tuber next year. If there is as much money in potatoes as Mr. Doyle has proved it to be, why don't more of our farmers develop this branch of their farming?
