Local Girl Marries New Orleans Man In Winston-Salem Dec. 2nd

Miss Sylvia Lyday Becomes Bride Of C. A. Giraud In Church Ceremony

Miss Sylvia Rose Lyday, daughter of Leon F. Lyday and the late Mrs. Lyday, of Brevard, became the bride of Carroll Allen Giraud, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Giraud, of New Orleans, in a ceremony at St. Leo's Catholic church Winston-Salem, Thursday afternoon, December 2, at 4 o'clock.

Father Michael J. Begley officiated, in the presence of relatives and friends.

The couple was unattended. The bride wore a spectator sports suit in cadet blue. Her brown hat, a calot model, featured a veil and feather trim of matching blue. Other accessories were in brown, and her corsage was an orchid.

Mrs. Giraud was graduated from Western Carolina Teachers College, since which time she has been employed in the research laboratory of the Ecusta Paper corporation. She has frequently visited her sister, Mrs. Marvin O. Ledford, in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Giraud was educated at St. Stanislaus, Biloxi, Miss., and Tulane University, New Orleans. He is at present connected with the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, in New Orleans, where the couple will make their home.

Baptists Make Plans For Year's Work Of Missionary Society

Plans for the year's work of the Women's Missionary society of the First Baptist church were made at a meeting of the new officers and committee chairmen on Monday night at the home of the new president, Mrs. W. P. Tindall.

Duties of the officers and chairmen were discussed, and decision was made to hold an executive meeting each month before the regular meeting and for each circle chairman to give a quarterly report at each general meeting. The Standard of Excellence charts were studied and plans were discussed for attaining the goals during the year.

Other changes to be made the coming year, as decided at the executive meeting, included: to have the Week of Prayer hereafter in a one-day meeting instead of three days and combine the program with the regular missionary day program; suggestion by mission study chairman, Mrs. Thomason, to study at the circle meetings some other mission book besides the regular home and foreign study books; to have the business session first before the program.

Announcement was made that the January meeting would be in charge of Mrs. Harold Norwood and her group of Y. W. A. girls.

NICE SUM REALIZED FROM CHRISTMAS EXCHANGE SALE OF ST. PHILIP'S GUILD

A sum of over $25.00 was realized from the Christmas exchange sale of St. Philip's Episcopal Guild, which was held in connection with the December meeting last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. V. Smedberg.

Following the sale, the regular meeting of the Auxiliary was held, presided over by the president, Mrs. David G. Ward. The rector, Rev. Harry Perry, continued his series of talks on the Prayer Book. Plans were made for giving Christmas cheer to several persons who are ill.

After refreshments served by the hostess, the meeting adjourned until the first Thursday in January, when Mrs. Otis Marshall will be hostess to the organization.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT WILL MEET NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT

The Local Department of the Methodist church will meet next Tuesday night at 7:30 at the church for the regular December business and social meeting.

During the social period there will be a sale of Christmas articles, which each member is requested to bring for the sale. The proceeds will be used toward the expense fund of the organization.

Enjoyable Party For Football Players At Hut Last Week

An enjoyable party was given at the Hut on Wednesday evening, December 1, honoring the football players. Hostesses of the occasion were Misses Lorraine Redden, Betty Jean Duclos and Mary McCrary.

The Hut was gaily decorated in the school colors of blue and white. Blue and white paper streamers suspended from the center of the room ended in a football. The colors were further emphasized with blue and white candles burning in the windows, and blue and white crepe paper curtains.

Following the playing of games, refreshments were served.

Those present, in addition to the hostesses, were: Johnny Summey, Bill Barton, Jim Newbury, Pete Wright, Jasper Ford, Viola Johnson, James Holden, Bobby Hunter, Frances Martin, Vivian Smith, Ray Rhodes, Ray Cheek, Frances Hendricks, Paul Patterson, Bruce Tinsley, L. C. Poor, Marguerite Scruggs, Bill Shamblin, Mary Ann Daniels, Earl Sorrells, William Thomason, Spencer Reid, Charles Heath, Marjorie Cantrell, Susan Redden, Hilton Reid, Ty Morris, Dick Fanning, Ray Cheek, Marie Tankersley, Frances Loftis, Katherine Huggins and Jack Mackey.

Mrs. Jimmy Sledge and Miss Powell were chaperones. The two coaches, Mr. Bullock and Mr. Medford, and their wives were invited guests.

Brevard Girl Left Monday To Join WAC

Mrs. Rosalie M. Combs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Martin, of Brevard, left Monday for Asheville, where she was inducted into the WACs.

She was sent from Asheville to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., where she will take her basic training of five weeks. Upon completion of the training course there, she will be ready for more advanced training, which will fit her in line of duty to release a soldier for active combat service.

Mrs. Combs was one of 14 Western Carolina young women to be sent on Monday from the Asheville recruiting center to a basic training center. This group is the last to be sent under the All States WAC recruiting campaign.

YOUNG PEOPLE DISCUSS CHRISTIAN RELIGION

Fifth in the series of discussions on Presbyterianism was given at the regular meeting of the young people's Vesper service, held last Sunday evening at the Hut. The topic under discussion was led by Doris Ahrens, followed by group discussions.

The meeting opened with the singing of Christmas carols by the young people.
